

Rockwell Bros.

Our shirt waist counter draws the crowd these days. We anticipated the demand and are now in position to suit, satisfy and please. We think our 50 and 75c waists are the best values to be had anywhere.

Boys' Blouse and Shirt waists, unusually good assortment.

This a season for Dotted Swiss Muslins. Just notice how large a line we have, especially in the very small dot, which is the most sought after.

Yard wide apronettes with fancy colored borders, 12 1/2 c yd.

Receiving this week, some delicate patterns in Silk Boudon and Chantilly Laces, wide for shoulder with narrow to match. Especially desirable for commencement dresses. In the cheaper laces such as Valenciennes, Point de Irlands, etc., our stock is second to none.

Misses' and Children's Tan Colored Hosiery in all grades.

New line ladies Purses and Pocket Books, including Seal and Alligator. Our usual low prices.

Fashionable shades in the popular P. K. Kid Gloves at $1.25 pair.

Art rugs reduced.

7 1/2 x 9 ft. cotton chain, worth $5.50 at $4.50.

7 1/2 x 9 ft. all wool, worth $6.50 at 5.25.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 28, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

Rule 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 3 cents per line.

Mr. Ed. Dean was in town yesterday.

Mr. N. P. Wood visited his son J. P. Wood, of Arkport, last week.

Mr. Henry Hubertus of Dansville is in town. He's just as jovial as ever.

The contract for building the Presbyterian parsonage has been let to Ward Oatley.

Mrs. Maria Baxter of Addison is visiting the family of her brother, G. B. Herrick.

Mr. and Mrs. David Slocum are the parents of a boy baby, who was born last Saturday.

The Standard Oil Company is now pumping oil into its lines from the tanks in this field.

The trustees of Alfred Centre have purchased a Howe chemical and water engine, and that village now has protection against fire.

Mr. L. A. Ross of Hornellsville spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Freeborn. He returned home the same evening accompanied by Miss Freeborn who expects to be absent several days.

Michael McTighe is now sole owner of the Ralph Smith farm in Elm Valley, having bought T. McTighe's interest.

Miss Katie Bradley of Hammondsport, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. Barker and other relatives in this place.

Misses Nina Curtis, Leah Smith and Maud Dutcher were entertained at the home of Chas. Freeborn during the Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Travis and Miss Fannie Spaulding are in Lockport, attending the marriage of a friend, which occurs today.

Miss Hattie Mead of Greenwood is in town this week taking Regents' examination. Miss Mead is entertained by Miss Freeborn.

Snyder & Clark have mailed ten thousand postal cards during the past week. They went through the News press before mailing.

Prof. Armstrong has a new pupil. He came Monday and will call the Professor "papa" when he is a little older. Congratulations.

Several Andover people attended the game of ball played in Hornellsville last Friday between the Akron, Ohio, and Hornellsville clubs. The game was won by the Akron club by a score of 4 to 3.

School closes next week. The closing exercises will be held in the opera house Wednesday afternoon, and the graduating exercises will be held at the same place Thursday evening, followed by the Alumni banquet.

Mr. L. A. Chase of Stege, Cal., one of our subscribers in the Golden State, has our thanks for a copy of the San Francisco Examiner of last Sunday's date. It consists of 120 pages, probably the largest newspaper ever issued.

C. A. Diffin, D.S.P. of the E. A. U. for the state of Pennsylvania, left on Monday for Coudersport, and will go from there to Erie City to attend a session of the Grand Union, held at that place, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The Children's Day exercises at the M. E. church last Sunday were very interesting and were largely attended. The program was made out with reference to the Columbian year, and the pulpit was bright with national colors and flowers.

The next Publishers' meeting will be held in Cuba the first Monday in August. The last meeting in Belmont was well attended and important matters were laid over for attention at the Cuba meeting, at which it is hoped every publisher in the county will be present.

Postmaster Green hasn't lived out his allotted "four score years and ten," but he was appointed postmaster four years ago last Sunday, and says he is not working for Ben Harrison any longer, but for Grover Cleveland. He's ready to "knock off," however, at any time the edict shall go forth.

The friends of Rev. Daniel Redmon, of New York city, formerly of Greenwood, will be pleased to know that the degree of Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) was conferred upon him last Friday evening by the University of the City of New York. Write it now "Rev. Daniel Redmon, A. B., A. M., Ph. D."

A load of about twenty-eight persons from Wellsville came up in a band wagon to attend the lecture by Rev. Ward Platt Monday evening. The wagon was drawn by four horses and the crowd was a merry one. On their way up they stopped at Dayton's grove in Elm Valley and had a picnic supper.

Prof. B. B. Brown closed his last term of school at Richburg last Friday and returned to Andover Saturday. He delivered the Memorial Day address in Richburg this year. The address was printed in the Friendship Register. It was worthy of the day, worthy of the man who delivered it, and is worthy of a wide circulation.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. J. M. Richardson of Hornellsville, and Miss Clara A. Russell of Napoleon, Mich., at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, June 21st. "Joe" has many friends in Wellsville who will extend the heartiest of congratulations. — Wellsville Reporter.

The prospective groom is a brother of our townsman, C. H. Richardson.

The Sunday School Institute was held Monday and Tuesday, according to program. There was a good attendance, both of townspeople and outsiders. Rev. Ward Platt's address Monday evening upon the subject "Christ the Great Teacher," was worth coming across the county to hear, and was listened to by a large congregation. The Institute closed yesterday afternoon.

We have received a volume entitled "Public Papers of Governor Flower for 1892." It contains much valuable matter and is a useful reference book.

On Friday evening Sylvanus Baker had one of his legs severely mangled in the cogs of a stone crusher, where it had been drawn by the leg of his pants being caught in the machinery which he was running. Two large gashes were cut in the front of his leg and the muscles of the calf of his leg were torn loose and terribly mangled. No bones were broken and fears are entertained of it being possible to save his leg from amputation. Mr. Baker was a good citizen and a hard-working man, and deserves the sympathy of our people. — Potter County Journal, Coudersport, Pa.

Mr. Baker formerly lived in Andover. We learn that he is still unable to help himself or move his leg, but is doing as well or better than was expected.

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Try a bottle of Harman's 1874 Tonic Bitters.

Mrs. E. C. Martindale wishes to call the attention of the ladies of Andover and the surrounding towns to her new stock of Spring Millinery, to which will be added the latest styles as they appear during the coming summer. Thanking them for past favors she solicits a continuance of the same.
