PATRIOTIC RALLY

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8th

Tuesday, February 8th, will be observed in Andover as a day set apart to show our allegiance to the cause which over 200 of our younger men are so nobly defending.

Words of praise alone will do them very little good. They need our help in a material way and need it badly. The opportunity is ours to give that help at this time.

The U. S. O. and the service it is rendering in bringing a touch of home life to every man in the armed forces is well known to every family with a boy, husband or father serving at home or overseas. We are asked for $1,200.00 as our share of this work.

The boys cannot do a job without proper support and equipment. We are asked to buy $40,000.00 of bonds of the Fourth War Loan, the best investment in the world. A bond bought today may save the life of some Andover boy tomorrow. THINK IT OVER.

The management of the Andover Theatre has graciously donated the use of the theatre for that day. There will be a picture show and musical program of outstanding merit at 8 o'clock. All proceeds will be donated to the U. S. O.

There will be a door prize of $5.00 in War Savings Stamps and each ticket holder buying a bond at the rally will be refunded the price of admission.

There will be an auction to which many articles of exceptional value have been donated. These will go to the purchasers of bonds on a basis of the highest bidders.

The Boy Scouts will have charge of the sale of tickets for the show and entertainment and will also have charge of the sale of war bonds for that day. They will receive badges of merit for the sale of bonds and prizes in War Savings Stamps will be awarded to the Scouts securing the largest amounts of subscriptions.

Let's all "BACK THE ATTACK" by supporting the U. S. O. and buying extra War Bonds.

Remember the date, Tuesday, February 8th—8 o'clock P. M., at the Andover Theatre — Admission 50 cents.

(Matinee for children at 3 o'clock, Admission 10 cents)

(Adults only admitted at the evening show)

Will Take Advanced Training in Nursing

News and Letters About Our Boys In Service

In a letter received this week by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perry from Pfc. Robert Perry, in the South Pacific, he reports just receiving his Christmas boxes and mail and wishes to thank those who remembered him. "Bob" was on the front when the mail came, which was held until his return to the base.

Word has been received that Joseph Monroe is in the hospital at Vancouver, Wishington, suffering from burns. His present address is:

Pfc. Joseph Monroe, 32251933
Barnes Gen. Hospital, WD18
Vancouver, Wash.

The following brief letter was received this week from Roland Kemp, from Pearl Harbor:

Jan. 19, 1944, Pearl Harbor

Dear Mother:

Received your letter of the 10th today and the letter of the 6th before leaving San Francisco.

Am feeling fine. The sea was pretty rough outside the Golden Gate but pretty nice over here. Very nice climate, guess it stays the same the year around. Like it better than Miami, cools off here at night.

Wish you could see these islands. Very high rugged mountains but here (censored) it is low level land. Haven't been off the ship yet, will get you some post cards when I do get off.

Isn't much to write about now. Am going to a movie in the fan tail.

Love, ROLAND

A V-mail letter from Pfc. Clifford Bixby who is now in England, says, in part:

Jan. 23, 1944

Hello Kid:

Well at last your Xmas greeting has just arrived and, oh boy, what a card. Where in the d— did you get it? Maybe it's one of your own make. We sure had a good laugh about it. I have seen quite a few pretty keen cards but I will have to admit that certainly takes the cake. I passed it around so the rest of the boys could see it. I will try to keep it as long as it holds together.

Well, the Xmas rush is about over. There are a few stray letters and cards still coming in yet. I did mighty well for me this year, received a lot more than I expected. Last season wasn't so hot as we were in North Africa; it was cold and we nearly froze to death. It is wet and cold here but it is still much better all around. It seems funny, here it is January and no snow and there hasn't been any up to date. The News is coming quite regular now and I enjoy reading it. Will have to close, and thanks for the card.

Clifford Bixby

Word received this week from Robert Scott states that he is located in England; feeling fine; lots of swell food and so far well pleased with everything in general. His address:

S|Sgt. Robert E. Scott 12023442
180nd Ord. S. M. Co. (Avn.)
APO 635, c|o Postmaster,
New York, N. Y.

Word has been received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ludden that Richard C. Ludden, Sea. 2nd Class, has been transferred from a hospital in England back to the States.

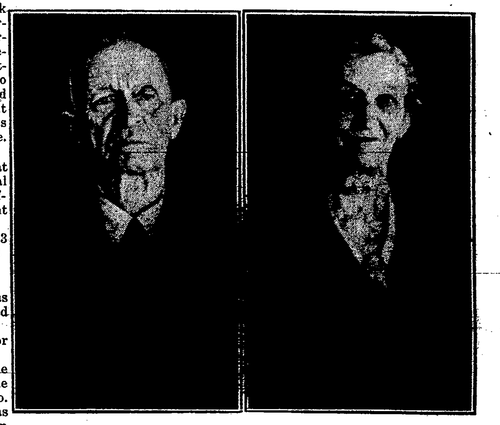
Celebrate Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary



MR. AND MRS. E. F. STEARNS

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Stearns observed their 60th wedding anniversary Saturday, January 29th with open house at their home on Maple avenue, in the afternoon and evening, where many friends called to extend congratulations.

The home was attractively decorated with ten different varieties of Florida green, including mistletoe, which were sent for the occasion by Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Sheppard. Dainty refreshments in charge of Mrs. Niles Green and Mrs. Ruth Legacy of Hornell were served.

Miss Nellie V. Jackson and Ernest F. Stearns were united in marriage January 29, 1884, by Rev. David Winters, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Olean and have resided in Andover since, first upon the Stearns farm and then in the village. They have lived in their present residence on Maple avenue for the past 54 years.

Besides the host of friends they have in Andover, Mr. and Mrs. Stearns have a wide circle of friends thruout the county, many of whom are acquaintances made during the years they were active at Camp Shenawana where Mr. Stearns was caretaker and Mrs. Stearns was in charge of the kitchen.

Mr. and Mrs. Stearns were also the recipients of many cards and remembrances of the occasion.

Barbara Temple Enters St. John's University

Miss Barbara Temple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Temple has entered the St. John's University in New York City, where she will receive a year's advanced instruction in nursing and science.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Baker welcomed a daughter, born Saturday, January 29, at the Tullar maternity hospital, in Wellsville.

Appreciation

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends for the cards and remembrances sent us on our 60th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stearns

Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Church of Voorhees Hill announce the engagement of their daughter, Hilda Lucile, to Allen B. Stout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stout of Hallsport. No definite wedding date has been set.

Volunteers Needed for Red Cross Sewing

Volunteers are needed for the Red Cross sewing, which meets Wednesday afternoons, at Legion hall, from 1:30 until 4. Anyone who will assist in this work is asked to come to the hall.

Kaliopy Karcanes Joins SPARS

Miss Kaliopy Karcanes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Karcanes of Andover, was sworn in the Coast Guard as a SPAR, at the SPAR Color Guard ceremony held Saturday night in the 74th Armory in Buffalo, which marked the climax of a week of SPAR events in that city.

Miss Karcanes leaves February 24th for Palm Beach, Fla. for her basic training.

John Perry

John Perry passed from life at the Glover nursing home here Saturday morning, January 28, 1944, after several weeks illness.

Mr. Perry was born in Whitesville, the son of Peter and Mary Nolan Perry. He is survived by a son Joseph Perry, a daughter, Mrs. Leo Strettmalher of Pittsburg, Pa., and a sister, Mrs. Alice Ludden of Wellsville.

He was a member of Blessed Sacrament Church of Andover.

Services were held Tuesday morning at the Mulholland funeral home, at 9:15, followed by services at the Blessed Sacrament church at 9:30, the Rev. Charles Keller officiating. Interment was in Sacred Heart Cemetery, Wellsville.

Back our boys in service by attending the Patriotic Rally at Andover Theatre.
