The news of the death of the beloved wife of Comrade Leander E. Livermore, editor of the Sabbath Recorder, published at Alfred Centre, reached here Saturday night, causing great and poignant grief among her numerous relatives and friends in this vicinity. She suffered from cancer of the breast, and by advice of physicians, her husband took her to New York to have an operation performed. The operation was successful, but the shock to her system was too great, and she did not rally as promptly as was expected, and died on Saturday. The unexpected blow-falls with crushing force upon her bereaved husband, as only a little over a year ago he was called upon to bury an accomplished and lovely daughter. May the blessings of a merciful Savior comfort and sustain him in his sad affliction.
