THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

A. P. Wood is repainting the Baptist church.

Miss Wilma Wright is visiting friends in Allegany this week.

Grace Lanphear and Elizabeth Burdick are visiting friends in Hornellsville.

Mr. W. E. Chase of Hornellsville was in town yesterday and this morning.

J. D. Cheesman and family of Greenwood visited Mrs. C. Brundage last week.

Mr. Gideon Trowbridge and family have removed to the town of Independence.

Miss Ella McLaughlin has returned from Friendship after a two weeks' visit in that place.

Deputy Sheriff H. S. Smith is still alive, but his death would not be unexpected at any time.

Miss Estella Gee of Hornellsville visited Mrs. C. B. Blowers Friday and Saturday of last week.

Charlie Wiles found a bonanza in some old postage stamps he collected. He sold 16 to a stamp collector for 75 cents each, thus realizing $12 for the lot.

Miss Irene Baker has returned from a short visit to Buffalo.

Mrs. Charles Cochran left on Saturday for a visit with friends in Rochester.

B. M. Austin of Coudersport is in town. He rode his wheel across the country.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crandall of Alfred Centre visited Mr. and Mrs. W. Bundy last Thursday.

The Hornellsville Daily Times has been enlarged and correspondingly improved. It is a good paper.

By a majority of four, Andover has decided to have water works. Wise Andover.—Angelica Every Week.

Mrs. T. H. Armstrong and infant child left on Saturday for Mrs. Armstrong's former home in Macedon, N. Y.

Misses Lizzie and Maggie Cahill of Corning are visiting in town, being the guests of Mrs. J. C. Driscoll and Mrs. Ellen Hyland.

Albert Brewster now carries the mail between this place and Fulmer Valley, Independence and West Union. He began his duties today.

Mr. Charles Carroll and Miss Mary Vailley, of Corning, visited at the home of Mr. J. Driscoll during the past week, returning home Saturday.

The wife and family of Mr. T. H. Ross arrived in town Monday. Mr. Ross will occupy Mrs. N. Clair's house on Dyke street, recently occupied by Prof. Armstrong.

L. H. Thompson will soon open a cigar and tobacco store and lunch room in P. Cannon's building on Main street, recently occupied by M. H. Harman. See his ad in another column.

News was received here yesterday of the death of Dr. J. S. Dolson of Hornellsville, father of attorney C. A. Dolson. The doctor has been ill for many months, and has been a great sufferer.

The enterprising and flourishing village of Andover held its second election to vote on a system of water works last Thursday and the proposition was carried by four majority.—Elmira Advertiser.

The Erie Railroad Co. will run its first popular excursion to Chicago on Monday, July 24. The rate will be one fare for round trip, tickets good ten days. Time of departure and other information will be furnished later.

The man who will inaugurate a movement for the formation of a board of trade in this village will be a public benefactor. We believe the ball needs only a start to set it rolling at a good rate of speed. Who will be the first to act?

Last Saturday a terrific wind and rain storm visited this section, doing much damage to trees, fences, etc. In this village many handsome shade and fruit trees were damaged or ruined, several roofs injured and other damage done.

About fifty young people, single and married, held a picnic in Maple Grove Monday afternoon. In the evening the festivities were continued in the opera house, when dancing was the chief amusement. There was no lack of fun and enjoyment.

Several invitations have been received in Andover to the marriage of Prof. A. C. Mitchell, formerly Principal of Andover Union School, and Miss Mary Hester George, of Kirksville, Mo. The event will occur July 19. Prof. Mitchell's many friends in Andover will join in congratulations.

Among the many "freaks" offered for exhibition at the World's Fair is a hen that always walks backwards, a Shetland pony that is so small that her shoes are made from $20 gold pieces, a razor that had been used by George Washington, an Indiana prodigy, aged four years, who can recite "Theanaptosis," and a garment 400 years old.

We have inadvertently omitted to publish the newly elected officers of the Alumni Association of Andover Union School. They are as follows: President, A. M. Burrows; Vice President, Benjamin A. Barney; Secretary, Wm. Trowbridge; Treasurer, Miss Mary Cannon; Executive Committee, J. E. Cannon, Miss Millie Barney, Mrs. W. H. Phillips.

The devotion of the Forty Hours Adoration of the Holy Eucharist was held in the Blessed Sacrament church last week, commencing Thursday the 6th and closing Sunday the 9th inst. The following priests from out of town were in attendance: Very Rev. Dean Leddy, Wellsville, Rev. Fathers Biden of Ellicottville, Grattan of Rexville, Haire of Belfast, Griffin of Cuba and Gardiner of Hornellsville. Father Grattan preached Thursday evening and Father Griffin Friday evening. Two hundred and thirty persons received the sacraments of Penance and Holy Eucharist.

WOODING'S.

"No, I don't expect you to leave off your important work at this season of the year to buy things you don't want because they are cheap, but this I say, if you want a cool, handsome, traveling dress, a house dress, a street gown, a wedding outfit, I have cut the prices to suit the customer. The carpet stock is a great feature in my trade and prices are reasonable, as you will find. Whatever you may need in my line I shall be pleased to show you or send samples.
