ATTENDING SCHOOL

How often have you been awakened in the morning by your mother calling: "Johnny, get up. It's time for school." And did you not wish that you had never heard the word "school?"

All of us have probably done this but very few of us stop to think of the great benefit we are deriving in being able to attend school. It is now compulsory for all boys and girls to attend school until they are 16 years of age and practically every one graduates from high school —many are able to attend higher institutions of learning. Instead of appreciating this privilege of attending school, however, we are sorry that we have to go and never once think of how our education will aid us in our future lives or how fortunate we are to obtain it.

For our progenitors, gaining an education was an entirely different matter. In the early days of the colonies there were very few schools and these were usually only elementary. Only the boys attended, as it was considered the girls' duty to help their mothers at home. The few aristocratic girls who did have a small amount of learning were taught only such subjects as dancing, art and French. A small number of boys had tutors or were educated abroad.

For the most part, the boys attended school only when they were not needed to work on the farm. They usually had to walk a great distance to reach school. School started about six o'clock in the morning and lasted until nearly five or six in the afternoon. There were few books and slates were used instead of paper. So we see what a difficult time the colonial children had to gain an education and most of them really desired one.

So let us take advantage of our opportunities and feel ourselves lucky instead of mistreated because we have to go to school. If we do this we will enjoy school a great deal more, study harder and be sure to profit by our efforts.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Should Andover High School have student government? If so, why?

This question is one which could be asked the students of the civics class. Many people might wonder what student government is and how it is carried on.

The Andover High School students have a period from 3:30 until 4 p. m., every day, in which they are supposed to be studying, or carrying on some outside activity such as sports, orchestra, or glee club. In this period the various homerooms are supposed to be used as study-halls. This is where student government makes its entrance. Why not have a student from the specific homeroom take charge of these "study-halls?" I think that it would be a very good idea and a very educational one.

The students would not only learn to be good leaders, but would discover what a task it is to keep quiet a large homeroom. This might improve their behavior. But we must give it a trial first, before we shall know whether or not it will work well. Everyone in the home room would be given a chance to prove his or her worth as a good student leader. Of course, there would be a slight chance of losing one's friendship momentarily, if the friend was inclined to be a bit mischievous. But I think that most of us, given a chance at student government, would gladly risk this.

GRADE BRIEFS

The Seventh and Eighth Grades had a Hallowe'en party Monday night. The students were masked. As their first game they tried to identify each other. Vivian O'Connor guessed 49 out of 52. Cider and doughnuts were served.

The Second Grade is having a Hallowe'en party Thursday afternoon. Chairman of the different committees are: Victor Clarke, refreshment; Ruth Hardy, decorating; Cornell Smith, games; Donald Baker, refreshments.

HEAR YE! HEAR YE!

ALL YE INTERESTED

Just a bit of advice about Hallowe'en, from a Ghost. My spirit was floating around Andover last year, taking in all the pranks by high school students. Of course I will be around this year, so watch yourself.

Now for the advice:

B. Kruger and B. Lynch, don't call the Coach any more on the phone—telling him it is Mickey Mouse.

R. Church, B. Sly and a few more girls—don't try to wreck the streets or don't bother to move the benches from the athletic field around.

High School lads—don't take a wagon and park it in front of the schoolhouse. Teachers might want to get in in the morning.

To all of you—Why don't you save your money instead of spending it for soap, with which to write on windows. Of course the soap-buying will bring a lot of good trade to all the stores.

I will be watching to squeal on you, so take heed. —THE GHOST.

ASSEMBLY HELD

Friday's assembly started a series of assemblies which are to be prepared and presented by the pupils. It is thought that this will give the students helpful experience in public speaking.

Kenneth Vars introduced the first assembly in this series, presented by the chemistry class under the direction of Principal Glenn E. Bretsch. It consisted of a play, "The Haunted Gate," which was the story of the strange Hallowe'en experience of several high school pupils.

The characters were:

Two old maids—
Aunt Angeline ___ Edna Joyce
Aunt Matilda __ Regina Lynch
Three High School Boys:
Ralph _____ Farnham Pope
Donald _____ Victor Yannie
Philip _____ Frank Weinhauer
Five High School Girls:
Irene _____ Maxine Crandall
Marie _____ Ida Mae Howland
Ruth _____ Beatrice Kruger
Grace _____ Ruth Janson
Marion _____ Beatrice Sly

The play was well done and thoroughly enjoyed by the audience.

SO DUMB

Before I proceed to tell the Freshmen how dumb they are, I would like to apologize to them for my frankness. But, after all, everyone knows that the Freshmen are dumb, so I'm really not letting out any secret.

They are so dumb that they think the river bank is where the fish keep their money.

So dumb they think July IV. is an English king.

So dumb they think a pillow case is the trial of a pillow.

So dumb they think a football player's headgear is to shift him around.

So dumb they think Babe Ruth is a chorus girl.

FRESHMEN HAVE HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The Freshmen held a Hallowe'en party at the school house last Friday night.

The gymnasium was decorated with jack o' lanterns, orange crepe paper and cornstalks. A potato race, cards, ping-pong and an entertainment were enjoyed by everyone.

The entertainment was as follows:

String marshmallow contest; Boys baby bottle contest—Leo Fulkerson, "Red" Alderson, Don Joyce and Joe McAndrew. Leo and Don won.

Piano solo, Delores Farwell.

Harmonica solo, Clyde Briggs.

Guitar solo, Ernest Burdick.

"Prison Song," Rythm Boys.

Violin solo, Mary T. Burns.

Cider, doughnuts, sandwiches and candy were served.

The chaperones were Miss Mary Lou Day, Mr. William McGee, Mr. Lawrence Host and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bretsch.

Mr. McGee, who is the physical education instructor, assisted materially with the program of games, and the Freshmen class wish to thank him and Mr. Host for the work done by each.

GRADE ASSEMBLY HELD

The fourth grade pupils had charge of the Assembly last Friday, October 26th.

The pupils presented two plays, "Hallowe'en Characters" and "Three Jolly Pumpkins."

Those who took part in the first mentioned were: Leona Clarke, Norma Crowner, Betty Jean Mattison and Wesley Lehman. Those who took part in the latter were Charles Hall, Dewey Northrup, Kenneth Cook, Mary Cannon, Theresa McGinnis, Betty Rogers and John Richardson.

Argene Shimwell recited the poem "Hallowe'en Wish."

"An Unfavorable Test," Betty Rogers.

The entire group joined in singing "Mystery in the Air."

"If You Don't Watch Out," by Francis Horan, was also recited.

BANNERS AWARDED

The attendance banner in the lower six grades for the last four weeks was awarded to the third grade, which had an attendance quotient of 1.6. The Eighth grade won the banner for the upper grades with an attendance quotient of 2.52.

The freshies were not far behind with a quotient of 2.5. May they have better luck next time.

FACULTY FACTS

Prof. and Mrs. Glenn E. Bretsch spent the week-end in Elmira Heights.

The teachers' convention to be held at Rochester this week-end will take Miss Marjorie Ellis to her home.

Miss Beatrice Dickinson spent the week-end at Geneseo.

Mrs. Alvord was in the library Saturday, repairing books. Ivar Lee Rogers also assisted in the library by pasting in pockets and date due slips. Miss Day has completed a list of new books which has been sent in to the publishers and will soon have a bright list ready.

!! The Spotlight !!

Hello everybody. Say, you'd think of this. I hear Joe McAndrew was the Freshmen. Especially last week when they were holding the annual men party. Ask Jo Butler and K. Burns!

How did you like the show Saturday night, Fotiney? Most be the escort forgot to come in or else he intend to?

I hear George Joyce had three invitations to the Freshmen party. Such popularity must be deserved. He said the best part of it was the two girls who asked him. I guess Charlie Spicer got the break, tho.

What's this I hear about the Feldenjanson "get-together?" Nice when you can have an old friend like Deke around isn't it Marilla?

Cleon, I heard you had a date with Dot Foesner one night. Does Lester know about it?

Clyde, do you enjoy yourself the fifth period study hall? You better stay turned around and stop playing telegram if you don't want your seat moved.

Henry A. certainly gets the breaks. While he was a member of the sophomore group they enjoyed a party. After going into the freshman room, he took the responsibility of inviting some one to the freshman party.

Ruth I., you better stay home nights, because you might see something dreadful. Especially keep away from "marble orchard" with the romantic gates.

Still some of our A. H. S. girls are popular with Belmont. How about it, Lee? Did you find Rita Dean home one night last week?

Marion L. didn't you get gypped one night? Too bad. Better try again, because Bolivar isn't bad after all.

Lawrence H., I see you drive the wine colored car to school. Don't you wish Jo Butler lived nearer so she could ride with you?

Dorothy F. still rates with Canisteo, too. Can't be she's the kind that gets angry, huh?

I certainly was surprised to see Bethel M. and Milton S. at the freshmen party. Does Milton have a wine colored car or did Lawrence and three others go along to chauffeur and chaperone the party?

Eddie Kemp certainly enjoyed the party Friday night. Just ask him —he says he didn't have time to drink cider.

Thursday night is Hallowe'en. Better guard yourself or you might find a black cat after you. I hear Eddie Alderson and Johnny Cannon are going to dress like Icabod Crane. Nice going, boys. You certainly will scare them then. But don't do anything to scare yourselves.

I'll be watching until next week, so I can give you the full reel.

THE SPOTLIGHT.

BOE ZECKELY COLUMN

Dear Boe:

I am writing to you because I have much business which needs to be transacted with you. There is a Sophomore girl who writes me notes asking me for dates. I get so regusted, dear Boe, that I knowest not what I am doing. Please advise me what you would do.

Your friend in distress,
JOE McANDREW.

Dear Joseph:

Just another girl crazy about you. If she keeps right on writing to you, just send her a note telling her that you are a woman-hater. Altho she is your naighbor, Joseph, so be kind to her, but don't let this bother you.

Your advisor,
BOE ZECKELY.

GUESS WHO?

This person is in the final year in school. He is so well known that only a short description is necessary. He is tall and stocky, with brown hair and freckles. He drives a car (if it can be called a car), which adds to his popularity. His favorite saying is "S-s-say." This gives him away entirely. Now you all know who it is.

Answer to last week's guess who —Lee Fulkerson.

Answer to week before last—C. Coryell.

SAMPLE BALLOT AND DIRECTIONS FOR VOTING

SUPPLEMENT TO THE ANDOVER NEWS

DIRECTIONS FOR VOTING ON THE VOTING MACHINE

Leave all Pointers DOWN. (If you push them back you have not voted —The voting machine will push them back as you swing the curtain handle to go out). No one knows how you have voted when you leave the machine.

As no votes are registered until you move the curtain lever to open the curtain, you can change your mind as many times as you like. Right sides are up, Left sides are down. Therefore you need have no fear of the curtain rod as you suffice to which side to push it back in place, and pull down the wrong Pointer.

The machine is so arranged that you CANNOT turn down more than the proper number of Pointers for any office. Therefore you need have no fear of being over-voted. Pointers DOWN over more than the proper number of candidates are to be turned down by a voter for every office AND LEAVE THEM DOWN.

1st. Swing the handle at the Curtain Lever (marched) around to the right as far as it will go, and leave it there. This will close the curtain behind you and unlock the machine.

2nd. Look over the Proposed Amendments and Amendments turn down a pointer over either "YES" or "NO" of each question submitted and leave them down.

3rd. At the left end of the machine (in columns 1, 2 and 3) turn down the pointers or pointer over the names of the candidates for Justice of the Supreme Court. Do not turn down more than one pointer in this section.

4th. After arranging your ballot (leaving Pointers DOWN over the names of the candidates you wish to vote for) swing the handle of the Curtain Lever to the left as far as it will go. This will open the curtain behind you and return the pointers to their unvoting position, after which it will open the curtain.

The Curtain Opens
The Voting Is Ended

Swing the Handle to the Right

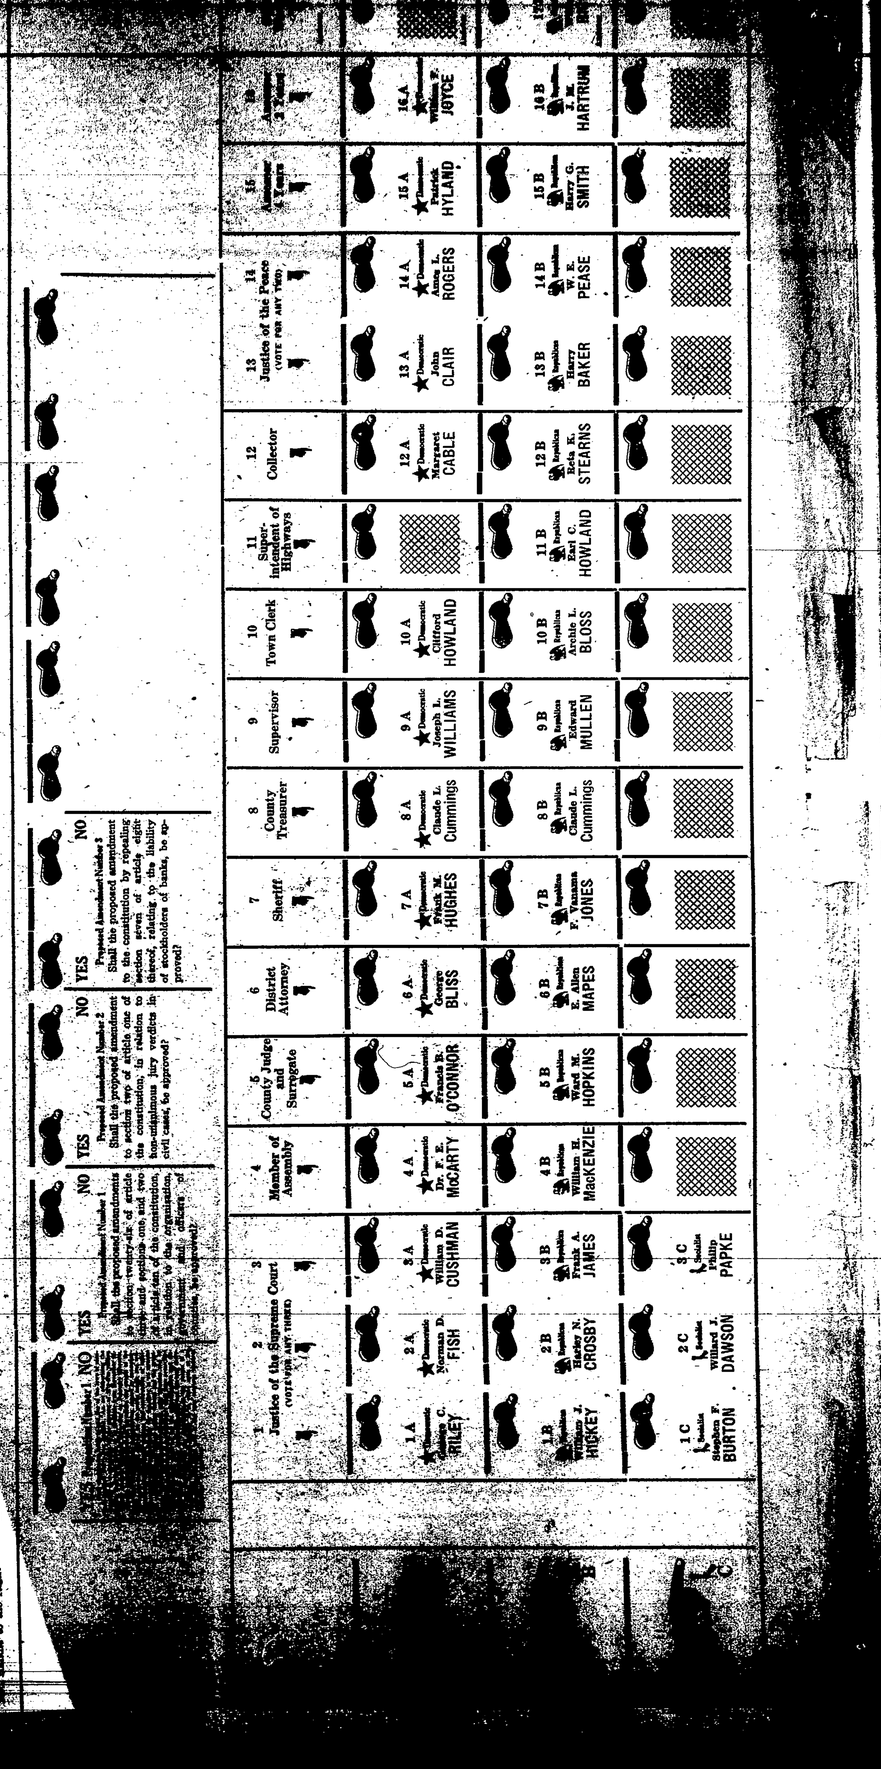
TWO SUGGESTIONS

Sample Ballot below carefully and decide which vote for.

Town Clerk and find out where a voting machine Operate it until you are sure you can vote on it. ay. A few minutes so spent will familiarize you ay save time on Election Day.

FIRST: Read the Sample Ballot below carefully and decide which candidates you wish to vote for.

SECOND: Call the Town Clerk and find out where a voting machine is on public exhibition. Operate it until you are sure you can vote on it without trouble or delay. A few minutes so spent will familiarize you with the machine and may save time on Election Day.

A FEW WORDS OF EXPLANATION


Each candidate's Pointer is located just above his name; so be sure to turn down the Pointer ABOVE the name of the candidate you wish to vote for.
