"White-jacketed coffin nails," some one has dubbed cigarettes.

"Whiskey is your greatest enemy," said a pastor to an intemperate man.
"Well, doesn't the Bible tell us to love our enemies?"
"Yes," said the pastor gravely,

"Yes," said the pastor gravely, "but it doesn't tell us to swallow

April 19th was the 118th anniversary of the famous ride of Paul Revers, which was followed by "the shot heard round the world." That shot was to wake up the nations to the knowledge that those who are to obey the laws ought to make them. Now, after all these years, women walk where Paul Revere rode, every walk where Paul Revere rode, every one of them treated by this Government as George III treated the colonists; not a woman with a vote for her lawmakers; not a married mother with a right to her baby; every woman taxed without representation. The world knows its heroes. History preserves their names and their deeds. But what shall be said of those legislators who sit under the gilded dome and deny to women the rights which every to women the rights which every man of them clings to for himself?

Bishop John H. Vincent, than whom none is better known in religious and literary circles, has the following to say of our far-reaching organization and its leader in a recent letter. Towns organization and its leader in a recent letter: "I am a hearty believer in the W. C. T. U. I do not indorse every move it has made nor everything said by all of its representatives, but there are spots on the sun Possibly where I differ from some of the leaders of the W. C. T. U, they are right and I am wrong. As for the work as a whole accomplished by are right and I am wrong. As for the work as a whole accomplished by the thiotr, it is beyond praise. I believe in it and advocate it. As for its president, Miss Willard, I regard her as the best illustration of the famous thirteenth chapter of Paul's first letter to the Corinthians I ever knew. I am a total abstainer and a Prohibitionist, and have been both for years." We are glad to publish the above from this noted leader and Christian worker, because honest Christian worker, because honest praise from such a source has its attendant inspiration.

Mrs. Henrietta Briggs Wall of Hutchinson, Kan., has designed and finished a remarkable picture called "Woman and Her Political Peers," which is to be exhibited at the World's Fuir. In the centre is a life-sized portrait of Frances Willard. Above and to the left is the likeness of an idiot; above and to the right is represented a convict in his prison garb; below, to the left, is an American Indian; and below, to the right, is an insaue person. The Topeka Capital says: The incongruity of the company Miss Willard is represented as keeping is such as at once to attract attention and excite wonder, until it is explained that such is the attract attention and excite wonder, until it is explained that such is the relative political status of American women. No ope can fail to be impressed with the absurdity of a statutory regulation that places women in the same legal category with the idiot, the Indian and the insane person. insane person

WEST GREENWOOD NEWS.

Thomas Murray died at his home in this place last Thursday morning. Mr. Murray came from Ireland and has resided on the place where he died 54 years. He was a good neighbor and a respected citizen. His age was nearly 100 years.
