Millinery. Our most hopeful anticipations have been already realized in the results of this new departure. No such fine display of Trimmed Hats, of rich flowers and of general Millinery equipments was ever before seen in one young city. Special inducements to wholesale Millinery buyers.

Carpets, &c. Not only have we a choice line of the newest designs in Carpets, but many rare bargains in Lace Curtains and Chenille Draperies. Plain Window Shades from the cheapest Holland to the best Lonsdale Cloth with knotted fringe. We have an excellent exhibit in this class of goods. Come to us for Feathers and Carpet Sweepers.

Broad Cloths. The demand of cloak manufacturers has caused a great scarcity in spring shades of Broad Cloths, but we were fortunate in obtaining a fine assortment of them, especially Tans, both at 98c. and $1.25 yard.

Dress Goods. We continue our sale of Chevron Suitings at 21c. If you are too far away, send for samples of them. Our Jamestown all wool Serges are conceded by good judges to be the best half-dollar fabric ever put upon the market.

Briefs. Boys' Shirt Waists, both for every day and Sunday.

We drag on our 50c Corsets.

Another supply of those Silk Gloves with tipped fingers.

Our spring invoice of Ribbons is here. Stamped linen Doyles 5c each, upwards.

Silk Umbrellas—Black, Navy and changeable.

The round, luminous body seen in the heavens Monday forenoon at 10:30 was the sun. This seemingly rash assertion is corroborated by a study of several astronomical treatises and calendars.

Will H. Crandall, the hustling insurance agent of Alfred Centre, has our thanks for a good ruler, which we find of service on our desk.—Every Week. They are handy to have in the house.—Alfred Sun. We understand the manager of the Sun has a large family of small children.

The News received a communication last week from somebody who evidently can't write. Letters of all sizes were cut from a copy of the paper and pasted on a sheet of note paper, in the order required to spell the words. The letters varied in size from nonpareil to six-line pica.

The program for the next meeting of the C. L. S. C. is as follows: Music, No. 19; quotations from Addison; the usual number of questions on the lesson; question 17 in the 4 page memorandum, 33 and 34 in the 12 page, and 58 under U. S. and F. Powers; those not answering these may give some fact about the World's Fair.

A meeting of the Alumni Association of Andover Union School was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Beebe last Friday evening. It was decided to hold the usual banquet at the close of the school year, and Thursday evening, June 22, was decided upon as the date. Temporary arrangements were made and the various committees will now proceed to arrange the details for the event.

Mariah M. Blackman, wife of George Blackman, died Sunday morning, Apr. 23d, aged 76 years. Deceased was only ill for a few days, a severe cold leading to her death. The aged husband survives together with five children; these are Capt. Geo. H. Blackman and Mrs. Wm. Duke, of this city; Daniel G. Blackman, of Kinzua, Pa.; Mrs. D. P. Corwin, of Andover, and Mrs. H. M. Eldredge, of Hanover, Pa.—Wellsville Reporter.
