Another Fire Visits Greenwood

About 2 a. m., Sunday morning, the home of Bernard Murray was discovered on fire by neighbors. The entire house was enveloped in flames when discovered and it was impossible to save a thing from the house. Mr. Murray was at the home of his son, Thomas Murray of Greenwood Hill at the time of the fire. The loss will be very heavy as there was only a small amount of insurance.

All indications are that there is a fire bug in Greenwood. It is to be hoped that some fire-fighting apparatus will soon be purchased for use in Greenwood.

Redpath Chautauqua Course

The first number on the Redpath Chautauqua Course to be given in Greenwood is "The Musical Merry Makers." The entertainment will be presented in the Masonic Hall Saturday evening, Oct. 25th. Other numbers on the course are Reno the Musician, Nov. 1st; Alexander Novelty Four, Nov. 8th, and "Dinnie" Upton, Nov. 15th. Adult season tickets are selling for $1.50 and children's for 75c.

Young-Tilroe Marriage

On Wednesday, October 15th, occurred the marriage of Mary Woodward Tilroe and Mr. Young, both of Syracuse. After a wedding trip to New York and Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Young will reside in Syracuse where Mr. Young is engaged in insurance business. Mrs. Young is very well known in this place, her girlhood home. Until her marriage Mrs. Young was probation officer in the city of Syracuse.

Gasoline Pump Moved

A car operated by Mr. Saunders, who was driving thru town toward Canisteo was crowded into the curb by a car being driven at a very rapid rate down the Andover road. The Saunders car struck a gasoline pump in front of the Plaisted and Matthews Hardware with such force as to break the pump completely off. Fortunately no one was injured.

Baked apples make a pleasant variety for the school lunch. They may be safely packed in a paraffin cup with a tight-fitting cover.

Hoot Gibson Here Again

Hoot Gibson, whose amusing Universal western feature, "Roaring Ranch," comes to the Auditorium Tuesday and Wednesday, was famed throughout the West for his riding ability before he ever left the ranges. Gibson came to motion pictures by way of wild west shows and rodeos. "Roaring Ranch" gives him ample opportunity to demonstrate his amazing riding ability. Charming Sally Eilers appears as his leading lady and the exceptional cast includes little Bobby Nelson, Sheldon Dickens, Frank Clark and Lee White. The picture was directed by Reaves Eason.
