

Rockwell Bros.

CARPETS.

We are becoming headquarters for floor coverings.

Each week's business shows an increase over its predecessor. The reasons are obvious: Immense stock, new, fresh patterns, one price and that always the lowest. No stairs to climb, correct knowledge of goods given.

Several new patterns of the celebrated Agras just at hand. Carpets sewed when desired. Done under our roof by competent and rapid hands. In this department we show some elegant values in Chenille Draperies, notably at $4, $5 and $6.75 pair. Also some high art novelties in Draperies from $9 to $12 pair.

Before taking leave of this room just glance at our special $2 and $3 Nottingham Lace Curtains.

If you want something for the bedrooms we'll bring out some for 95c pair, good ones too. Irish Point Curtains as low as $3.50, and beauties at $5.50 and $7.75 pair.

In other house furnishings, such as Mouquette and Smyrna Rugs, Jute and Raw Silk Furniture Coverings, Fringed Window Shades, Curtain Muslins, etc., we are acknowledged leaders.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 23, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of red ding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

L. D. Cobb has been in town a few days.

John Thurston, Sr., of Friendship, was in town last week.

Attorney Elba Reynolds of Belmont was in town yesterday.

Dick Coyle of Seio spent a couple of days in Andover last week.

Mrs. Stephen Ballard of Belmont visited her parents and other relatives in this place Saturday.

Miss Lottie Lee of Wellsville attended the sugar social at Mrs. W. C. Lever's last Wednesday evening.

Mr. James Laverty, who has for some time past been stopping in Buffalo, has been greeting his relatives and numerous friends in Andover during the past week.

Mr. Phillip O'Connor of Chicago keeps many of his Andover friends posted on doings at the World's Fair by sending them a liberal supply of Chicago papers. The News is not forgotten, and we appreciate friend O'Connor's kindness.

Miss Mattie Crandall of Belmont is the guest of Dency Cole, of Elm Valley.

The cellar for H. Mourhess' new brick building on Main street was begun Monday.

Mrs. Chas. Burdick of East Valley was visiting G. B. Proper and family the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McTighe are the parents of a boy baby, who put in appearance last Wednesday.

Stillman Davis and wife and Miss Lena Grames of Friendship are visiting at J. W. Richardson's.

Hiram Davis is ill at his home in this village. His case, while perhaps not considered critical, is serious.

Mrs. Kittie Magee, daughter of Joseph Krusen, who has spent several months in Andover returned to her home in Firstview, Colo. Thursday.

Col. and Mrs. John Strang of Genesee, visited their daughter, Miss Louise Strang, a few days during the past week.

A fire in Wellsville last night destroyed the Howell house barn and a number of small buildings. A horse lost its life in the flames.

The question, Who will get the post-offices? seems to be settled in favor of the burglars. How to get the burglars is what bothers the officials.

Prof. A. D. Howe and family, and Miss Marks, one of the teachers in the Whitesville Union School, spent portions of Saturday and Sunday with the family of H. Mourhess of this place.

Mr. D. P. Corwin has our thanks for a bag of fine apples. They were buried in the ground last fall and when dug out a few days ago every apple was sound as a dollar.

O. E. Vars has a contract for the purchase of the Ellis block, on the corner of Main and Greenwood streets in this village. The transfer is to be made within a few days, provided there are no obstacles in the way.

Rev. Mr. Remington, the M. E. minister at the Whitesville and Spring Mills charge, supplied Rev. G. W. Gibson's pulpit in this place last Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Gibson going to Whitesville to attend quarterly meeting.

A way freight brakeman whose name we did not learn had his hand crushed while coupling cars at Elm Valley last Saturday. He was brought to Andover, where Dr. Comstock dressed the wound, and the man was taken to Hornellsville on his train.

C. M. Bawby, who sold broom through the country and lived in Geneva, was found dead in a chair at the Genesee house in Olean. He sat leaning back as if asleep and must have died easily. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death. Mr. Bawby was well known in Andover, having formerly been a resident of this place.

The Columbian Society held an open debate May 1, on the question, "Resolved that Women Should Vote," which was decided in the negative. Regular meeting held May 8. Paper given by Volney McCarn. An informal debate given on the question, "Resolved that Capital Punishment should be Abolished." Decided in the affirmative. Singing, adjournment.

The Trustees of Alfred Centre have made arrangements to have one of the Howe combined water and chemical engines tested there in the near future, with a view to purchasing the same. Some time ago the people of that place voted to put in water works, but upon investigation it was learned that there was no supply of water. Andover has the water supply, but as yet we haven't voted to use it.

The program for the next C. L. S. C. meeting is as follows: Song, No. 22; quotations about poverty or wealth; questions 19, 20 and 21 in the 4 page memoranda; 37, 38 and 60 in the 12 page; those not answering these may tell a story; usual lesson from the Chautauquan; table talk, each one bringing a recipe. All members belonging to Mrs. Brown's side will please meet with Miss Spaulding, Friday evening at 7:30, to discuss business of importance.

Fresh Candy at C. & B's.

Use plenty of Cayuga land plaster and you will have good crops. We have it. Beebe, Williams & Co.

Rockwell Bros. give return railroad tickets to persons from 25 miles away or less who trade ten dollars' worth.

COMING! COMING! COMING!

The Wonderful Eagle Clock—Greatest on Earth.

The wonderful Eagle Clock will be on exhibition in the Opera House three days, Friday, Saturday and Monday, May 12, 13 and 15. Those who have not seen this wonderful piece of mechanism should certainly improve this opportunity. The clock operates 48 moving figures, pipe organ and mechanical life. Scientific, instructive, and amusing. Historical, Scriptural and Astronomical. Not to see it would be to lack common curiosity at the very small price of admission. For a full description and history of the builder secure and peruse a copy of the Engle Clock Times, which have been circulated about town.

Doors open all day from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Admission: Adults, 15c, Children 10c.
