Andover School Bus Damaged In Accident

Struck By Trailer Truck When Stopped to Discharge Pupils. No Passengers Injured.

Andover Central's first school bus accident occurred last Monday afternoon about 4:30 when Bus No. 6, driven by Edward Kilbane, was struck by a large trailer truck in front of the John Button home on the Andover-Alfred road. Fortunately, neither Mr. Kilbane nor any of the six pupils aboard were injured other than for minor scratches and bruises and a good shaking up. The driver of the truck was more seriously injured and after treatment by Dr. S. B. Scott, was taken to the hospital at Wellsville.

Driver Kilbane was travelling toward Andover near the end of his afternoon trip and had just stopped in front of the Button home when the truck, travelling in the same direction, failed to obey the New York State school bus stop law and crashed into the rear of the stopped bus. The bus was driven across the road by the impact and into the left hand ditch. The truck went off the right hand side of the road, demolishing a telephone pole.

The truck was licensed in Ohio and was operating for Midwest Haulers, Inc., of Toledo, Ohio and was driven by LeRoy Horman of Union City, Ind. The only excuse the driver offered for the accident was that his air brakes failed to work properly. The road at this point is straight and clear for at least half a mile and the stop signs on the bus were found to be in perfect working order.

The extent of damage to the school bus has not yet been determined. Plans are being made to have the repairs made at the White Motor Co. branch at Rochester. It is believed that all repair costs will be borne by the trucking concern or its insurance company.

Start Saving Your Tin Cans

Richard Embser, county salvage chairman, announced the receipt of orders this week to start collection of tin cans thruout Allegany county. Heretofore tin cans have not been collected here because of the lack of processing plants in this area. A new plant has been constructed at Pittsburgh to serve this area.

"Right now we want all home owners in Allegany county to start saving their tin cans," Mr. Embser said. "The cans should be cleaned, have all labels removed, top and bottom cut out and the can itself flattened flat.

"We suggest that each home set aside a bushel basket or some such container and throw all cans into it for the present time."

Collection plans have not been set up as yet—but start saving your tin cans and they will be collected in the near future.

At a county meeting held in Belmont last Friday evening 3,800 tons of junk were reported as collected in Allegany county so far.

Andover's total in the junk collection has reached 75 tons.

GRANGE NEWS

At the regular meeting last evening, several stunts and songs were given during the program, also two skits "That Hired Man," by Lloyd Head and Hervey Thorne and "The Wealthy Ranch" by Edna Burdick and Mrs. Greene.

Another invited party will be held at the hall next Wednesday evening, Nov. 4, with Earl Atwell as the chairman. Anyone having a Grange table cloth please bring to the next meeting.

At the close of the social event Rev. Tebo presented Mrs. Eggleston with a love gift.

Mrs. Everett Clair, Mrs. Gates Pope and Mrs. Carrie Slade assisted at the tea table.

New York Times Urges Election of John J. Bennett, Jr. for Governor

John J. Bennett, Jr., Democratic Nominee for Governor of the State of New York, has received the unqualified endorsement of the influential New York Times, which in a lead editorial October 13th urged the voters to elect Mr. Bennett Governor.

The Times highly praised Mr. Bennett's record of twelve years as Attorney General and emphasized the efficient manner in which he conducted his office.

The editorial follows:

"Three weeks from today the people of New York will elect a Governor. This newspaper, which in the past has given its support successively to Alfred E. Smith, to Franklin D. Roosevelt and to Herbert Lehman, now recommends to its readers the candidacy of John Bennett.

"Two major reasons underlie this choice. First, we believe that the Democratic party in this State richly deserves a vote of confidence on the record it has made in office. Second, we believe that Mr. Bennett, if elected, will make an able, conscientious and hard-working Executive, whose energy and interest during the whole of the next four years will be devoted exclusively to the Governorship of New York.

"Let us begin by asking what good reason can be offered for a change of administrations at this time. Has the Democratic party, as represented in the State Government at Albany, been incompetent, dishonest, hesitant, indifferent to the needs of the people, out of touch with the temper of the times? In an effort to make a case for a change of administrations, the Republican candidate pictures the State Government as 'loaded with political incompetents,' its agencies 'sunk ever lower under political domination,' while 'the cobwebs have grown thicker in every corner of the State administration.'

"This is a picture which can strike few independent voters as bearing much relation to the facts. The record of the Democratic party at Albany, from the days of Al Smith forward, has been a record of successful service to the people of the State. The public business of a great commonwealth has been handled efficiently. Standards of honesty have been high. Administrators of the ability of Robert Moses have been developed and given an opportunity to do good work. Meanwhile, over the space of twenty years and under the leadership of three forward-looking Governors, the Democratic party at Albany has written a chapter of intelligent and humane social legislation unmatched in brilliance in any State in the Union. During the same twenty years the Republican party at Albany has been run by local party bosses with no apparent knowledge of the fact that they are living in a changing world and a record of persistent opposition to all forward-looking measures which amounts almost to genius.

"There are good reasons for giving the Democratic party in this State a vote of confidence. There are also good reasons for believing that Mr. Bennett would make a successful Governor. He is honest, capable and industrious. He is certainly experienced. He has served for twelve consecutive years in a highly responsible State office and there is no man in Albany who has a better first-hand knowledge of the business of New York. He is enough of a liberal to have served successfully in two strongly liberal State administrations, and he is enough of a conservative to be a steadying influence in a time of risk.

"For these reasons and on these grounds we endorse his candidacy.

"Furthermore, we believe that those Democrats and those independents who may now be planning to vote against Mr. Bennett for either one of two quite contradictory reasons—either because they intend to vote for Mr. Dewey 'in order to repudiate the New Deal,' or to vote for Mr. Altange 'in order to uphold the New Deal'—owe it to themselves to reconsider the choice that lies before them.

"The National Administration is not an issue in this State election. A vote for Mr. Dewey will 'repudiate' nothing but a record of good government at Albany. A vote for Mr. Altange will not only be a wasted vote, cast for a candidate who cannot win and whom the President himself does not support; from the liberal's point of view it will also be a destructive vote, with no other possible consequence than helping to throw out of office at Albany the party that has made New York a model of progressive and intelligently social-minded government.

"We believe that the right choice is a show of confidence in the Democratic party on its record and a vote for Mr. Bennett."

Rationing Of Coffee Begins November 28th

Each Person Over 15 to Be Allowed One Pound Every Five Weeks, OPA Says.

Coffee will be rationed starting at midnight, Nov. 28th at a rate of one pound every five weeks for each person over 15 years old.

On the basis of 25 to 40 cups to the pound the ration means slightly more than a cup a day per person.

Retail sales will be halted at midnight, Nov. 21st, for a week long freeze during which grocers will stock their shelves for the start of rationing.

The first rationed coffee will be purchased on the last stamp in the sugar ration books, stamp No. 28. Subsequent rations will be issued by working backwards to the sugar, using stamps No. 28 to No. 19 in sequence.

The War Production Board ordered OPA to take control of consumer distribution to assure an equal supply for all, Henderson said, and attributed the emergency action mainly to "excessive buying by consumers." Reports of hoarding, overbuying and runs on dealers supplies have been reaching Washington from many cities for three weeks.

Announcement was made of the rationing of fuel oil for home heating. The rating to be determined on where you live and what type of building you wish to heat, on a basis of two-thirds of past consumption.

Allegany County Milk Products Up

New York, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Milk delivered last month at New York area approved plants in Allegany county was worth 24.2 per cent more than the deliveries in September a year ago. Gains in value likewise were credited to all the other major counties.

County dairy farmers collected this week for last month's deliveries of 5,922,632 pounds of milk, $171,756.33 at the record uniform price of $2.90 a hundredweight.

Excluded from the appraised value, however, is the butterfat in excess of 3.5 per cent which returned an average of 14.3 a hundredweight on all the milk in the New York pool.

Final figures for the September pool reveal that it produced a net farm value of $14,613,954.86 and is 16.7 per cent more valuable than the pool of the corresponding month last year.

Allegany county had an increased production of 8.8 per cent over last year's production for the same month.

The price of fluid milk as of November 1st has been posted at $3.50 a hundredweight. Class 11A milk is estimated at $2.70 and Class 11B milk at $2.58. These increases are expected to add around $500,000 to the dairy farmers' income for November deliveries.
