

THE IMPRESSION

Seems to have been spread to a certain extent that we are not going out of business, and our closing sale is not a bona fide cost sale.

The impression is wrong.

WE ARE CLOSING AT COST,

and have about $8,000 of desirable goods still to sell.

Don't be misled by erroneous reports, come and see us, and we will still do you good.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1893, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1893:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 25 cents. Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillman Burdick are the parents of a boy baby, born yesterday.

The Belmont Post has presented its readers with a useful Home Almanac, a World's Fair souvenir.

The friends of Rev. Joshua Clarke will make him a donation visit at the S. D. B. church on Wednesday evening, Feb. 1st.

The weather has moderated during the past few days sufficiently to make sleigh riding a pleasure. The sleighing is excellent.

J. W. Wood, who was injured at Hornellsville, has not undergone any material change during the past week. He is helpless and cannot be moved.

That Miss Helen Hardy is giving great satisfaction as a teacher in Lanphear Valley is an historical fact. It's a way the Andover girls have, as teachers.

Do you want a World's Fair souvenir half dollar? They cost one dollar, and you can get one by leaving your name with W. B. Bundy, at the bank, any time this week.

Rev. J. A. Hungate of Hornellsville will preach in the Baptist church Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. It is expected that he will also be at the afternoon prayer meeting at 2.30 and speak. All are most cordially invited.

Mrs. Stillman Davis of Friendship, sister of J. W. Richardson of this place, underwent an operation in Buffalo yesterday for the removal of a tumor. The operation proved successful, according to latest reports from the city.

Riley Cole died at his home in Elm Valley Saturday, Jan. 21, 1893, aged 49 years. The disease was pneumonia. The funeral was held at the Elm Valley school house Monday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. G. W. Gibson officiated. The deceased had a wide circle of friends and was highly respected.

The meetings at the Baptist church continue through this week.

It is rumored that Wellsville parties are negotiating for the purchase of the B. E. & C. railroad between that place and Bolivar.

The interior of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament is being frescoed. The work will add much to the attractiveness of the edifice.

A. J. Bennett and W. H. Church are doing a large business in dehorning cattle. They are covering all the territory within a radius of from 15 to 20 miles, as rapidly as circumstances will permit.

On Jan. 18 a company of invited relatives from Greenwood and Whitesville gathered at the home of Mrs. Betsey Updyke, it being her birthday. The occasion was a very enjoyable one.

Wm. Bosard, whose leg was broken in the woods a couple of weeks ago, has been threatened with pneumonia for the past week, and his condition has been serious. At present writing his symptoms are somewhat improved.

Married at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. P. M. Wicks, on January 22, 1893, Mr. Theron Houghtaling and Miss Zephia Paine, both of West Union, Steuben county, N. Y. The bride was formerly a resident of Andover.

W. D. Moulton of the Cuba Patriot is in town to-day writing up the business interests of this place for his enterprising paper. Mr. Moulton will find considerable to write about here, and we have no doubt the matter will be well written.

Prof. Merriam of Hornellsville is giving the choir of the Catholic church a series of lessons in church music. The first lesson was given last Sunday. Under the instruction of Prof. Merriam, and accompanied by the fine new organ, this choir will be able to render appropriate music in an admirable manner.

Quarterly meeting next Sunday at the M. E. church. Love feast at 9 a. m., followed by a union service at 10.30, in which the Presbyterian congregation will join. Administration of the Holy Sacrament will take place. Sermon by Rev. G. M. Jones. In the evening Rev. E. H. Latimer, leading the choir, will preach.

Mr. A. P. Wood has finished the inside of Emory Cook's new home, having used a new finish which is superior in beauty and durability to a hard oil finish, and Dell knows just how to put the "shiner" on. Mr. Cook has built a fine house on his well located farm and has now one of the finest houses in this vicinity.

The C. L. S. C. will meet next Monday afternoon at 3.30. The program will be as follows: Song, No. 22; quotations, miscellaneous; quotation No. 5 in the 4 page mem.; 9 and 10 in the 12 page, and 46 on U. S. and F. Powers. Those not answering these may give a selection from some Grecian author; the usual lesson in the Chautauquan.

The regular Thursday evening prayer meeting at the M. E. church will be held to-morrow evening in the audience room of that church. Special prayer meetings will also be held Friday and Saturday evenings. Revival meetings will be held next week, and it is expected that Rev. E. H. Latimer, Presiding Elder, will be present a portion of the week. Everybody is earnestly invited to attend these meetings.

The trial of Wm. Frost for the murder of Daniel Donohue in Corning last August was held last week in Bath. The killing was the result of a quarrel growing out of the strike at the Corning Glass Works. Donohue was a union man and the defendant non-union. The defendant claimed justifiable homicide. The verdict of the jury was "no cause of action."

On Friday, Feb. 3, the Woman's Relief Corps will take a sleigh ride to Wellsville and visit the Corps at that place. All members who expect to go are requested to leave word with Mrs. C. H. Richardson on or before Wednesday, Feb. 1, in order that a sufficient number of sleighs may be secured. The members of Seaman Post G. A. R. will accompany the ladies and visit their Wellsville brethren.

Sunday evening a sleighing party returning from Horseheads to Elmira was struck on a grade crossing a mile outside the city limits by an express train on the Delaware, Lackawana & Western railroad. Three young men were on the front seat of the sleigh and three young ladies on the rear seat. All were thrown a considerable distance, alighting in the snow. One of the girls, Bertha Munson, was instantly killed, and another, Vira Wheeler, so badly injured that recovery seems impossible. The others escaped unhurt.

J. B. Martindale yesterday killed a four year old cow which weighed 711 pounds, exclusive of hide. The cow was bought of T. N. Boyd and was a Durham.

J. C. Cartwright received a handsome present a few days ago from T. B. Wright, a G. A. R. comrade and Masonic brother in Philadelphia. It is a gold badge representing both the G. A. R. and Masonic orders, and is a valuable and artistic piece of workmanship, highly prized by Mr. Cartwright.

Mrs. G. M. Jones met with an unfortunate accident yesterday. She was in Wellsville and slipped upon an icy walk, falling and spraining an ankle. The ligaments and process were fractured also. Her husband was sent for and brought her home in a cutter, after the injured member had received proper attention in Wellsville. The many friends of Mrs. Jones regret the occurrence of the accident, and hope for a speedy and permanent recovery.

Adolph Wishe, driving a team of black horses attached to a hay rigging and bobs, was struck by train three, on the Pearl street crossing in Wellsville last Thursday morning. The engine struck somewhere near the front bobs, smashing the rigging into kindling wood and fortunately throwing Wishe to one side of the track. He was removed to Fred Behrns' saloon and Dr. Witter called, who found the left arm and right hand broken and two ugly cuts on the head. Although Mr. Wishe is not seriously injured, it will be some time before he will be able to work again.

Uriah Davis has struck a streak of possible hard luck. For the last dozen years he has acted as agent for M. Williams, manufacturer of threshing machines, engines, etc., at St. Johnsville, N. Y. A few days ago the concern made an assignment, and Mr. Davis' books show a balance due him of about $500. Whether he will realize all or any part of the amount remains to be seen. Reports from the seat of trouble seem to indicate that the creditors will be paid a good percentage, if not all, of the just claims. We hope Mr. Davis may receive every cent of his due, but if he should lose the whole amount he won't be "on the town" for awhile yet, at least. There is a grain of consolation in that.

The World's Congress of Women to be held at Chicago during the Columbian Exposition will be the most comprehensive representative body of women ever drawn together. It is to include delegates not only from all civilized quarters of the globe, but from all the varying ranks and vocations of life. The object of the meeting is to discuss "every living question pertaining to the education or employment of women." The subjects will be arranged under eight general heads, namely, education, industry, art, philanthropy and charity, moral and social reform, religion, civil law and government. Upon these themes the most distinguished students and thinkers of the feminine sex in all parts of the world will be urged to submit papers. The outcome of this unique gathering will be of great interest.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp

must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
