THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.

RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

J. M. Beebe and Z. F. Cook were in Buffalo last week.

The frame of Geo. E. Brown's new mill was raised Saturday.

Mrs. A. M. Burrows went to Chaumont Sunday morning.

Miss Mina Brunner of Alfred Centre is visiting Miss Inez Lever.

Miss Lottie Lee of Wellsville is the guest of Miss Nina Martindale.

Mrs. H. A. Benedict is visiting relatives and friends in Deposit, N. Y.

Mr. Charles Smith of Bainbridge, N. Y., is visiting his brother, E. Smith.

J. W. Cary, the Wellsville cigar manufacturer, was in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lee of Wellsville visited Andover friends Saturday and Sunday.

The Andover ball nine went to Wellsville yesterday. Score 7 and 2 in favor of Wellsville. Such is life.

James S. Phillips returned home last Saturday. He recently graduated from the Law Department of Ann Arbor University, and is now in Chicago. A few days more and he will remain in Andover.

A party of Wellsville ladies and gentlemen visited Andover on bicycles Sunday.

Mrs. Harriet Beebe and daughter Miss Ella Beebe are visiting friends in Jamestown.

Mrs. C. A. Rogers, daughter Maria and son Harold of Plainfield, N. J., are the guests of F. M. Lea.

Mr. C. L. Graves of Idaho, a former resident of Andover, has been in this place visiting relatives and friends for a few days past.

Andover citizens have voted for a system of water works to cost from $15,000 to $18,000. Andover is progressing.—Bolivar Breeze.

Married, in Harford, N. Y., by Rev. J. C. Estes, Friday, July 14, 1893, Mr. Bert Tilman of Harford and Miss Alice Sweet of Andover.

A flag pole 70 feet high was raised in front of the Corwin Hill school house one day last week, and a fine flag now floats from the same.

Rev. Daniel Redmon arrived in town yesterday for a brief vacation. He is always heartily welcomed to Andover, and the only wish is that his stay might be longer.

The premium list of the Inter State fair has just been issued, and those wishing copies can secure them by addressing Secretary Geo. M. Robinson at Elmira.

Factory Inspector F. C. Mulkin of Friendship was in town Monday in the discharge of his duties. We hope there'll be more factories here next time he comes.

The next meeting of the Allegany County publishers' association will be held at Cuba, Monday, August 7th. As this will be one of the most important meetings of the year it is desired that every publisher in the county be present.

The honorary title of A. M. is not unfrequently bestowed upon educated persons by the colleges and universities of the land. But the title of P. M., which can only be given by Uncle Sam's officials, is eagerly sought now-a-days.

The Allegany County Farmers' Club will meet in Andover on Tuesday, August 1st. The farmers of this vicinity should turn out in full force and make the meeting a rousing one. The meeting will be held in the opera house.

The Erie railroad company has informed its employees that it will furnish passes for themselves and immediate families to the World's Fair, and that fifteen days will be allowed for the trip. The Erie employees are decidedly in it.

Last week Tuesday night Dr. Comstock was called to attend an emigrant at the summit. He was traveling with his family when the horse became frightened at the cars, throwing them out and running over the man, injuring him quite badly.

Mr. Joseph Krusen was taken very ill last Saturday morning with pneumonia, and for a day or two it was feared he could not long survive. At present he is doing very well, and there is reason to hope he may recover. He is very sick, however.

Mr. B. C. Smith of Fostoria, O., a brother of the late H. S. Smith, who was called here by the latter's death, is spending a few days visiting other brothers, relatives and friends in this vicinity. He formerly resided in Andover. Also Mr. F. L. Smith, son of H. D. Smith, is home from Ohio on a visit.

A call has been issued by John A. Travis, president of the 88th New York Regimental association to hold a reunion of the 88th in Grand Army hall in this city on August 31st. The boys will be heartily welcomed by the veterans of Hornellsville and receive cordial entertainment.—Hornellsville Press.

Dr. Comstock went to New York last week with his wife, who has been in ill health for some time, and who was taken somewhat worse a few days ago. She went to New York in the hope of receiving treatment which would prove beneficial. Her many friends sincerely hope she may receive the needed help.

A team owned by Geo. Kemp was hitched in front of Atwood's hardware store last Saturday, when a couple of bicyclers passed in the street and frightened the horses. In attempting to free itself from the hitching post one of the horses broke a leg and it was found necessary to shoot him. T. McTigue, on whose farm Mr. Kemp lives, circulated a subscription paper and raised a good sum of money toward buying another horse.

Jason Beebe will get you a dandy bicycle for $85. Call and see him.
