DEATH'S HARVEST.

William L. Catlin.

William L. Catlin, whose serious illness was mentioned in the News last week, died at his home in this village at 3 o'clock a. m. Thursday, June 29, 1893. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church in this place Saturday morning, Rev. E. A. Rice of Wellsville officiating. The burial was at Wellsville.

The deceased was born April 15, 1828, in Charleston, Tioga county, Pa. He was married Sept. 12, 1848 to Elizabeth P. Kemp of Farmington, Pa. They came to Wellsville in 1855 and after living there a few years removed to this town, where they have since resided. They were parents of six children, two of whom, Mr. Edgar S.
Catlin of Wellsville, and Mrs. Della Sullivan of Richburg, with the widow, survive the husband and father.

Dr. Catlin was well known throughout this section of country. He was highly respected for his many good qualities, among which was strict honesty in his dealings with his fellow men. Those who were most intimate with him bear testimony to the fact that he was prompt and honorable in the discharge of his business duties, and never swerved from the path of honor. He was a hard-working man—in fact if he had faults his too close application to business and his many unceasing hours of hard labor may be said to constitute one of them. Had he worked less he might have lived longer, but his was not the nature that craved idleness.

Over thirty years ago Dr. Catlin studied medicine, and his studies resulted in his manufacturing and placing on sale several family remedies, the merits of which have long since been acknowledged in hundreds of families.

He was a veteran of the civil war, having been a member of Co. H, 16th N. Y. Cavalry. He was a member of Seaman Post No. 481, G. A. R., and also of Andover Lodge No. 558 F. & A. M., members of which organizations attended the funeral in a body.

Edwin Brown.

Mr. Edwin Brown died at his home in this village Sunday morning, July 2, 1893, at the advanced age of 84 years.
He had been ill for some time and his death had been expected for several days. The funeral was held Monday at the Baptist church in this village, Rev. Wayne Brewster officiating.

There is little doubt that Mr. Brown was an older resident of Andover than any person now living. He was born in Brookfield, Madison county, N. Y.
Nov. 2, 1808, and came to this town when he was six years old, being adopted into the family of Barnabas Eddy.
When about 21 years old he was married to Sally Ann Popple, by whom he had seven children, five of whom are now living, namely: Josiah M. Brown of Andover, Mrs. H. M. Youmans of Saginaw, Mich., Tolcut Brown of Alfred, Mrs. N. L. Beebe of Andover, and Mrs. J. J. Cook of Andover. His first wife died 22 years ago the second day of July, and he was married about 20 years ago to his second wife, who survives him, and by whom there were no children.

Mr. Brown was an active man during a long life. In later years he has been feeble, and lived quietly at his home in this village, highly respected by all who knew him.

John Sullivan.

On Monday the unexpected announcement was made in this village that Mr. John Sullivan of South Andover, had died that day in Westfield, N. Y. Mr. Sullivan was in Westfield on business, and sustained a stroke of paralysis last Wednesday. His family was notified, his wife going to his assistance last Thursday. Every means possible was taken to restore him to health, but he continued to grow worse until Monday, when he died. The remains were brought to Wellsville Tuesday and the funeral was held Wednesday in the Church of the Immaculate Conception at that place, Rev. T. A.
Murray of Andover officiating. The burial took place in Wellsville.

Mr. Sullivan was upwards of 55 years of age, and was highly respected by a large circle of acquaintances and friends. He was one of the substantial citizens of this town, and his death can be nothing less than a public loss.

He leaves a wife and four children—two sons and two daughters—who have universal sympathy in their affliction.

The funeral of Thomas Guinn, whose death was mentioned in the News last week, was held at his late home in Hartsville last Thursday afternoon, Rev. G. M. Jones officiating. There was a large attendance, a large number of friends and relatives from Andover being present. The burial took place in this village.

P. A. Burdick, the well known temperance evangelist, died at his home in Alfred Centre last Monday, after a long and painful illness. The funeral will be held Friday.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular communication of Andover Lodge No. 558, F. & A. M., held at their hall in Andover, N. Y., July 3, 1893, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, The Divine Master has called from earthly labor our respected friend and brother, W. L. Catlin; therefore be it

Resolved, That by this event we are reminded of the uncertainty of human life and the universal dominion of Death. We strive to humble ourselves to submissiveness to the will of an all-wise Creator, while we mourn the loss of a worthy fellow-traveler upon the level of time, who has reached the destination appointed for all mankind, that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns.

Resolved, That we extend to the widow and family of our deceased brother our sincere sympathy.

Resolved, That as a mark of respect to his memory, the Lodge room be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, and a copy thereof presented to the widow of the deceased, also that the same be published in the Andover News.

M. H. HARMAN,
H. D. SMITH,
J. C. GREEN,
H. C. NORRIS,
Committee.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to extend our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors and especially the Masonic Order and G. A. R. Post who so willingly gave their help and sympathy during the recent illness and death of our husband and father.

MRS. W. L. CATLIN AND FAMILY.

ELM VALLEY NEWS.

There was a band organized in this place last Saturday.

Rev. A. E. Waffle of Jamestown has been visiting friends in this place.

Haying has fairly begun. The crop will be about 20 per cent. less than last year.

Mrs. Sarah Leonard and daughter Carrie, who have been visiting friends in this place, have returned to their home in Munch Chunk, Pa.

Miss Hattie Ferry of Almond has just closed her sixth successful term of school in this place.

For Sale.

Dwelling house with five acres of land, one mile from Andover village, will be sold on reasonable terms. Good barn, plenty of fruit—a nice home for anybody. Inquire of G. M. Baker, Andover, N. Y.

Mrs. E. C. Martindale will sell her goods at reduced prices this week and after. Come early and get the best bargains for the least money.

In old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine must be nauseating to be effective. Now, all this is changed.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the flavor being by no means medicinal.

IT'S A GO.

The Water Works Proposition Carried by a Small Majority.

At the special election held last Thursday, to decide upon the question of Village ownership of a water works plant for this Village, there were 122 votes cast, of which 63 were in favor of the proposition and 59 against, thus assuring the construction of the plant providing that the supply of water shall be found sufficient and that the cost does not exceed the limit fixed by law.

We believe a few years will demonstrate that a system of water works owned and controlled by the Village, will prove as beneficial to the place as other new departures have proved in the past, among which may be mentioned the graded school, incorporation and the Regents' examinations.

Inaugural Trotting Meeting.

There will be a great inaugural trotting meeting held on the famous Babcock Kite Track at Hornellsville, N.
Y., July 11 to 14, 1893, inclusive. The purses offered for 12 races amount to $4,800. This is a large amount of money, and is attracting the attention of the horsemen all over the country.
The entry list is very large and contains many of the fastest horses on the turf. This track has cost Mr. Babcock over $60,000 and is one of the best in the United States. The club house, grand stand and stables are new and as good as money could build and no pains have been spared in making it the most complete and best appointed race track anywhere. Three races will be given each day, and in addition, the famous Myrtle Peek and her great combination of running horses will appear daily. The occasion will also be enlivened by a first-class band and everything possible is being done to make it the most successful meeting ever held in this state. The perseverance and pluck shown by the Hon.
F. G. Babcock, the owner of this valuable trotting track, is deserving of a large patronage, which he will no doubt receive.

Chicago is Ahead.

EDITOR NEWS: In reading your most welcome and newsy paper "The Andover News" I find that one of your subscribers Mr. L. A. Chase of Stege, Cal., has sent you what you think is "probably the largest newspaper ever issued." Now Chicago is one of the greatest cities in the world, even to the World's Fair it is a city of great things.
I mail you a copy of the Chicago Post consisting of 164 pages. "Who can beat that?" Respectfully Yours PHILIP O'CONNOR.
