THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:
RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Next Friday will be Arbor Day.
Many new sidewalks are being built.
The Erie's new time table will take effect May 21.

The week started in "dry," but we had plenty of rain Monday.

Remember the sugar social at Mrs. W. C. Lever's this evening.

G. B. Proper has placed a new marble-top counter in his meat market.
The Board of Excise met Monday but didn't grant any licenses. There were no applications.

A Friendship boy has a hen which he claims lays three eggs a day. Friendship is a truthful town, else we wouldn't believe the story.

Jeremiah Clarke has been laid up with rheumatism for some time past. He was able to be down town yesterday and again to-day. He has sold 98 head of full-blood Holstein cattle since last fall.

Arbor Day will be celebrated in an appropriate manner by the pupils of the Andover Union School. The senior class will plant and dedicate a tree. All are invited to be present at the exercises commencing at 2 p. m., Friday, May 6.

The attendance at the World's Fair on Monday, the opening day, was 815,000.

The World's Fair is all right, but some people think the railroad fare is all wrong.

Health Boards in many places are issuing regulations for promoting the general health of the people.

Will H. Crandall of Alfred Centre has sent us one of his rulers, which we will try to put to good use.

The drawing of the reed organ formerly used in the Catholic church took place Monday evening. Anthony Dean, Sr., held the lucky number that drew the organ.

The Wellsville Democrat never gets left—neither do its readers. That paper appeared last week enlarged and correspondingly improved. Long may the Democrat shine.

The village assessors have completed the assessment roll, and the same may be seen at Snyder & Clark's office until Monday, May 8, on which date the assessors will meet at the said office to listen to complaints.

Miss Sophia McLaughlin will teach at Andover next year. She has made and kept many friends among her pupils in Friendship, where her service has covered a period of four years.—Friendship Register.

The circulation of the following papers at their home post-office is a creditable showing: Andover News, 321; Angelica Every Week, 279; Belmont Post, 209. Each of the three papers give more than value received to subscribers and advertisers.—Cuba Patriot.

The Teachers' Summer School at the Central New York Assembly Grounds, Tully, N. Y., in which Prof. Armstrong of this place is largely interested, will open July 10 and continue three weeks. The programs have been issued and the faculty includes several Allegany County principals.

The program for the next meeting of the C. I. S. C. is as follows: Song No. 37; a quotation from or a fact about Socrates; the customary lesson in the Chautauquan; question 18 in the 4 page memoranda; 35 and 36 in the 12 page, and 59 under U. S. and F. Powers; those not answering these may each bring in some topic to be discussed by the circle as table talk.

Fred. Scribner of Belmont, who recently died at the Lakewood sanitarium, was an uncle of J. C. and S. S. Scribner of this place. Mr. Scribner had not drank liquor in two years, and went to Lakewood for treatment for his blood. He died of heart failure, and had not received treatment of any kind at the sanitarium, his death occurring very soon after arriving there.

The operation of the World's Fair schedule on the Erie will have but little effect on the time table of the Buffalo division beyond what local necessities will require. Almost all of the through traffic is to be sent over the Western division, which has been put in first-class shape to handle all traffic offering, and which is preparing to put on airs and to assume once more its old-time position as the "main line."—Hornellsville Times.

A farewell banquet was given Monday evening by the choir of the Catholic church, in honor of Miss Anna O'Leary, former organist at that church, who expects to reside in Bradford in the future. The members of the choir, with other guests, in all numbering about thirty-five, did their best to show a proper appreciation of Miss O'Leary's services and also to demonstrate their regret at her departure. Toasts were responded to, music was rendered, and a good time generally was had. Miss O'Leary left yesterday morning for Bradford.

The Richburg correspondent of the Friendship Register says: "Very much to the regret of his numerous friends in this place Prof. B. B. Brown's term of service as principal of our school will close with the present school year. When he took charge of our school two years ago, it was badly run down; but his labors have been abundantly blessed and now we are not afraid to compare our school with any of its class in the county. We understand that Mr. Brown will go to his new field of labor in Andover with an increased salary. He might have remained here. The Board of Education were so well pleased, that, at their last meeting they passed a resolution commending his work. Nor have we been less fortunate in our other teachers. Both Miss Meade and Miss Kemp have made excellent records."
