License Not Necessary for Farm Tractors

A statement from the State Department of Taxation and Finance regarding the question of tractors requiring a license if driven on the highways is as follows:

Tractors used to haul a wagon or other vehicle to transport feed, milk or other agricultural products on the highways for the convenience of the owner and not in any manner used for hire are excepted from purchasing a license under the present laws.

The above answers the farm tractor question which has arisen from the publishing of a recent item to the effect that a check was being made on unlicensed tractors on the highways.

Former Andover Teacher Married at Syracuse

Miss Josephine Cappuccilli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Cappuccilli, became the bride of Anthony John Geiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geiss in St. Patrick's church, Syracuse at 10 a. m., Saturday, June 13th. Rev. George Hurley officiated at the ceremony, which was followed by a high mass, white peonies and snapdragons being on the altar.

Miss Mary Leonarda Cappuccilli, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Theresa Paduano, cousin of the bride and Miss Florence Geiss, sister of the bridegroom were the bridesmaids. Joseph Geiss, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Anthony J. Cappuccilli, brother of the bride, and Vincent Geiss, brother of the bridegroom, were the ushers.

The wedding gown of ivory satin had a long train, high neck and long sleeves, a ruffle of lace being used to form a square yoke in front and reaching to a point at the waistline in back. A bonnet type lace cap to match held the long veil and she carried an ivory satin prayer book with lilies of the valley and streamers.

A wedding breakfast for 90 guests was served on the porch at Drumlins at 12:30 p. m., after which a reception from 3 to 7 p. m., took place at the home of the bride's parents.

After a wedding trip thru the Adirondacks Mr. and Mrs. Geiss will be at home at 718 Otisco street, Syracuse.

Both bride and bridegroom are graduates of Syracuse University, where the bride was a member of the varsity debate squad, Phi Kappa Phi, Zeta Phi Eta and Delta Sigma Rho. Mr. Geiss is now enrolled in the New York Medical College. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa medical fraternity.

Mrs. Geiss is a former member of the Andover High School faculty and her many Andover friends extend felicitations.

Mr. and Mrs. DelMont VanOxx of Andover were in attendance at the wedding.

Andover Organizes For Collection of Scrap Rubber

All Articles Containing Rubber To Be Brought to the Holt's Garage Uutil June 30th.

With the President's announcement Friday that an intensive campaign would be launched between June 15 and 30 for the collection of scrap rubber, Andover organized a set-up for the collection of old rubber thru the co-operation of the local churches and Holt's Garage.

The set-up is to bring or send all articles containing rubber to Holt's Garage or notify the garage if you cannot bring it in and it will be picked up. The rubber will be turned ever to the Government thru the regular channels and the proceeds derived equally divided between all Andover churches.

Anything, no matter how small, that contains rubber can be used.

We are taking the liberty of publishing the following apt poem from a recent issue of the Buffalo Evening News:

"LET'S GO"

The nation calls for rubber.
They need it by the ton
To supply our fighting forces
Until this war is won.

The production line is waiting,
Our boys' lives are at stake;
This rubber must be gathered
In each and every state.

From rubber bands to auto tires,
Hot water bottles, too,
Old inner tubes and garden hose
The soles of a rubber shot.

Let's organize in every town
Our church and civic clubs,
The Girl Scouts and the lodges,
Our Boy Scouts and their cubs.

A million tons can find their way
Into the nation's lap
To help smash Adolf Hitler
Mussolini and the Jap.

Our boys are giving up their lives
To keep us safe at home;
It's treason not to do our part—
Why make them fight alone?

What greater thrill could come to you
When our bombers lay an egg,
And the bamboo houses of Japan
Burn like a powder keg.

To know that in those bomber tires
Are baby's rubber pants
Grandad's old hot water bag
And galoshes from your aunts.

And Uncle Jim's old garden hose
How grand it's going to be
To do your part in this rubber drive
To keep our nation free!

—Charles A. Sprenger.

Ellison Pleads Guilty to Second Degree Manslaughter

DeForest H. Ellison, 48, of Belfast, plead guilty to a reduced charge of manslaughter, second degree, before County Judge Ward Hopkins Tuesday and was sentenced to serve from 15 to 30 years in Attica State prison.

Ellison shot and killed his wife in a domestic quarrel at their home and then tried to take his own life but was prevented from doing so by his son, Max. The latter, who was held in county jail as a material witness was also released by Judge Hopkins.

Two others were sentenced this week by Judge Hopkins, R. P. Smith 36, Belmont junk dealer drew from 5 to 10 years in Attica on a charge of incest, and Jay L. Merritt formerly of Wellsville was given a suspended sentence of 2½ to 5 years in Attica on a charge of false impersonation of another. Merritt posed in Wellaville some time as "Capt. Omar Goodsell" aviator. He was placed on probation to Sheriff Jones for a period of five years and ordered to make certain payments.

Whitesville to Vote on Centralization June 23

An order has been received by the Whitesville Public School Officials from the commissioner of education of Albany for a central school district comprising certain districts in the towns of Independence, West Union and Willing and a special school meeting will be called at the Whitesville high school on June 23 for the purpose of voting on the proposition.

School Tax Rate To Remain Same Next Year

State Aid Considerably Increased. Central District To Vote on Free Textbooks.

According to information released by the Board of Education, the school tax levy for the central district will remain at five and one-half mills next year. The rate for former District No. 1 will probably be around 11.4 mills. In the case of some of the rural districts, additional levies will also need to be made to cover old indebtedness.

The annual school budget has not been completed in all details, but the Board of Education has voted to include a provision for free textbooks, beginning next September. However, this action must be ratified by the voters at the annual meeting.

The provision for free textbooks will not increase the tax rate in the district, since the cost will be more than offset by the increased state aid to be received next year.

If free textbooks are provided, the annual "book rental" charge in the grades would be eliminated, and the high school textbooks which have hitherto been purchased by the pupils would be provided by the district.

Such a provision will not only mean a saving to the parents of school children, but will have the added advantage of having all books on hand the first day of school for pupil use.

In early life Mrs. Crandall joined the First Genesee Seventh Day Baptist church and upon moving to Andover joined the Independence Seventh Day Baptist church in which she has been a most faithful and active member for 62 years.

Cardinals Defeat "Bucky's" Giants In Softball League

In a free-hitting contest the Cardinals broke the five-game winning streak of the Giants by a 13 to 11 score Monday evening on the local softball diamond.

"Bucky" Schwarzenbach's team took an early lead off the shots of George Karcanes but were unable to hold it against the last inning attack of the Cards. Driscoll and Ingerson were the leading hitters with three blows apiece.

In the second game the Dodgers staged a five run rally in the last of the eighth to sink the Yankees 11 to 6. Both teams collected the same number of hits but the Dodgers produced their hits with men on base to clinch the verdict.

Because of the Alumni banquet and other Commencement activities there will be no games this week. On Monday, June 24, the league-leading Giants will meet the Yankees and the Cardinals will oppose the Dodgers.
