NO. 33.

MRS. ELMIRA HATCH.

HEART DISEASE 20 YEARS.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

DEAR SIR: For 20 years I was troubled with heart disease. Would frequently have falling spells and smothering at night. Had to sit up and get out of bed to breathe. Had pain in my left side and back most of the time; at last I became dropsical. I was very nervous and nearly worn out. The least excitement would cause me to faint. I was also much troubled with fluttering. For the last fifteen years I could not sleep on my left side or back until began taking your Great Heart Cure. I had not taken it very long until I felt much better, and I can now sleep on either side or back without the least discomfort. I have no pain, smothering, dropsy, no wind on stomach or other disagreeable symptoms. I am able to do all my own housework without any trouble and consider myself cured.

Elkhart, Ind., 1898. MRS. ELMIRA HATCH. It is now four years since I have taken any medicine. I am in better health than I have been in 40 years. I honestly believe that Dr. Miles' Great Heart Cure saved my life and made me a well woman. I am now 62 years of age, and am able to do a good day's work. May 29th, 1892. MRS. ELMIRA HATCH.

"Seeing is Believing."

And a good lamp must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will increase the truth more forcibly. All metal, smooth and seamless, and made in three pieces only. It is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, and than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—The Rochester. If the lamp dealer has not the genuine one, and the type you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue. We will send you a lamp gratis by express—your choice of over $2,000 worth from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.

Christ, All in All.

Come unto me, all ye weary,
Passing thro' life's desert dreary,
And I will give you rest.

Come unto me, each burdened one,
Bowed and sweating, 'neath the sun,
And I will thee sustain.

Come unto me, O needy child,
Who in distress has often cried;
I will thy wants supply.

Come unto me, ye poor of earth.
Tho' humble be your lowly hearth;
I will give riches true.

Come unto me, you that sorrow,
Borrowing trouble from to-morrow,
I will give you peace and joy.

Come unto me, ye so lonely,
Tho' the way be rough and stony,
And I will give good cheer.

Come unto me, you who are weak,
Blushing of your power to speak,
And I will be your strength.

Come unto me, nude and naked,
Fleeing like a man debased,
I will give raiment white.

Come unto me, all ye friendless,
Thinking all are cold and heartless,
And I will be thy friend.

Behold God's Lamb, ye sick of sin,
By faith my kingdom enter in,
I am your righteousness.

Come unto me, you that are blind,
Sad and disconsolate in mind,
I will give light of life.

Come unto me all who hunger,
Stay away from me no longer,
I will give bread of God.

Come unto me, if any thirst,
The will and work of God do first,
I will give crystal drink.

Look unto me, all ye dying,
On a bed of sickness lying,
I'll give eternal life.

Come unto me, souls pining and torn,
By briar of sin and cruel thorn;
I am the healing balm.

Come, follow me in pastures green,
Far hath not heard, nor eye hath seen,
The things I give to mine.

Come unto me, each one and all,
Whosoever on me shall call,
I will give all good and fullness.

The world is but vain and empty;
I am the one, true, full surely,
Evermore All in All.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson, of C. J. Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by L. A. Burrows.

Death of a Little One.

This community was saddened last Saturday morning by the announcement of the death from scarlet fever of Hazel, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Pardon of this village. The child had been hovering between life and death for a number of days, and although the chances seemed against recovery, the hopes expressed on all sides for a return of health had seemed almost sufficient to preclude other results, and when the sad announcement came every heart went out in deepest sorrow for the sad loss to the afflicted parents and friends. Hazel was about two years old, and was a bright, intelligent child, the joy of the household.

In their hour of affliction, Mr. and Mrs. Pardon have knowledge of unmeasured sympathy from all who have knowledge of the circumstances in the case.

The funeral was held Sunday.

A friend sends the following for publication:

A rose's brief, bright life of joy—
Such unto her was given.
Weep not, sorrowing parents, weep not,
Thy treasure is in heaven.

Gas Explosion Near Canisteo.

Tuesday about noon while drillers were at work on the Bassett gas well an immense vein of gas was struck and before the fire at the forge could be extinguished the gas came to the surface and ignited, causing a terrible explosion, making a total wreck of the derrick. Gravel stones went flying in the air, some ascended as high as 75 feet.

Lewis Bettinger a tool dresser was badly burned about the face and hands. He was brought to this place where he received medical aid from Dr. Williamson. If this flow of gas is lasting it will supply Canisteo in abundance.—Canisteo Times.
