Bouquets to You!

To Mrs. Anna Wood, we present our weekly orchid by which we extend our thanks and gratitude for the services she has rendered A. C. S.

Mrs. Wood, the supervisor of of our A. C. S. cafeteria, has done an excellent job of providing our students with good, wholesome food.

Not only does she prepare the daily luncheon for A. C. S. students, but she also helps various organizations in planning the refreshments for their various activities.

We believe Mrs. Wood, therefore, is very worthy of our orchid and present it with many thanks. CMH

Spooks and Goblins

The Spirit of Hallowe'en was carried on in grades one through six, last Tuesday afternoon at which time the pupils had masquerade parties in their respective home rooms.

The grade all joined in a parade and marched through the school.

Among the well dressed were: Lorraine Cornish, Dickie Kemp, Mary Shaw, James Conners, Sandra Bostwick, Lehran Burdick, Donald Lewis, Jacqueline Vickers, Avery Mead, James Yannie, Diane Trowbridge, Larry Brown, Jocelyn Joyce and Robert Grossman.

Most of the grade teachers awarded a prize to the best dressed person in their rooms. After playing games they enjoyed typical Hollowe'en refreshments PY & BD

Freshmen Frolics

If anyone sees Earl Richardson tell him Coach wants to see him about his basketball shoes; also, who wants his seat changed in General Science class.

"I haven't had a letter in three weeks"—Jo Ann.

Let's learn our history, Dick!

Why doesn't Doris Atwell grow up? (You don't have to be tall to be looked up to, tho.)

What new "genius" has just entered the Freshman Class?

Hey, Rosemary! What was our assignment?—Helen Yannie.

Is everybody going to the Sadie Hawkins dance? Come on, girls, get busy and ask those fellows.

Say, one more question, Earl, who is this new flame that seems to be rolling her eyes out of their sockets looking at you?

Lois seems to be our famous gum-chewer. Where does she get it!!!

Who is playing competition to Gene Krupa? It wouldn't be Kevin would it?

To a couple of Freshman girls why is it Wellsville and Whitesville? LC-NS

Book Week Nov. 12-18

Book week will be celebrated throughout A. C. S. November 12 through November 18th.

The theme of book week this year will emphasise the way we are united through books. It will aid us in becoming acquainted with other countries of the world. Posters will be placed throughout the school in remembrance of book week.

So let's all get together and make this week one of the most interesting and enjoyable weeks we have ever had. JL

GRADE NEWS

A Hollowe'en party and parade was held for all the grades Tuesday afternoon of this week.

Miss Rectenwald's kindergarten has purchased $10.55 in defense stamps so far.

Mrs. Allen's first grade has purchased $4.25 in stamps this week to raise their total to $19.20.

Miss Clark's second grade has total of $17 in stamps.

In Miss Bileske's second grade is found an attractive bulletin board decorated with black cats, witches and pumpkins.

Miss Bartholameu's third grade has begun the study of cave men in their social studies.

The fourth grade, under Miss Ferkins, welcomes Thelma Mickle back to school after being quarantined for scarlet fever.

Miss Jordan's fifth grade welcomes a new pupil, Ellsworth Shaw from Alfred-Almond.

Mrs. Swarzenbach's sixth grade has a healthy terrarium this year in which live a snake, a catepillar, a grasshopper, a snail and a spider. In social studies they have made all arrangements for a trip to Egypt by air. In science they are studying the planets.

Mrs. Joyce's seventh grade has two new pupils, Alice and Barnett Bostick. HKY-RMB

Boys Report For Basketball

With the opening of the basketball season officially set for November 1, Coach Robert Ingerson called a meeting of all boys interested in basketball Tuesday afternoon at 3:45, with approximately 25 boys reporting.

Coach Ingerson outlined the plans for the basketball season and stressed the importance of training and practice.

The first practice session was held Wednesday afternoon after school. The prospects for a good team this year are fair, said Mr. Ingerson, with Bob Baker, Ferd Smith, Jim Holt and Basil Dunham available from last year's varsity squad.

Art Department News

Miss Wilder's art classes have finished working on their last week's projects. The classes are now starting new tasks of interest.

In Design I, the girls have been making colorful pictures on paper plates.

Sketching large pictures to get the swing of drawing is their main objective at present.

In Mechanical Drawing the boys are learning the art of placing certain figures in a given space on the paper.

Puppets for Hallowe'en have been the interest of the eighth grade in the past week. These puppets are painted carefully and clothes have been made of brightly colored cloth.

Pictures of landscapes are being carefully colored and drawn by the representation class DKE

Capture Your Man ! ! !

Come on, girls, and get your men. Remember the square dance sponsored by the Seniors?

The girls are supposed to ask the boys to this dance, following the Sadie Hawkins custom!

So, girls, if you have to chase him for blocks, catch him, before somebody else does ! ! !

Dancing, round and square, will be held at the A. C. S. auditorium, November 10, from 9 to 1.

Music by "The Dodpatchers."

Don't forget, everybody, our square dance. SM

Pupils Attend Dental Clinic

The second dental clinic of the year was held last Friday, October 27, at the office of Dr. K. E. Comfort of Canisteo, with eight ACS pupils attending, accompanied by school nurse, Mrs. Greene.

All pupils reported as pleasant a time as could be expected in a dental office, which included a chocolate milk shake treat by the doctor.

The next clinic will be held on Friday, November 3.
