Mrs. Ella Seaman has moved her grocery store into rooms over N. & Son's store, where she is again for business.

Auction season is approaching.

W. C. Lever to sell the goods and news to print the bills a successful sale is assured every time.

Don't fail to read the new serial which is begun in this issue.

John Smedley; A Romance of the War," is one of the best novels of the day.

Clementina Parker fell on the sidewalk Monday morning and injured both bones of one arm just above the wrist. Dr. Brainard repaired the fracture.

H. Armstrong, President of the Allegany Teachers' Association, is sending out programs for the meeting of the Association, which will be held Feb. 16 and 17 at Friendship.

Scarlet fever is prevalent in Wellsville. One death has occurred, several children are seriously ill with the disease. Several houses are closed, and the Red Cross calls on board of Education to close the schools.

An ounce of prevention is more than money can purchase.

J. W. Wood still lies helpless at Wellsville. There is but slight improvement in his condition.

D. P. Regan is back to his old position as foreman on the Andover section of the Erie, after a couple of weeks' vacation.

The latest report received from Mrs. A. L. Elliott of Friendship, who was seriously injured last week by being thrown from a cutter, was that she was improving very slowly.

The drawing of the reed organ formerly used in the Catholic church, which was to have taken place the first Monday in February, has been postponed. The new date has not yet been decided upon.

Allie, son of Wm. S. Witter of East Valley, while harnessing his father's team last Saturday, was kicked a distance of seventeen feet, receiving injuries about the head and face which required the services of a surgeon. He was badly injured but is now doing well.

The following delegates were elected by the Andover Epworth League to attend the Genesee Conference Epworth League Convention, to be held in Rochester, Feb. 24, 25 and 26, 1893: Emma Conn, Mrs. M. C. Williamson, Mrs. J. M. Beebe, Gussie Pease, Wm. Trowbridge. Reserve delegates, Fannie Spaulding, J. M. Beebe.

The C. L. S. C. will meet next Monday afternoon at 3:30. The program will be as follows: Song No. 3; miscellaneous quotations; question No. 6 in the four page memoranda; 11 and 12 in the 12 page, and 47 in U. S. and F. Powers; those not answering these may give some Grecian myth; the usual lesson in the Chautauque; table talk on the memoranda.

The Woman's Relief Corps will not visit their Wellsville sisters this week Friday evening, as has been announced, owing to the fact that the Wellsville Corps does not meet that evening. It has been ascertained that the Wellsville Corps will meet Friday evening, Feb. 10, and the Andover Corps will make them a visit upon that evening if the weather is favorable.

Harman's 1874 Tonic Bitters.

M. H. Harman of this village is preparing to again place on the market his celebrated 1874 Tonic Bitters.

Mr. Harman manufactured these Bitters a number of years ago, and the medicine had an extensive sale, and also possessed the merit of being an excellent remedy for certain ailments, and a splendid tonic. The same formula will now be used, and there is no reason why Mr. Harman should not do an extensive business in this line.

Bound to Bring 'Em.

A book agent was seen walking through the streets of this village a few days ago. Under his left arm he carried his sample book, prospectus, etc. In his right hand he held a shot gun. As no funerals have been announced it is safe to conclude that nobody refused to buy his book.

A. W. Miner's Will Sustained.

The Miner will contest has been decided by the surrogate. He renders the decision that Mr. Miner did not intend to die intestate as to the larger part of his estate; that the three women mentioned were intended by him, to be made the beneficiaries. The case will probably be appealed to higher courts.

Ah, There, Jesse.

A contest in oratory is to be held at Chicago in March, between students of the leading Universities of the United States. The manner of selecting contestants is as follows: A certain number of students are selected from each department of the several Universities. These students enter into a contest before the faculty of the school to which they belong, to determine which of them shall represent their school at the Chicago contest. In the Ann Arbor, (Mich.) University, Mr. Jesse Phillips of Andover was selected as one of the number who should compete for the honor of representing the law department of that school at Chicago.

When the decision was rendered it was found that the distinction was awarded to Mr. Phillips, so that he will take part in the great national contest in the World's Fair City next month. It wouldn't be at all surprising if Mr. Phillips should carry off the honors upon that occasion.

Dr. J. L. Liberman.

The regular visiting Optician of Penn Yan, N. Y., will again visit Andover, N. Y., for three days only, at the American House, Feb. 20, 21 and 22, for the purpose of testing all defective vision of young and old, and fitting proper glasses to all who may have peculiar or difficult eyes to fit. By giving me a call you can receive the best satisfaction, without any cost for examination. Twice a year I call on my customers, so that any change in their eyes can be noted and attended to, and all glasses bought of me can be exchanged for new ones if in good condition and not scratched, chipped or broken. Satisfactory reference can be had of parties who are using my glasses. Please remember the above dates.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp

must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue, and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.
