OF INTEREST TO FARMERS

POTATOES FED TO LIVESTOCK

At Present Low Prices They Are a Good Cattle Ration, if Rightly Handled.

The present large potato crop brings such a low price to farmers that many growers plan to feed the tubers to livestock. Professor H. A. Hopper of the New York State College of Agriculture says that they should be cooked and that they are better for hogs than for cattle, sheep and horses.

For hogs they should be boiled or steamed and mixed with grain, because if they are fed raw in large amounts they cause scouring. For both hogs and cattle they must be accompanied by some feed rich in protein to balance the ration. About four pounds of cooked potatoes may be said to qual one pound of mixed corn or barley in feeding value.

Raw potatoes, says Prof. Hopper, are worth one-third less than cooked potatoes.

The composition of pot toes is almost the same as that of corn silage, and with corn silage valued at from $7 to $8 per ton, potatoes for feeding purposes are worth about 25 cents a bushel.

HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept. Agriculture & Markets January 8, 1929.

Apple Market Steady

Receipts of Western New York apples were moderate, according to the New York office of the State Department of Agriculture and Markets. The tone of the market was steady with trading moderate. U. S. Grade No. 1, 2¼ inch Baldwins and Rhode Island Greenings, wholesaled at the downtown piers at $5.25 to $5.75 per barrel. Washington, Spitzenberg apples peddled out at $3.50 to $3.80 per box, depending upon grade, size and quality. Delicious ranged from $1.50 to $3.60, and Rome Beauties $1.50 to $2.50. Apple exports from the United States and Canada to Dec. 29, 1928 amounted to 6,705,906 boxes and 2,386,105 barrels.

Potato Market Firmer

Supplies of white potatoes were moderate. The tone of the market was firm, altho trading was very light, doubtless due to the cold weather. Recent business on upstate round white potatoes in bulk was reported at $2.10 to $2.25 per 180 pounds. Long Island, Green Mountains brought $2.75 to 3.00. Maine stock realized $2.40 to $2.85. Potato receipts on the local market during the previous week filled 223 cars of which Maine contributed 146 cars, Long Island 58 and upstate sections furnished only two cars. The remainder of the supply came from Idaho, Pennsylvania and the Bermuda Islands.

Butter Lower—Cheese and Eggs Unchanged.

The butter market opened this morning with lower prices on a weaker market. Prices declined one-half cent. Higher price was 49 to 49½c. Extra 48½c. According to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the imports of butter for the year 1928 to December 1, were 4,111,842 pounds as compared to 7,949,648 pounds for the same period in 1927. The exports of butter in 1928 to December 1 were 3,000,000 pounds greater than in 1927, same period.

The cured cheese market is firm while the fresh cheese market is steady. New cheese is selling from 25 to 26½c and cured 27½ to 29c.

Fresh mixed colored eggs are improving in demand and receipts are clearing readily. Fresh nearby white eggs are about steady. Storage eggs are wholesaling from 28 to 29½c for firsts and 27 to 27½c for seconds. Nearby fresh whites, best grade brought 46 to 47c; nearby browns, top grades 47 to 48c; mixed colors, best grade 44 to 46c.

Live Poultry

Receipts of live poultry are very light and as a consequence prices for higher grades of poultry market firmer. Fowls, leghorn were 33 to 35c per pound, colored 37 to 38c; broilers 35 to 52c; capons 45 to 50c per pound.

Country Dressed Calves

Dressed calves are in light receipt, the market firmer and prices higher. Choice sold at 23 to 24c per pound, good 18 to 22c; common 15 to 16c; small to medium 15 to 18c; lightweights 13 to 14c.

Livestock

Bulls: Market steady. Few good at $9.75, medium $8.50 to $9.50, common lightweights $7.25 to $8.25. Cows: (mostly dairy) market irregular. Few good were $8.50, common and medium $6.75 to $8; low cutter $4-5.75, reactor cows $5 to $8. Vealers: Demand slow, market steady. Good and choice $18-50 to $19.50, medium $13.50 to $16.50, cull and common $10 to $13. Lambs: Demand active, market steady. Good and choice $15-25 to $15.50, medium $13 to $14, cull and common $10 to $12
