VICINITY NEWS.

A Few Things That Have Happened Within One or Two Hundred Miles of Here.

Rev. Henry A. Adams, formerly rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Buffalo, and later of the Church of the Redeemer of New York, has joined the Roman Catholic church.

The long lookout of union lumber shovers at Tonawanda, N. Y., is at last broken, a meeting of the union unanimously deciding not to hold out any longer and to go to work at once as individuals.

Postmaster Charles Perry of Mt. Morris, tried to commit suicide at Buffalo recently by shooting himself in the head. He made a bad wound but will recover. Drink and financial trouble drove him to it.

Jamestown stands a good chance of getting the capital of Chautauqua county away from Mayville. It offers to build a combined city, and county hall to cost about $150,000, of which the county will be asked to pay only about $25,000.

Mrs. Elmira Rhodes an aged lady, tied at her home near Corning Wednesday from being burned last week. She was toasting bread which caught fire and ignited her dress. Before assistance arrived her face and body were terribly burned.

While a large party of Jamestown Odd-Fellows were returning Thursday from Watts Flatts, where they had attended an installation of officers the night before, a carriage containing Frank Newhouse and Dexter Whitford, was struck by Erie train No. 2, and both the men killed. They leave families.

Limburger cheese is manufactured in the eastern part of this state. The factory near John Lellous' farm in Belmont experimented with it several years ago, and it was so rank that the traveling agent of the factory was put off from an Erie train, because of the offensive effluvia arising from his samples.

Frank Jones, a well known contractor and builder of Nunda, has disappeared, not having been seen since July 2d. Mr. Jones was also town collector, and is reported to be short in his return of tax about $2,000. He was known to be financially hard up. His bondsmen are Wm. S. Kappenburg, a coal dealer, and J. W. Kendall, a well known farmer of Nunda.

Some young men at Alfred Centre wanted to celebrate the 4th and couldn't do it without making a noise. Officer Place tried to prevent them from carrying out their plans and after his moral suasion was exhausted, he put them in the lock-up and kept them there over night. A suit has been commenced in the Supreme Court for false imprisonment, by one of the young men against the officer. Public opinion seems to be divided as to the merits of the situation.—Belmont Post.

Geo. W. Hunt, one of Hornellsville's business men, while returning to his home one night last week was attacked by a masked man, who, with revolver in hand, demanded his money or his life. Mr. Hunt not being the least bit anxious to depart with either, made a grab at the fellow and succeeded in knocking him down, and proceeded to give Mr. Would-be-highwayman the worst kind of a thrashing, which the robber will not be likely to forget for some time to come. Then picking up the revolver, which he had knocked from the fellow's hand, Mr. Hunt walked home none the worse for the encounter.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

Henry S. Smith.

The death of Henry S. Smith, as stated in last week's News, occurred Wednesday afternoon, July 12, 1893. Mr. Smith was 54 years of age. His illness dates from last November, when he had a severe attack of the grip, which laid him up for some time. His health improved, however, and he was able to be out, but he never fully recovered, and a few weeks ago he was compelled to take to his bed, growing gradually worse until all hope of his recovery was abandoned.

Mr. Smith was well known throughout this section. He was a progressive citizen, and at various times has held office in this town. At the time of his death he held the office of Deputy Sheriff under Sheriff Sherman, and was a competent official. He leaves a wife but no children, an only daughter having died several years ago. His widow has the sympathy of innumerable friends in the loss she has sustained.

Mr. Smith was born in Scipio, Cayuga county, N. Y., and was married in 1859 to Miss Sarah Parshall of Andover. They moved to Greenwood after their marriage, returning to this place upwards of fifteen years ago, where they have since resided. The surviving members of his family are his brothers B. C. Smith of Fostoria, Ohio, Orange and Hiram D. Smith of Andover and a sister, Mrs. Geo. Spaulding of Belmont.

Mr. Smith was a veteran of the civil war, having been a member of Co. F. 141st N. Y. V. He marched with Sherman to the sea and was mustered out of the service at Washington by general order in May, 1865. He was a member of Seaman Post No. 481 G. A. R. of Andover, and also of Andover Lodge No. 558, F. & A. M.

The funeral was held at the late residence of deceased last Friday afternoon, and was attended by a very large number of people. The burial took place at Greenwood. The services were conducted under Masonic auspices, the members of Andover Lodge turning out almost en masse to pay the last respects to their brother. Members of Seaman Post G. A. R. also attended in a body. When the long procession reached Greenwood it was joined by a good sized delegation from the Masonic lodge at that place, and also by many citizens.

Among those from out of town who attended the funeral were County Clerk Geo. A. Green, of Belmont, Sheriff N. B. Sherman of Angelica, Deputy Sheriff Jas. Johnson of Belmont, B. C. Smith of Fostoria, Ohio, a brother of deceased, F. L. Smith of Ohio, nephew of deceased, Henry Farnham of Hornellsville, Secretary of the Knights and Ladies of Honor (in which order the deceased held an insurance policy for $1,000.) D. H. Parshall and wife of Greenwood, Robert Parshall of Westfield, Pa., Miss Susanna Parshall and Miss Emeline Parshall of Hornellsville, I. L. Wetmore of Springwater, N. Y., A. D. Howe, Frank Bassett and Dr. M. B. Titus of Whitesville.

Joint G. A. R. and Masonic Resolutions.

Again we are called upon to follow a comrade and brother to his last resting place among the habitations of the dead; and it is hereby

Resolved, That in the death of Henry S. Smith, Seaman Post No. 481 G. A. R. and Andover Lodge No. 558 F. & A. M. has each lost an active and respected member, whose death should remind us that earthly friendships and associations are formed only to be dissolved by the invincible hand of Death.

Resolved, That we convey to the widow of our deceased comrade and brother our heartfelt sympathy, and assure her that the memory of her soldier husband shall be kept green in the hearts of his surviving comrades and associates.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to his bereaved companion, and that the same be published in the ANDOVER NEWS.

How It Works in Avoca.

From the Avoca Advance.

A. M. Burrows of Andover was in town Friday looking over our village waterworks system. Andover has just voted an appropriation of $20,000 for the building of waterworks in the village. Mr. Burrows says "there was a hard fight, but the enterprising voters who favored progress won."

Those who voted against the waterworks will be its best friends before they have had them in one summer. Avoca had the same hard fight, today her citizens are to a man, proud of the splendid system, that gives us protection from fire, good cool spring drinking water, and for cool yards and streets where the hose is used to sprinkle them. We congratulate the people of Andover, and are sure they will never regret voting in favor of waterworks.

Death of Miss India Howe.

On Saturday July 15th, a dispatch from Pullman, Ill., was received by Mrs. H. Mourhess, informing her of the death of her niece, Miss India L. Howe. The funeral took place on Monday in Albion, Mich., where she was buried beside her mother, and baby sister.

Miss India had been spending some time with her aunt, in Pullman, during which time she had visited the World's Fair. No particulars of her death have yet been learned. She resided at one time in this place with her aunt, Mrs. Mourhess. While here she united with the Presbyterian church, also with the Christian Endeavor Society. Her many friends and acquaintances will be grieved to learn of her untimely death.

"There is a Reaper, whose name is Death, And with his sickle keen, He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between."

Miss Lois Shant, one of the girls employed at the hotel in Greenwood, is "hustler." One evening last week a party of over twenty persons stopped at the house for supper. The guests were not expected, and the landlord, his wife and all the help except Miss Shant, were away. She was equal to the emergency, however, and in a short time after receiving the order for supper the guests sat down to as good a meal as hungry men could ask for. One gentleman in the party was from Andover, and he is reported to have said—but we won't tell for fear his wife might hear about it.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Equitable Life Assurance Society's expenses of management have been less for several years, than other prominent companies, they show a further reduction for 1892 of 2 per cent., which means a saving of $800,000 to policy holders. The new free tontine policy of the Equitable Life Assurance society is incontestable and unrestricted after one year, has a surrender value in paid up insurance after three years, and a choice of six methods of settlement at the end of the paying period.

The services of the Rev. Dr. L. A. Platts have been secured by the Trustees of Alfred University for instruction in the English Language and Literature. The course will extend through the entire year, which opens Sept. 5, 1893.
