THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 9, 1892:

RULE 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.

RULE 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged 5¢.

RULE 3.—Obituary notices, except such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

Band concert Saturday evening.

Mrs. F. L. Rogers has gone to Deposit for an extended visit with friends.

Mr. E. M. Cooney and family and Bradford are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Joseph Krusen continues to improve. He is able to sit up a portion of the time.

Rev. Daniel Redmon occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning.

Several of the young people of this place, married and single, are talking up a trip to the World's Fair by the way of Buffalo and the lakes.

The W. C. T. U. served ice cream at the residence of Mrs. E. S. Bradley last Saturday afternoon. The ladies made good ice cream and sold all they made.

On Monday evening Misses Maggie Hyland and Mary Greenan started for the country where they will rusticate for two weeks, after which they will resume business at the old stand.

Many wells in the village are dry. This has been a great week for hay-ing.

The wife of David Slocum, Sr., is very ill, with no hope of recovery.

J. W. Kniskers of Deposit visited Andover friends Saturday and Sunday. Miss Fannie Arnold of Wellsville has been visiting friends in town for a few days past.

Miss Ella Very of Belfast has been visiting at the home of H. C. Norris during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hammond are the parents of a twelve pound boy baby, who arrived last Sunday.

Rev. E. H. Latimer, presiding elder, preached an excellent sermon from the M. E. pulpit last Sunday evening.

Mr. Wm. Dean and little son, of Cyclone Pa., have been visiting friends in Andover during the past week.

Mrs. Lord, Mrs. Robinson, and Miss Lloyd, of New York city, are visiting at the home of Mr. John Mitchell.

Miles Herrick expects to start tomorrow night for New York to visit his brothers S. G. and C. R. Herrick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. O'Donnell of Hornellsville have been visiting friends in Andover and vicinity since Sunday.

Don't fail to secure seats at once for the band concert Saturday evening. Tickets at L. A. Burrows' drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Slocum of Spring Mills are in town, called here by the illness of Mr. Slocum's mother.

Mr. J. B. Smith and son W. R. Smith, of Chariton, Iowa, are visiting at the home of Mr. Isaac Smith of this place.

Mrs. W. D. Hood of Belmont and her daughter, Mrs. S. B. Knight, are visiting Mrs. Hood's sister, Mrs. O. P. Grandall.

The concert Saturday evening will be worth hearing. The Euterpe Club will sing, there will be much other good music and a farce.

Mr. B. C. Smith of Fostoria, Ohio, returned home the latter part of last week. Mr. F. L. Smith started on the return trip yesterday morning.

Mr. A. L. Jones is doing an immense business furnishing large portraits. He is on the road all the time, and is entitled to the confidence of the people.

Miss May Greenan attended the Demorest silver medal contest at Alfred July 17. There were six speakers. Miss May Whitwood of Almond won the medal.

Don't forget the Farmers' Club meeting at the opera house next Tuesday afternoon. A splendid program has been prepared, and the attendance should be large.

Miss Minnie Hall closed her third term of school in district No. 4, town of Greenwood, Friday. Exercises were held in the afternoon, which consisted of music, recitations, dialogues and readings. A good crowd was present and a very enjoyable time is reported.

The Andover Cornet Band will give a musical entertainment at Prest's opera house Saturday evening of this week, July 29, consisting of solos, duets, quartettes, and quintettes in bass. The Euterpe Club will furnish the vocal music. Miss Minnie Clair will preside at the piano. Home talent will give a farce at close of concert. Reserved seats on sale at L. A. Burrows.

Operator Frank Martin left for the World's Fair Monday evening. He got the first pass issued to a Western Division employee for this trip. Messrs. F. F. Potter, C. E. Benton, and Miss Jennie Clark also left on Monday for the World's Fair. Miss Clark will spend the balance of the summer with her sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Benton of Chicago.

The annual convention of the Steuben County Firemen's Association will be held at Hornellsville, Aug. 15 and 16. The first day will be devoted to election of officers and business matters. On the 16th will occur the grand parade, which will embrace about 30 companies and 12 or 15 bands of music. After the parade the companies will be reviewed on the fair grounds, and then will occur the prize drill, hose race, hub-and-hub race and hook and ladder race, for prizes aggregating $450. No charge for admission. Special trains will be run on the Erie and D. L. & W. roads, and remarkably low rates will be offered. The Hornellsville firemen intend to make this the grandest event of the kind ever known in Western New York.
