

Rockwell Bros.

SEMI ANNUAL Special Sale

AT ROCKWELL BROS., WELLSVILLE, N. Y.

For ten days beginning Wednesday morning Aug. 16 and ending Saturday evening Aug. 26, 1893, we shall offer our entire stock of Dry Goods, Carpets, Millinery, Cloaks, etc., at special prices to make room for new Fall Goods.

We are coming to the end of the largest spring and summer business we ever did in Wellsville, but find our stock unusually large for this season of the year. Therefore we are more than ever anxious to reduce it before opening new Fall Goods.

THE ANDOVER NEWS.

At a meeting of the Allegany County Publishers' Association, held at Bolivar, April 29, 1892, the following rules were unanimously adopted to take effect the week beginning May 4, 1892:

Rule 1.—That not less than 5 cents per line be charged for resolutions of respect, and local notices of entertainments from which revenue is to be derived.
Rule 2.—Cards of thanks to be charged $1.
Rule 3.—Obituaries, such as are published as a matter of news, and lists of wedding presents to be charged for at not less than 5 cents per line.

School meeting next Tuesday evening. Don't fail to be there.

The Ellis block, now owned by O. E. Vars, is being repainted. Wm. Corey and Jesse Hunt are doing the work.

The picnic in maple grove tomorrow promises to be largely attended, and it certainly will be an enjoyable affair.

Manson Rice has sold the lot just west of his residence on Chestnut street to L. D. Baker, who will build a new house on the same. He has already begun work on the foundation.

The long distance telephone will soon be in this city. During the past week the company's manager, C. T. McKee, has been in Allegany county securing the right of way. From Olean the line will follow the railroad tracks, and go through Andover and Greenwood to this city. —Herald-Examiner.

The Wellsville Fair advertising wagon was in town yesterday.

B. B. Hann has purchased a lot of G. M. Barney on the new street.

There will be no service at the Presbyterian church next Sunday.

Andover is pretty well represented today at the firemen's parade in Hornellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kemp are the parents of a girl baby, who put in appearance last Wednesday night.

The work of building the Presbyterian parsonage is progressing finely. The frame is up and the house is nearly enclosed.

Tomorrow is the day for letting the water works contract. A number of contractors and dealers in pipe and other supplies are expected to be on hand.

A man named Earl, 80 years old, passed through Andover on foot Monday morning. He lives in New London, Conn., and is walking to the World's Fair on a wager.

The operators at the intermediate towers (those where there are no switches) on the Erie have all been laid off. A large number of men are thereby thrown out of employment.

The Euterpe Club made sweet music last evening in the open air in front of several residences in the village. Their music is "immense" at any time, but at night, when everything is quiet, and you are just dropping off into a gentle slumber, it is doubly enchanting.

A bicycle rider took a "header" in front of the News office last Friday. The only cause for the accident seemed to be the fact that a horse hitched to a sulky came around the corner at a lively rate. It was the first time we ever saw a horse frighten a bicycle.

Calvin Decker, a former resident of Andover, who left here about the first of last June to take up his residence in Gardiner, N. Y., dropped dead recently in the street in that place. The date of his death, or further particulars in regard to the matter, are not obtainable.

Wisner Doty, who lives about two miles from Andover on the Wellsville road, was taken to Willard asylum this morning. Mr. Doty has been ill for a number of weeks with stomach and bowel difficulty, and became dependent over his condition, which it is thought caused his mental difficulty.

Calvin Slocum, village collector, has returned the corporation tax roll to the village clerk, with every dollar of tax collected except three poll taxes of one dollar each. The parties from whom these amounts were due are out of town and there is no prospect of their immediate return. As a collector Mr. Slocum takes the cake, and it may also be said that Andover citizens are prompt tax payers.

Henry N. Lewis' bank in Wellsville closed its doors yesterday, and Mr. Lewis made a general assignment to Hiram L. Jones of that place. The notice on the door signed by Mr. Lewis said: "Owing to my inability to realize on collections and securities I am compelled to suspend business." Mr. Lewis has been in business in Wellsville for forty years, and his integrity always has been, and is now, above reproach. A bank with assets of one million dollars and liabilities of ten thousand dollars would be compelled to suspend if called on to pay depositors in full, provided there was not enough ready cash on hand to meet the claims. The Reporter says: "Mr. Lewis' reputation for careful business ways and honesty in his dealings leaves little doubt in anyone's mind that depositors will suffer." By the way, we wonder if the Reporter meant just what it said in the above sentence.

The Sunday School picnic held last Thursday in Bloss' grove in Independence was a grand success. It was held under the auspices of the town Sunday School Association of Independence, and at least one thousand persons were in attendance. The Rev. W. D. Allen of Belfast, who was expected to be present and deliver an address, was unable to fill the engagement on account of illness, but there was plenty of material at hand from which to select, and a program consisting of an address by Elder Kenyon, and songs, recitations, etc., was presented. It was the most successful affair of the kind held in this vicinity in a long time, and much hard work was done to make it so. The greater portion of credit for the success of the picnic is undoubtedly due to Mr. R. D. Beebe, President of the Town Association, who worked like a tiger for weeks previous in making the arrangements, and who was on hand to see that the details were carried out.
