Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver. If the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.

THE ANDOVER WATER WORKS.

The Dean Spring Bought—An Engineer Secured—Other Facts of Interest.

Notice To Contractors.

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Water Commissioners of the Village of Andover, N. Y., until 2 o'clock p. m. August 17, 1893, at their office in said village, for the material and labor required to construct Water Works for the Village of Andover. Specifications and proposal blanks may be obtained upon application to the Water Commissioners. The right is reserved to reject any or all proposals.
Andover, N. Y., July 25th, 1893.

PATRICK CANNON,
JAMES OWEN,
F. S. CLARK,
A. M. BURROWS.

Board of Water Commissioners of the Village of Andover, N. Y.

The above advertisement, which explains itself, is published in this paper in conformity to law. It will appear in these columns three weeks, and will also be published in a leading trade journal, where it will probably be seen by many contractors and others interested in the business of putting in water works plants.

On Friday last the Water Commissioners of Andover made a contract with Mr. E. D. Smalley of Syracuse, a well known civil and hydraulic engineer, who will prepare plans, specifications, maps, etc., for the proposed system of water works, and who will also superintend the work of constructing the same in behalf of the village. The plans and specifications will be ready in a few days, and will be printed in order that any contractor who desires to bid on the work may secure a copy.

The Water Commissioners have also bought the springs of water located on the farm owned by Mr. Patrick A.
Dean, southwest of this village. These springs give an abundant supply of pure, cold water, and as the distance is less than to any other spring, and the supply being also greater than could be secured in any other place, the wisdom of the Board in purchasing them is apparent. Five hundred dollars is the price paid to Mr. Dean for this water right, and the deal must be regarded as a good one for all parties concerned.

The reservoir will probably be located on L. C. Van Fleet's land east of the village. The water will enter the village from the west, and the reservoir being located on the opposite side of the village will insure a circulation in the street lines of a supply of fresh spring water at all times, the surplus flowing into the reservoir for use in the emergency of fire. Another point gained in having the reservoir thus located is the fact that in case of fire there will be a supply of water rushing into the street mains from two directions, insuring an adequate water supply for almost any emergency. The springs are located about 300 feet higher than the village, and the reservoir will stand about 160 feet higher than Main street. The Water Commissioners have filed with the County Clerk bonds to the amount of $10,000 for the faithful performance of their duties, as required by law.

The Water Commissioners are pushing their work vigorously, and in a few weeks, if nothing unforeseen happens, gangs of men will be at work laying pipe. It is the present intention to have the plant in working order this fall.

Candidate For The Assembly.

Dr. A. T. Bacon of Canaseraga was in town Saturday. Mr. Bacon is a candidate for Member of Assembly, and hopes to be nominated at the Republican convention this fall. He is well qualified for the position and his chances for securing the nomination are good.

Republican Senatorial Convention.

The Republican Senatorial Commissioners of the 32d New York district, which includes Chautauque, Cattaraugus and Allegany counties, met in Jamestown last Saturday. It was decided to hold the Senatorial Convention in Olean, Sept. 26. The original plan for representation in the convention was that each county have 15 delegates to be appointed by the county convention. This has been changed and each county will have 50 delegates, to be elected from the towns. The County Commissioners of each county will apportion the number of delegates to be elected from the towns in the respective counties.

Emma J. Wright.

Miss Emma J. Wright, daughter of A. R. and Clarissa Wright, departed this life July 24, 1893, aged 24 years.
Though not well for some time, yet she was confined to the house only two weeks. The funeral was held yesterday at the Baptist church, of which she was a consistent, worthy, loved and honored member for many years. The many sympathizing friends, neighbors and acquaintances present, the floral offerings and words of appreciation and commendation of her true excellence and worth, testify to the high esteem in which she was held by a large community.

The friends tender sincere thanks to all who have so kindly served them in this time of their bereavement.

Receiver for the Erie.

The Erie railroad company yesterday went into the hands of receiver. Judge Lacombe of the United States circuit court named John King and J. G.
McCullough as receivers. The Erie's credit has been savagely attacked on Wall street of late owing to the mixed condition of its finances. Under resolutions of the board of directors adopted July 20th, the executive committee met yesterday and adopted resolutions placing the road in the hands of receivers. This measure, it was stated, was taken purely in the interest of the road and its creditors. Within the past few weeks, during the severe money stringency, the floating debt of the Erie became impossible of renewal, and in order not to sacrifice the best interests of the company, it was decided to place the road in a receiver's hands and preserve the system intact.

Phenomenal Oil Find.

A dispatch from Toledo, Ohio, says: Intense excitement now prevails in Waterville, fifteen miles west of here, over a phenomenal oil find. The territory was abandoned as worthless 30 years ago. Recent indications induced a few farmers and one or two oil speculators to lease all the territory possible.
The work was conducted secretly. All at once several wells were opened.
Two wells are flowing 600 barrels a day and several others are running 200 and 400. Oil men from all over the country are flocking in on every train. The Standard Oil company also have representatives here who are taking up everything in sight that has not already been secured. A number of farmers will make thousands and perhaps millions, if they do not lose their heads. The little town of 500 today looks like a city. Hundreds are arriving daily and are living in tents, board shanties and anything that will afford slight protection from the weather.

Attempted Lynching at Dunkirk.

A dispatch from Dunkirk, July 19, says: An attempt was made last night to lynch C. T. Chase, the man who was arrested charged with assaulting criminally Annie Lawrence, a 12-year-old girl. Chase was arrested yesterday and confined in the lock-up. In default of $500 bail he was held for the grand jury. It was intended to take him to Mayville to the county jail, but he asked for a day or two in which to fix up some of his affairs. It was then decided to take him to jail on Thursday.

Chase came to this town from Hornellsville about six months ago. Stories about his exit from that town were told, but so far as known none of them could be proved.

Yesterday, it is claimed, he made a criminal assault on the girl, who ran screaming from the store and told her father of what had happened. Chase was at once arrested and confined in the town lock-up. Chase's crime caused much indignation in the village and during the afternoon there were many persons who said that it would "serve the brute right if he was lynched." The matter was the sole topic of conversation during the evening and by 10 o'clock there was an excited group of men in the vicinity of the lock-up. Additions were constantly made to the gathering and by 11:30 o'clock the crowd numbered from 150 to 200 men.

The crowd surged into the corridor and at 12 o'clock was wildly excited.
Threats of lynching were heard on all sides. Some of the cooler members of the crowd counseled moderation, but there were as many more men who fiercely denounced the prisoner and demanded that the doors of the lock-up be broken down and the prisoner strung up at the nearest lamp post.
Several rushes were made against the doors of the lock-up. They stood firm.

By this time the little police force of Dunkirk was at the scene and, although fully half of the persons present demanded that Chase be lynched, no further attempt was made to get at the prisoner. All this time the law-abiding men who were in the crowd were counselling moderation. When the men who were clamoring for a lynching saw that they were not supported as enthusiastically as they had been, their own ardor cooled and they began to leave for home, still muttering against Chase, but evincing no further desire to storm the lock-up and bring the prisoner out.
