KNOW * YOUR BANK

Who Owns This Bank?

You probably know the answer, yet it's one of those simple, obvious facts that are often lost sight of. The stockholders who own this bank are your neighbors and ours—average citizens who take part in the home, social and business life of this community.

They invested their money in our capital stock because they had faith in the community's future, and in the progressiveness of their fellow men. Often the money they invested was part of their hard-earned life savings.

This confidence on the part of our stockholders, who in turn enjoy the confidence and respect of many others, is a good-will-building force which we value highly. To quote a familiar saying, it means that we are "of the people, for the people and by the people."

Talk Turkey at West Almond C. C. Camp

County Sportsmen Inspe Wild Turkeys and Wor of CCC Boys at West Almond, Monday.

About 80 members of the A ny County Federation of Spo en, members of the Andover W urkey Club and invited guests the West Almond CCC camp M y afternoon to inspect the fl wild turkeys being raised th nder the sponsorship of the A er Wild Turkey Club and quaint themselves more tho ith the work of the CCC camp The group started gathering e camp about 3 o'clock in the ernoon and were taken on tour spection thru the area by gu om the camp. At 6:30 the p njoyed a bountiful meal serve e mess hall at the camp, hich the group assembled in amp recreational hall to "talk ey."

Captain H. Gare Schumann omed the sportsmen to the c hich welcome was responded t dge Ward M. Hopkins in his ble manner.

Superintendent Homberg, o charge of the conservation the camp gave an interesting n the work done by the camp i st eight years. The CCC cam 0,000 acres under its manager 0,000 of which lies in Alle ounty on which they are bui oads, planting trees and m mprovements toward the future rment of the section. The ond camp is the only CCC hich in its private nursery ardwood trees, which they pl rovide cover and food for wil o date they have set one m f these trees in this area.

The camp's present enrollm 91 boys, who are being instr forestry, road building, dra arpentry, truck and tractor on and various other practic upations.

Those who attended the m nd went on the tours of insp ave a much broader view of being accomplished by the amp in the way of conservatio e training of our youth.

The wild turkey project wa rally discussed pro and con b resent. A letter relative to ttempts to propagate wild t New York State from the C ation Department was read Shaff, president of the A Wild Turkey Club and John resident of the Steuben en's Federation and also rep g the Conservation Depa lso spoke on the subject.

The turkey situation as it present is that the Andove ey Club has 19 wild turkeys CCC camp at their disposal hich the club is willing to n fficient breeders with any f sportsmen who wish to c e work on a large scale w tocking of these birds in t on their objective.

The cost of raising these he age of liberation was d nd set at about $2.00 a bird ent Garwood of the County tion suggested that those ake the proposition up wi cal clubs and that he woul eeting of the County Fe t a later date to determi ction, if any, the county sp ished to take regarding th ation of wild turkeys in ounty.
