A SENIOR SPEAKS

A Senior! Are you not proud to be called such? But there is no honor in the name when you are not worthy of it.

A Senior must work hard and have his lessons as nearly perfect as possible each day, so that at the end of the year he will have nothing to worry about. He should have his lessons so well mastered that there is no doubt but that he will pass his final examinations. A Senior must remember that there is not another year for him in which he can make up his subjects if he fails. So it is desirable for a Senior to do his best work. A Senior should get marks that later in life he can look upon with pride. He must try to get decent marks, especially if his three previous years' marks are not as high as they might have been.

ANDOVER GIRLS DEFEAT HORNELL

The Andover girls' team certainly showed their supremacy to Hornell Friday, January 11th, when they defeated Hornell by a score of 37-28. Mr. McGee used his first and second teams and the girls were refereed by Robert Joyce of Andover.

The first half of the game was even more exciting than in the last half for the score was in favor of Hornell. The cheering of the Andover High School pupils must have aided the girls to victory because they stepped into a safe lead during the second half and maintained it until the end of the game.

The Hornell girls' team showed excellent playing on our court, but were no match for the veteran basket shooters of A. H. S.

Last year the A. H. S. team was defeated by Hornell. The line-up was as follows:

ANDOVER BOYS BEAT FILLMORE

A. H. S. won a hard-fought game from Fillmore Friday night, leaving Andover still in second place in the league.

Andover received the tip-off and immediately Cannon tossed the ball thru the hoop to give the purple and white the lead, which they held thruout the game. Closely following this, R. Briggs sank a basket and McAndrew made good a foul shot to give A. H. S. five points before Fillmore was able to get hold of the ball and shoot a basket. The rest of the quarter A. H. S. outplayed Fillmore in every department of the game.

Early in the second quarter a technical foul was called on Kemp. Due to some booing on the part of the crowd toward the referee, he penalized A. H. S. team by calling a technical foul on them. This shot was made good by Bloomslev of Fillmore. The half ended 15-12 in favor of Andover.

The last half was played more on an even basis, both teams making nine points. Andover's plays just seemed to be broken up at every turn. The game came to a close with the score standing 24 to 21 in Andover's favor.

McAndrew was again high scorer making ten points for A. H. S., while Jamison of Fillmore made nine.

The team did not look as good as usual but were fighting every minute. McGill's absence due to illness weakened the team to some extent.

The next game is with Wellsville at Wellsville. Watch out and don't boo the referee!

GUESS WHO?

The person I am about to describe is a Sophomore. She has brown hair, very tall and is almost always seen and not heard. She is very neat appearing and has a way about her that people like. She is not hard on the eyes. She is always seen with two of her many friends. Now if you can't guess who this Sophomore girl is.

Answer next week.

MR. DALE ASSEMBLY SPEAKER

Mr. Ludwig Dale, of the Federated Commercial School of Hornell was the speaker at the assembly last Friday morning, Jan. 11.

Mr. Dale had for his theme, "Success." He told what can be achieved if one has courage and ambition. As an example he told of his life.

When he was 15 years old he left his native land, Norway, and came to America. Some friends promised his mother they would keep him until he learned the "ropes" in America. However, while crossing, the friend decided Mr. Dale was too young to work on a farm so he left him friendless and forlorn in New York. All night Mr. Dale sat on his trunk. In the morning another Norwegian found him. When he learned of the boy's plight he gave him money to buy a railroad ticket to Minnesota where Mr. Dale had an uncle.

Mr. Dale started his education at a little red school house near his uncle's farm. At the age of 16 he was learning "Mary Had a Little Lamb" with the little children.

When he was graduated from high school he was valedictorian of his class. Altho he had few relatives or friends, he found to his surprise that he had received many graduation presents.

Thus, Mr. Dale showed what a person can achieve if he is brave, and has courage, perseverance and will power.

As a league basketball game was to be played Friday evening with Fillmore, Manager Joe McAndrew gave a few remarks concerning it. Several cheers were also given.

The assembly was brought to a close by the singing of the high school song.

Mr. Dale Addresses the Seniors

After speaking at the general assembly, Mr. Dale addressed the Seniors in their home-room. He told of openings in various occupations for a young business person. The best openings at present, he said, were in the fields of journalism and advertising.

The students were asked to fill out a personal analysis questionnaire and Mr. Dale promised to be back in the future to converse with the Seniors individually. He also conducted several quizzes concerning the reasons for "hiring" and "firing" of employees at the business office.

Carelessness and lack of initiative were among the most common reasons for getting "fired."

He called attention to "words," by citing several common words, telling in what country they claimed origin and what their original meaning was.

All who attended the discussion led by Mr Dale agreed that much worthwhile information had been gained.

THE SPOTLIGHT ! !

This is the Spotlight speaking—Station AHS.

Now for the latest!

We often wonder who it was that Eddie K. and Joe Mc. had with them at the show Sunday afternoon. Was the show good, Eddie?

Regina says that she really likes Joe C.!!! Isk, isk, Regina; do you mean it?

It is said that Jackie R. really doesn't dislike his cute blonde Sophomore girl. Is it true, Jack?

Watch out, Don K.! That nice new car is going to collapse under that terrific strain. By the way, did you like the show, too?

Is Andover getting good? That's the stuff, Andover. Show them that you can win, after all.

Now, Eddie A., was that nice, making eyes at these silly Hornell girls? Were you, by chance, trying to make a certain Andover girl jealous? My, my.

We notice that Gertrude S. was sitting near Donald D. at the basketball game. We also hear that she is a frequent visitor of the eighth grade. Can this mean anything?

A certain Wellsville boy has fallen for Marion Lever, it seems. Can you blame him?

It seems that "Bill" Brown has forgotten his Andover friends. We really enjoyed those letters and would like some more of them.

Good luck to you on your Regents.

I'll be seein' you,
—THE SPOTLIGHT.
