Costume Parade And Hallowe'en Party October 31

Plans Nearly Completed For Annual Exchange Club Hallowe'en Party Next Saturday Night.

Plans for the annual Hallowe'en Eve celebration sponsored by the Andover Exchange Club are rapidly taking shape, and the young and not so young of the village are looking forward to the costume parade, bonfire at the athletic field and doughnuts and cider, all of which have been connected in the minds of Andover folk with Hallowe'en for several years.

The parade will form at American Legion park at 7 o'clock p. m., where members of the parade and costume prize committee will be on hand to arrange groupings as to ages, types of costumes, etc. It is expected that from every corner of the district will come dancing girls, drum majorettes, Chinese girls, witches, ghosts and Turkish beauties from the land of Mohammed.

A stalwart Superman, arm in arm with Popeye, soldiers and sailors competing for attention with cowboys, lone Rangers and Canadian counties. Masked paraders in all kinds of original costumes, Marines, Bomber Pilots, Chinamen and clowns, black cats and strange animals walking on two legs and all the fancy costumes and masks that only Hallowe'en can bring about will be in the line of march.

County War Council After Speed Violators

An effective move toward a "crack down" on motorists inclined to violate the New York State Motor Vehicle speed limit law, with the view to conserve the transportation facilities of our country, is contained in a resolution recently adopted by Allegany County War Council and placed in the hands of State Police, County Sheriff Department and Village Police officers.

These law enforcement officers have been asked to report the names of all motor vehicle operators who have either been convicted or simply stopped and warned of violating speed limit laws to the Allegany County Rationing Administrator who will in turn impart the information to his various boards with instructions to lay on the table all applications from those drivers, who apparently have no respect for their country's war effort, when they apply for new tires or recaps.

The resolution was adopted at the suggestion of the Allegany County War Transportation Committee having charge of conserving, as far as is possible without disrupting necessary transportation, all car and truck tires now in use. The move, it is hoped, will meet with the co-operation of Allegany County motorists who may aid the war effort by keeping well within the 35-mile speed limit now in force.

Violators, as explained herewith, may "get away" with it on some occasions, but will be extremely unpopular with tire rationing boards when the time come to apply for new tires.

October War Bond Quota For County Is $198,700

George B. Rooth, Jr., Allegany county War Savings Staff chairman has announced the October War Bond quota for Allegany county which is set at $198,700 cash value.

This is a large quota and every community must do its part in order to maintain the excellent record so far established in the county.

In connection with the large quotas of men being sent into the army each month from Allegany county, Mr. Rooth said:

"Many of these boys gave up good jobs to serve us at the battle fronts. Upon our purchases of War Bonds may depend the lives of these fellows. They must be fed, clothed and given the equipment with which to wage modern warfare.

"If they are willing to offer their services and their lives in our defense, certainly the least we can do is loan our money to them thru the Government of the United States."

"Junk Jamboree" Nets Additional 20 Tons of Scrap

About 40 "Enjoy" An Afternoon of Hard Work and Refreshments. Will Hold Another This Sunday

The "Junk Jamboree" put on by the Andover Fire Department last Sunday brought in an estimated additional 20 tons of scrap metals, bring the total brought in from all sources to Andover to about 70 tons.

The biggest handicap the boys encountered was the fact that persons in the rural sections were not at home when the trucks called, making the boys use considerable time and gas on false runs.

The department asks merely that you drop a card stating if you have junk of any nature on your farm or call the Andover fire hall, 489 and let them know. Members of the department are endeavoring to make a canvass of this entire section this week but if they fail to contact you personally please let them know immediately so that the trucks can pick it up this Sunday, October 25th.

Money derived from this junk will be used in the purchase of an inhilator and respirator, which will be of much value in an emergency in case of illness or accident requiring respiratory treatment.

The Firemen's Auxiliary served coffee and sandwiches to the workers beginning at noon and continuing thruout the afternoon and evening until all workers' appetites were appeased. They will again serve eats and coffee this week to all who wish to join in the work.

Again we stress the importance of letting the boys know if you have any type of junk around the farm. They will pick it up—you simply tell them what to take.

An ingenious key-barrel has been gaily decorated in the National colors and placed in front of the A & P store where anyone having old keys, bits of brass, copper, or other material may deposit their donations.

Late Potato Crop Is Widely Variable

Albany, October 20. —New York potatoes, 27,313,000 bushels in 1942, are about 1 per cent below last year and 7 per cent below the 10-year average, according to a Federal-State report from the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets. Long Island produced about 14,258,000 bushels, some of which have been moving to market since late June. Long Island yields were exceptionally high and the crop is 20 per cent greater than last year. The muck-land areas of the State produced about 2,303,000 bushels, or 4 per cent more than last season. After deducting the long Island and muck-land potatoes, many of which have already moved into consumption, the rest of New York State will have about 10,747,000 bushels, a reduction of 28 per cent from last season. It is apparent that yields are very irregular, ranging from heavy crops where conditions on farms were favorable and disease and insects were controlled, to almost failures in other instances.

In other important potato States there have been irregularities of yields. Maine and other New England States, Minnesota, North Dakota, Idaho, Nebraska and Colorado are among the States last year in production. On the other hand, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, and Wisconsin have had smaller crops.
