The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

There is no need to be drunk to be under the influence of wine. The man who takes a little and will not give it up is as much controlled by it as if he was an habitual drunkard. -- John

The sweetest lives are those to duty wed, Whose deeds, both great and small, Are close-knit strands of an unbroken thread

Where love enobles all. The world may sound no trumpets, ring no

The Book of Life the shining record tells,

Mr. Gladstone has just made a very bold announcement of his views on the terrible drink question. In a speech at Liverpool he said: "Let us all carry with us, deeply stamped upon our hearts and minds, a sense of share for the art said." shame for the great plague of drunk-enness which goes through the lund sapping and undermining character, breaking up the peace of families, oftentimes choosing for its victims, not the men or the women originally the worst, but persons of strong sccial susceptibility, and open, in several respects, to temptation. This great plague and curse, gentlemen, let us all remember, is a national curse, calamity and scandal "

 Wyoming Speaks.

The Wyoming Legislature, a few days ago, unanimously adopted the following concurrent resolution:

Be it Resolved, By the second Legislature of the State of Wyoming, that the possession and exercise of suffrage by the women in Wyoming for the past quarter of a century has wrought no harm, and has done great good in many ways; that it has largely aided in banishing crune, pan perism and vice from this State, and that without any violent or oppressive legislation; that it has secured peaceful and orderly elections, good government, and a remarkable degree of civilization and public order: and we point with pride to the fact that, after nearly twenty five years of wom an suffrage, not one county in Wyo an surrage, not one commy in wyo ming has a poor house, that our jails are almost empty, and crime, except that committed by strangers in the State, almost unknown; and as the result of experience we urge every civilized community on the earth to enfranchise its women without delay.

Resolved, That an authenticated copy of these resolutions be forward. ed by the Governor of the State to the Legislature of every State and Territory in this country, and to ev-ery legislative body in the world; and that we request the press throughout the civilized world to call the attention of their readers to these resolu-

ELM VALLEY NEWS.

Loren Cole and Wess Osborn met with a serious accident last Thursday evening while returning from Andover. The forward axle of their buggy broke, throwing both occupants out onto the frozen ground. It was thought at one time that Mr. Osborn's injuries would prove fatal, but he is now improving under Dr. Brainard's treatment.

Anson Brewster is improving very slowly.

E. C. Palmer of Wellsville was in this place last week.

Rodolphus Howland who has been in the lumber business in Pennsyl. vania, has again taken up his residence in this place.

There have been several sugar bushes tapped in this section, but there has been no sugar made.

Mrs. Frink Williams is dangeronely ill.

Mr. Nate Williams is under the doctor's care.

"Sized Up" About Right.

The Andover correspondent of the Hornellsville Herald has the following in last week's issue of that paper:

... "It used to be said of this village that it had experienced but little change since "the evening and the morning were the third day," but since incorporation has got in its work it can no longer be said. Our experience of one s been in everything satisfac tory, and the town is healthily progressive. But we do need some means of staction from fire "
