MRS. ELMIRA HATCH.

HEART DISEASE 20 YEARS.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

DEAR SIR: For 20 years I was troubled with heart disease. Would frequently have fainting spells and smothering at night. Had to sit up or get out of bed to breathe. Had pain in my left side and back most of the time; at last I became despondent. I was very nervous and nearly worn out. The least excitement would cause me to faint. I was also much troubled with fluttering. For the last fifteen years I could not sleep on my left side or back until began taking your Auto Heart Cure. I had not taken it very long until I felt much better, and I can now sleep on either side or back without the least discomfort. I have no pain, smothering, dropsy, no wind on stomach or other disagreeable symptoms. I am able to do all my own household work without any trouble and consider myself cured.

NEVER BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

As a general family remedy for dyspepsia, Torpid Liver, Constipation, etc., it hardly ever fails to produce the desired effect. It seems to be almost a perfect cure for all diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

must be simple; when it is not simple it is not good. Simple, Beautiful, Good—these words mean much, but to see "The Rochester" will impress the truth more forcibly. All metal, tough and seamless, and made in three pieces only, it is absolutely safe and unbreakable. Like Aladdin's of old, it is indeed a "wonderful lamp," for its marvelous light is purer and brighter than gas light, softer than electric light and more cheerful than either.

Look for this stamp—THE ROCHESTER. If the lamp dealer hasn't the genuine Rochester, and the style you want, send to us for our new illustrated catalogue. Send us and we will send you a lamp safely by express—your choice of over 2,000 varieties from the Largest Lamp Store in the World.

VICINITY NEWS.

A Few Things That Have Happened Within One or Two Hundred Miles of Here.

Three houses were burglarized in Wellsville last Thursday night.

F. G. Babcock of Hornellsville, has been appointed a member of the state forest commission, term five years, by Gov. Flower.

The Miner will case will be argued before the General Term of the Supreme court at Buffalo in June and a decision rendered in October.

Steps are being taken to organize a new lodge of Odd Fellows in Wellsville. The charter list is large and composed almost entirely of business men, who formerly belonged to the order.

A bill has passed both branches of the Legislature appropriating $32,000 for an armory in Hornellsville, and Governor Flower is expected to affix his signature to the bill without delay.

Mr. A. W. Bodle has been promoted from the position of passenger agent of the Western division, to that of General Northern Passenger Agent of the Erie lines, with headquarters at Detroit.

Jefferson Gorton and Fred Scribner, of Belmont, aged respectively fifty and sixty years of age, died at the Lakewood Sanitarium last Saturday, where they were taking treatment for the liquor habit.

Watson L. Gray of Allegany county who was indicted for perjury two years ago, but who made his escape was arrested last week in Maryland and was brought back to answer to the indictment against him.

The Canisteo Times learns upon good authority that the Hornellsville Electric railway company is agitating the question of continuing the road to Greenwood. When the weather becomes settled proper officials will look over the ground.

The managers of the Wellsville Fair have decided to lock up the grounds and abandon the enterprise unless somebody comes to their aid and helps to bear some of the financial burdens. This would indicate that the fair has not been self-sustaining in the past.

Burglars attempted to blow open the safe in the Belmont post-office Saturday night. They tried drilling a hole in the safe, but that work was too slow. Then they tipped the safe over, which made so much noise that inmates of the hotel were aroused, and the burglars were frightened away without securing any booty.

A convention of Odd Fellows to consider the project of establishing an Odd Fellows' Home in Western and Central New York met April 12th in Odd Fellows' Hall, North Clinton St., Rochester. There were 42 representatives present and about 20 other lodges expressed their views by letter. It was unanimously agreed that such a home ought to be established.

Five people nearly lost their lives in a fire at North Olean Saturday. The house of Washington Rawson on River street caught fire early in the morning, it is thought from the explosion of a lamp which had been left burning on the second floor. Mr. Rawson, his wife and three children were sleeping on that floor. They escaped with difficulty. The building was destroyed with the greater part of its contents.

The county treasurers of this state are allowed a fee of 5 per cent. for collecting the collateral inheritance tax. It is said that the Miner estate will yield a fat dividend in that direction. Five per cent. is the assessment, and Mr. Miner is reputed to have left at least $300,000 which would yield $30,000. Five per cent. fee of that will amount to $15,000. A bill is now pending to require the treasurers of Erie and Monroe counties to pay the fees into the county treasury of each county.

F. E. COMSTOCK, M. D. Will fit glasses by Jackson's method, which is the latest and only accurate method. All glasses warranted.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her household work. E. R. Johnson, of C. J. Johnson & Co., Kingston, Minn., sent bottles for sale by E. R. Johnson.

A Few Circulation Figures.

The home subscription list has reached high water mark this week. Two hundred and nine subscribers get the Post from the Belmont post-office.—Belmont Post.

Two hundred and seventy-nine subscribers get Every Week from the Angelica post-office, which is a larger number than the whole edition of any other paper published in town. Our books are open for inspection to prove this assertion.—Angelica Every Week.

We feel it a duty which we owe to our readers, our advertisers and ourselves to state that the exact number of copies of the ANDOVER NEWS taken at the Andover post-office is three hundred and twenty-one. The villages of Belmont and Angelica are each credited with a larger population than is Andover, but the figures above given show that the papers published at the former places are not "in it" with the News, at least so far as home subscriptions go. We don't believe there is a town this side of newspaper paradise where a greater proportion of the citizens subscribe for their home paper than in Andover. Those who don't already advertise ought to make a note of this. You can come to the office and count the names on our book, if you won't take our word. Oh, yes, and one family borrows the paper each week from a neighbor, so we really ought to count it 322. Better come in and subscribe, Mr. Borrower, and pay for what you get instead of depending on a friend.

Death of Mrs. John Swain.

Philena, wife of John Swain, died at her home in this town Saturday evening, April 15, 1893, aged 68 years. Mrs. Swain had been an invalid for many years, and had suffered much from asthma and bronchitis. She had been gradually failing for some time, but her friends did not anticipate her death at present. The end came suddenly at the time above stated, and this community mourns the loss of a woman of high christian character.

Mrs. Swain was born in Andover, and was the daughter of Seth Baker, one of the early pioneers of this place. She was married 43 years ago last September to John Swain, and the married life of this estimable couple was filled with happiness and tender regard each for the other. The deceased joined the church when 15 years old, and up to her death continued a respected and consistent member of the Andover Presbyterian church. She was in all things christian-like, and her whole life was devoted to the service of God. All that can be said of any person's fidelity to God, home, and family can be said of her, and the memory of her kind words and deeds will long be cherished by those who knew her best. It is needless to say that her husband, children, brothers, sisters, and other relatives have the fullest measure of sympathy from a wide circle of friends. The deceased leaves, besides a husband, eight children—S. A. Swain of Fernandina, Fla.; Mrs. S. E. Cook of Castile, N. Y.; William N. Swain of Ward, N. Y.; Edward Swain and Mrs. William Bines of Andover; Charles Swain and Mrs. E. E. Orvis of Hartsville, N. Y.; and E. E. Swain of Canaseraga, N. Y.

The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church in this village Monday afternoon, Rev. G. M. Janes officiating, assisted by Rev. G. W. Gibson and Rev. Wayne Brewster. There was a large attendance of friends, neighbors and acquaintances who came to pay the last respects to the memory of a good woman.

"Tis sweet to rest in lively hope
That when my change shall come,
Angels will hover round my bed
And waft my spirit home."

Mrs. E. C. Martindale wishes to call the attention of the ladies of Andover and the surrounding towns to her new stock of Spring Millinery, to which will be added the latest styles as they appear during the coming summer. Thanking them for past favors she solicits a continuance of the same.

Another Bucket Brigade.

A large fire, involving severe loss, occurred in Campbell, Steuben county, last Thursday. It broke out about 4:30 p. m., and was caused by a spark from a passing engine lodging on the roof of a grain warehouse belonging to C. H. Semis & Co. The buildings consumed were the warehouse, the Erie coal sheds, the Central hotel and barns and the large hay and grain barns and shed belonging to John R. Runner. The citizens of the place did all in their power but were unable to save the buildings.

Real Floating Island at Chautauqua.

A dispatch from Jamestown says: During last week's storm a two acre piece of land broke away from the mainland and floated out into Lake Chautauqua. C. D. Gifford moored it in front of his farm. It broke away, and after floating around a few hours Fred A. Bentley got it aground on his place and refused to give it up. Half a dozen people claim the floating island and have taken the case into court. It originally was attached to Charles H. Wicker's land, and he is suing to regain possession of it.

Prospects for New Mill.

Geo. E. Brown is erecting a temporary building for a saw-mill, for the purpose of converting into lumber the large quantity of logs now on hand. There are good prospects that Mr. Brown will soon be enabled to rebuild the flouring mill, as substantial help is being pledged by many citizens of this and adjoining towns. This is an industry that our people can well afford to see re-established, and the prospects appear good for the erection of a much better plant than has ever stood on the old site. Do what you can to help the project along and you will surely receive a share of the benefits.

A Generous Gift.

A couple of weeks ago the News stated that the Presbyterian society of Andover had purchased a lot on East Avenue and contemplated the erection of a parsonage upon the same. There are facts connected with this matter which certain parties did not care to make public, but which, from a combination of circumstances, have since been gradually coming to the surface, and which, as a disseminator of facts in relation to occurrences in this neighborhood, the News now assumes the responsibility of giving publicity to. The lot in question was purchased by Mr. James Owen of this village, and duly deeded to the Presbyterian society as a gift from that gentleman. A provision attending the bestowal of this valuable property (and a very proper one, it must be admitted) was that the Society should erect a dwelling house thereon to be henceforth used as a parsonage. With this provision the members of the church and other interested persons will make a strong effort to comply, and it is sincerely hoped that their efforts will speedily be rewarded with success. Surely, when one gentleman donates the site, the remaining portion of those interested in the prosperity of this church should see to it that the building (and a handsome one, too) is erected without delay. We do not think it possible that there will be a failure to comply with the provision of Mr. Owen's generous gift.

Announcement.

Dr. O'Donnell wishes to announce that he has concluded his engagement with the Hornell Sanitarium Company, and has resumed his practice in Andover.

Persons having unsettled accounts with him are requested to call and settle the same.

Persons who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon as these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the Remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by L. A. Burrows.
