AndoverHighSchool TIDBITS

Seventh Grade

Evelyn Moland has returned to school after an absence of two weeks.

A new president of the History Class was elected Friday afternoon. Helon Vickers is now president.

A most enjoyable time was had on February 14th, by the Seventh Grade. The Valentine box was decorated with hearts and a great many Valentines were given away.

The new secretary, Florence Parker, was elected at the last meeting of the History Club of the Seventh Grade.

Basket Ball

Both Andover boys and girls basket ball teams were defeated in exciting games on the home court, by Whitesville, Feb. 9th. Lunch was served to the players and officials.

A dance was held in the gymnasium after the game, at which the High School orchestra furnished the music.

TID BITS

"When you throw a match into the air does it light?"
"Why no."
"Newton must be wrong then."

Don't let your hands get too soft—it might go to your brain.

A meeting of the Beta Mu Society was held in Miss Blackburn's room, Monday at 4 p. m.

Louise Folsing, '27, visited school last Tuesday.

The pictures of the student body, taken two weeks ago, have been developed. The shots of the football squad are especially worthy of honorable mention. We are wondering what the photographer held in his hand in place of the "birdie."

To seek knowledge is better than to have knowledge.

Aviator: "Do you wunna fly?"
Young Thing: "Oh yeah."
Aviator: "Wait a minute and I'll ketch you one."

Teams have been started of the sixth, seventh and eighth grade girls. There are about 30 in all and each one is very enthusiastic. Practice is held every Tuesday night after school.

"I guess I've lost another pupil," said the professor as his glass eye rolled down the kitchen sink.

The Allen Oil company is to drill a total of 60 oil and flood wells on the LeSuer farm, southwest of Bolivar, where a five-spot flood is to be started. The members of the company are: Joseph Karl and Mr. Corsett of Olean and Francis Jones of Bolivar.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 24

Christian Growth

John 1:40-42; Matthew 16:15-18; John 21:15-19; 2 Peter 3:18a

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

Ideals are to be actualized in order to make them practical. We have now had seven lessons in this quarter which present great truths in the Christian religion. Today we observe how these facts can be wrought into real life. Peter is chosen as the special example. At the beginning he was quite like the average fisherman on Galilee. His human nature is evident thruout and thus he becomes the more helpful to us.

In addition to the passages of Scripture indicated in our heading, the following are also to be studied in the present research: Luke 2:40-52; Ephesians 4:11-16; Phillippians 1:6, 9-11; 3:12-16; Colossians 1:9-11; Hebrews 6:1-3. These topical lessons have an added value because they require constant reference to the Bible.

Andrew is the man who introducps us to Simon, his brother. Both John and Andrew were follows of John the Bapist until Jesus came. They then turned to the superior Teacher. Andrew is convinced that Jesus is the long looked for Messiah and tells the startling news. Simon comes to observe and ends with an open friendship for the Nazarene who speaks prophetically of his work and given him the name of Peter, a Rock, signifying the nature of the work he will carry forward in establishing the Kingdom on earth.

Some months later Peter is among the goodly number who are called to become disciples, which means learners. Later he was selected as one of the Twelve and styled an apostle—one sent forth. Then real schooling began for the work that was to consume the rest of his life. He joined a teacher training class, with Jesus as the Master teacher. After about two and a half years of general and intensive instruction a quiz class was held at Caesarea Philippi when Jesus asked the blunt question, "Who do men say that the Son of man is?" Tho the answer may have been quickly phrased it was the result of much meditation. Boldly Peter answered "Tho art the Christ, the Son of the living God." At once the Teacher commends him for this reply which announces the full divinity of this inspired Man of Nararetn.

Living up to great ideals and truth is another matter. Peter failed completely on the night of the crucifixion, tho he had just boasted that he would champion the Lord even unto death. As soon as the cock crew Peter re-established his thinking, tho remorse was unbounded. It remained for Jesus to recommission him after the resurrection. This was done after the miraculous draught of fishes at Galilee. Three times Peter was asked, "Lovest thou me," and each time a positive answer was given. Christian growth had begun once more. The fullness of his spiritual strength is manifested when Peter preached that sermon that obtained 3,000 converts on the Day of Pentecost. In one of his epistles Peter wrote, as in our Golden Text, "But grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

Is an Egg Ever Too Fresh?

Strictly fresh eggs are permitted to be called such for only a few days from the hennery, and during that time bring a higher price. Roasted coffee, no matter how high-grade and skillfully blended, deteriorates with age, and never again equals fresh roasted coffee of similar quality.

Nationally advertised coffee sold in our territory must be shipped two or three times by freight for five hundred to seven hundred miles, and be warehoused two or three times. It isn't possible for the coffee to reach the consumer in less than ten days from the roaster, and it will much more likely be three or four weeks.

All our coffees (Heart's Delight and Gold Cross are our leading brands) are usually delivered to the grocer the next day or second day after roasting, frequently the same day. Because of its high grade and because it reaches the consumer so much fresher than any nationally advertised coffee, we claim for Heart's Delight. There is no better package coffee anywhere at any price.

Heroism of Dr. Coman

Dr. Francis Coman, medical officer of the Byrd Antartic Expedition figured in an exciting episode recently when the crumbling of the ice barrier threw one man into the sea and left another hanging on a rope over the edge of the ice wall. Coman, who was on top of the barrier, threw a loop of rope and with assistance hoisted the man to safety.

Dr. Camon was born in Wellsville. He left John Hopkins hospital to go with Commander Byrd and is a son of the late Dr. F. H. Camon and brother of Rev. H. P. Camon of Ithaca, recently pastor at Hornell.
