A devotional period centered around the thought. The value of friends illustrated by Bible verses showing the outstanding friendships between David and Jonathan, this period was conducted by Mrs. Clara Hann. Mrs. Hazel Burgett, chairman of the Christian Citizenship Committee of the society led in patriotic songs. Quizzes and statements concerning the insignia and decorations of the different officers in the army; the proper displaying of the flag followed by the Pledge of Allegiance by all. Mrs. Beatrice Common told the child a nature story.

A grand march and a song "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," honored Miss Columbia who in turn pinned a red, white and blue badge on each one who successfully passed the examination conducted by her sergeants, thus inducting them into her army.
