THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Next Tuesday will be St. Valentine's Day.

Burrows' News Room will fill a long-felt want.

About nine-tenths of the walks throughout this village have been kept nearly or quite free from snow during the winter. The snow on the other tenth was left to be trodden down by pedestrians, with the result that they were transformed into skating ponds every time it rained. This was especially noticeable yesterday morning.

The C. L. S. C. will meet next Monday afternoon at 3:30. The program will be as follows: Song No. 9; a valentine quotation or selection; question 7 in the 4 page memoranda; 13 and 14 in the 12 page, and No. 48 in U. S. and F. Powers; those not answering these may give some item of news about the Hawaiians; the usual lesson in the Chautauquan; table talk on the memoranda.
