A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:

"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and I gathered and threw out pieces of bone. I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong." T. D. M., Norcross, Kans.
