THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1893, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1893:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 5¢.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Surprise parties are having a run just now.

Donation this evening for Rev. G. M. James, at Prest's opera house.

A number of Andover people went to Wellsville Monday night to see Wilson's minstrels.

The Board of Excise met one day last week and granted a license to James Cannon.

The meetings at the Baptist church have been well attended, and much interest seems to have been manifested.

A broken truck under a freight car between Andover and Tip Top delayed trains several hours Monday morning.

The thermometer registered 10 degrees below zero this morning. The absence of gas appeared to make it indicate thirty or forty degrees lower.

The gas line burst this morning about eight o'clock near the residence of Justus Cook, and then there was a great scurrying around after wood, which for a time was almost common property.

The line was repaired about noon and everybody soon warmed up.

The program for the next meeting of the C. L. S. C. will be as follows: Song No. 14; quotations, miscellaneous; question four in 4 page mem.; seven and eight in 12 page mem. and No. 45 on U. S. and F. Powers. Those not doing this work give any selection they choose. Usual number of questions from the Chautauquan. Table talk on Pericles. The meeting will be at the usual time.

Last evening the Woman's Relief Corps had a supper at Union Hall. The members had previously chosen sides, with Mrs. J. L. Cunningham and Mrs. J. C. Green as captains. The side which gained the least number of credits on attendance at meetings, quotations, etc., was to prepare the supper. Mrs. Cunningham's side was defeated and provided a most sumptuous repast.

Last Sunday night was the coldest of the season, and the thermometer ranged from 12 to 18 below zero, according to location.

A sleigh load of young people went to Belmont Saturday afternoon. Two loads of younger people went to Wellsville the same day.

We understand that Dr. W. W. Crandall will soon start a gold cure in this village and will utilize the store now occupied by Very & Osborn. With two gold cures in Wellsville it will probably be necessary to increase the number of licenses.—Wellsville Reporter.

The Corning correspondent of the Elmira Advertiser says: "Arthur Sidman and his excellent company presented 'Squire Haskins' at the opera house on Saturday night. The company was the best that Mr. Sidman has ever carried. Justin A. Baxter of this city was presented with two baskets of flowers during the evening. The company closed here and all of the members have gone to their homes."

Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sweet of Wellsville were in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hawkins of Hornellsville visited Andover friends from Friday till Monday.

Mr. Michael Patten returned last week to his business duties. He will hereafter be located in Chicago.

Mr. F. C. Lord of Belmont was in town Monday. He is an expert penman and gives instruction in the art.

Mrs. E. F. Stearns and son Victor, of Andover, are spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. A. W. Coon.—Alfred Sun.

Mrs. P. Barrett and daughter, Miss Mame Barrett, went to Buffalo yesterday to attend the funeral of a relative.

Dr. E. M. Stillman has been ill for the past ten days. At present writing he is somewhat improved, which fact it gives us great pleasure to record, and we hope the improvement will continue.

County W. C. T. U.

The Allegany County W. C. T. U. will meet at Sejo Jan. 25 and 26. Mrs. L. P. Davis, State Superintendent of Scientific Instruction; Mrs. Carson of Hornellsville and Miss Leckie of Union will deliver addresses.

Quarterly Meeting

At the Methodist church on Sunday, Jan. 29. Love feast at 9 a. m., followed by the usual service. The pastor will officiate. In the evening Rev. E. H. Latimer, presiding elder, will preach.

If conditions prove favorable he will remain and assist the pastor in holding some revival meetings during the week.

Quarterly conference at 9 a. m. Monday, 30th inst. G. W. Gibson.

A Winter Ride.

A large number of young people from Greenwood surprised Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Rollins at their home Monday evening, Jan. 16. They brought their music with them, and after spending some time in social games and other amusements they were invited into the dining room where they found a sumptuous repast awaiting them such as a king might admire. Oysters, sweet meats and other delicacies were found in abundance. After the inner man had been well supplied they returned to their homes, feeling the evening had been well spent and that they had been doubly repaid for their trouble.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hoyt, F. N. Blair, Olive Rollins, Frank Young, Lena Bassett, R. D. Smith, Margaret Burger, Sidney Scribner, Carrie Richards, Ray Cummings, Ellen Young. ONE WHO WAS THERE.

The B. E. & C. Closed.

Friday's Wellsville Reporter says: Frank M. Baker of Addison, agent for Receiver T. C. Platt, of the B. E. & C. ran the last trip over the road this morning and traffic will be abandoned hereafter.

The courts issued an order last Friday closing the road, owing to the fact that the business has not been sufficient to keep the road in operation.

This will be a bad blow to Allentown. Bolivar can stand it, for she has a road to Olean. Wellsville too will suffer by the abandonment. Forty men are still on the pay-roll and these will all be thrown out of employment.

The B. E. & C. will probably be sold on Jan. 25 and just what will become of it then is unknown.

A Horse Anxray.

Strayed from the premises of R. A. Pense, on or about Dec. 23, 1892, a bay brood mare. Any person knowing the whereabouts of the horse is requested to leave word at this office.
