

Rockwell Bros.

CARPETS.

We are becoming headquarters for floor coverings.

Each week's business shows an increase over its predecessor. The reasons are obvious: Immense stock, new, fresh patterns, one price and that always the lowest. No stairs to climb, correct knowledge of goods given.

Several new patterns of the celebrated Agras just at hand. Carpets sewed when desired. Done under our roof by competent and rapid hands. In this department we show some elegant values in Chenille Draperies, notably at $1, $3 and $6.75 pair. Also some high art novelties in Draperies from $9 to $12 pair.

Before taking leave of this room just glance at our special $2 and $3 Nottingham Lace Curtains.

If you want something for the bedrooms we'll bring out some for 95c pair, good ones too. Irish Point Curtains as low as $3.50, and beauties at $5.50 and $7.75 pair.

In other house furnishings, such as Mouquette and Smyrna Rugs, Jute and Raw Silk Furniture Coverings, Fringed Window Shades, Curtain Muslins, etc., we are acknowledged leaders.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:
Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

See the ad. of the Elmira Inter-State Fair.

Mr. F. R. Hinchey was in Hornellsville Saturday.

Miss Roxie Bundy visited Belmont friends Saturday.

Mrs. Hester's residence has received a new coat of paint.

Mrs. J. S. Hartum of West Greenwood was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Williams visited friends in Belmont Sunday.

Mr. G. W. Brundage of Shongo was in Andover the first of the week.

Mr. E. L. Watler of California is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. C. Ross.

We made a slight error in E. J. Atwood's ad. last week, which you won't find there to-day.

Attorney Crayton L. Earley was in Friendship Friday, on business at the Surrogate's Court.

A number of Andover people attended the funeral of Rev. Father O'Laughlin in Hornellsville last Saturday.

Get out the lawn mowers, also the hoe and garden rake.

Miss Mila Mingus returned from her western trip Sunday evening.

Prof. Armstrong attended a meeting of the Allegany and Cattaraugus Teachers' Council, at Olean last Saturday.

The West Greenwood cornet band is soon to be in existence. The instruments were ordered through Comstock & Benedict of this place, last week.

The Engle clock, which was exhibited here three days during the past week, drew large crowds, and those who saw it got their money's worth.

E. O. Wescott has purchased an interest in W. W. Van Noy's livery stable, and the business will hereafter be conducted by these two gentlemen.

Rev. C. W. Stevens of Wallace, Steuben county, will be the orator in Andover on Decoration Day. We will publish the program of exercises next week.

Charles Gorton of Belmont was in this vicinity a few days last week, settling with farmers along the pipe line for timber cut down by pipe line workmen.

Candidates for the office of School Commissioner are bobbing up all over the Northern District of this county. The Southern District will probably get in line soon.

Clinton E. Hann is agent for an excellent book descriptive of the World's Fair. He has the right for this county and is meeting with good success in selling the work.

The Board of Education met Saturday evening and engaged Miss Alice Renwick of Belfast as teacher for the coming year in the A. Primary department of our school.

Rev. R. C. Grames, of East Olean, will preach from the pulpit of the Andover M. E. church Sunday, May 21st. Rev. G. W. Gibson will occupy Mr. Grames' pulpit in Olean.

Operator M. J. Regan was in town yesterday. He left last evening for Hornellsville, to which place he has been transferred, and where he will hold a responsible position.

Miss Kate Quigley, who has taught in the intermediate department of Andover Union School during the past year, has taken a position in one of the Olean schools for the coming year.

Rev. R. C. Grames will deliver a temperance address at a union meeting in the M. E. church next Sunday evening, May 21st. Subject, "The Gigantic Serpent; or, Save the Boy," illustrated. Do not fail to hear him.

Mr. Geo. E. Brown left last evening for Willard Hospital. His wife will return with him, the physicians at that institution having pronounced her fully restored to health. Mrs. Brown will be warmly welcomed back to Andover.

Little Herman Church was playing horse with a playmate at the school house last Thursday, when he came into collision with another boy. Herman was knocked down and received a bad wound in his forehead, exposing the skull. Dr. Stillman fixed him up, and the little fellow never uttered a cry after he was hurt.

We publish this week the essay on Farm Dairying written by F. M. Lee of Lanphear Valley for the Practical Farmer, and for which Mr. Lee received the prize of $10 offered by that journal for the best essay on this subject. The farmers of this vicinity can write as well as make good butter. The essay will be found on the eighth page.

The number of persons who use printed letter heads and envelopes is increasing every year. Farmers, as well as persons in all kinds of business, are learning that it costs little or no more to use printed stationery than it does to buy paper and envelopes in small quantities and use it without printing. The News office has a large stock of letter paper and envelopes, and we invite you to call and see how cheaply we can "fix you out."

It has been discovered that the office of game constable was abolished by the game law of 1892, and consequently those towns which elected game constables at the recent town meetings (Andover is one) haven't any game constables at all. It is stated that authority to elect "game constables, who shall be chosen at town meetings as other town officers are chosen," was conferred only by chapter 595, laws of 1872, and this entire chapter was repealed over a year ago. We give this tip to "Tip" Mourness for what it is worth.

Eight of Andover's young gentlemen have formed a musical organization which will be known as the Euterpe Glee Club. The members are among the best of Andover's vocalists—which is saying a great deal—and sweet strains of melody will float out upon the air whenever they meet, whether they are inspired by the daughter of Jupiter, the goddess for whom they are named or not.

As will be noticed by advertisement in another column, Mr. J. C. Ross will soon open, in connection with his other business, a merchant tailoring department. He has secured the services of his brother, Mr. T. H. Ross, who is an expert cutter, and who has worked in many of the cities in this State. That a good merchant tailor will do a large business in this place there is no doubt, and Mr. Ross claims he will be able to fill every requirement.
