

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

There are in the United States 36,000 more saloons than public schools.

Last year, New York city paid four million dollars for schooling, seven million dollars for amusements, and sixty million dollars for drink.

The intemperate man bequeaths a terrible legacy to his posterity. A distinguished German authority thus describes the effect of the drink habit on succeeding generations: The characteristics of the first generation are depravity and alcoholic excess; those of the second, the drink mania, attacks of insanity and general paralysis; in the third, science expects hypochondria, melancholy, and tendencies to murder; while the characteristics of the fourth are imbecility, idiosyncrasy, and extinction of family.—United Presbyterian.

The Dead March.

Tramp, tramp, tramp in the drunkard's way
March the feet of a million men;
If none shall pity and none shall save,
Where will the march they are making end?
The young, the strong, the old are there.
In woeful ranks as they hurry past;
With not a moment to think or care
What is the fate that comes at last.
Tramp, tramp, tramp to a drunkard's doom,
Out of boyhood pure and fair—
Over the thoughts of a love and home—
Past the check of a mother's prayer;
Onward swift to a drunkard's crime,
Over the plea of a wife and child,
Over the holiest ties of time—
Reason dethroned and soul gone wild.
Tramp, tramp, tramp till a drunkard's grave
Covers the broken life of shame
Whilst the spirit Jesus died to save
Meets a future we dare not name.
God help us all, there's a cross to bear
And work to do for a mighty throng!
God give us strength, till the toil and the prayer
Shall end one day in the victors' song.
Mary T. Fathall.
