

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Andover meets the first and third Thursday in each month.

The W. C. T. U. in Evanston, Ill., has branched out on a new line of the white ribbon work. Under the care of Mrs. J. E. Zimmerman, sister of Edward Eggleston, the novelist, a night school for boys has been organized and is a pronounced success, the pupils being earnest, eager, and doing their "boys best" to behave. Along with the three R's an effort is to be made to instill principles of purity in the habits of life, and to win the boys to a higher sense of manliness, at the same time amusing them and interesting them so that they will be kept off the street and away from the influence of bad companions.

The World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the National W. C. T. U. of the United States will hold their conventions on successive days beginning Oct. 16, in Chicago, in the Memorial Art Institute building, in which are held all the great congresses of the Columbian Exposition year. This will be the twentieth convention of the White Ribboners of the United States and the second biennial convention of the World's W. C. T. U. The convention of the World's W. C. T. U. will be composed of its general officers and executive committee, the secretaries and treasurers of auxiliary National societies, the world's superintendents of departments, the editors and publishers of the official organ, and one additional delegate for every 1,000 members of auxiliary National societies.

What Is It Doing?

What is the cruel, insatiable monster whiskey doing for humanity? It makes a pauper with every tick of the clock, disqualifies 78 men for business every minute of time, causes 1,000 deaths every day, 300 cases of insanity, 13,000 fights, beats 1,200 wives, 1,700 children, causes 1,000 divorces, utters 800,000 oaths, revels in vulgarisms, keeps up the brothel and traffics heavily in virtue. This is the work it gets in daily, seven days in the week and 365 days in the year, and does double duty on holidays. At the end of the year add to the category of crime the murder in cold blood of 3,000 wives a year by drunken, brutal husbands.

Inter-State Fair At Elmira.

General Weaver, who was the candidate of the People's party for President of the United States last fall, and Mrs. Lease of Kansas, the People's party agitator, will speak at the Inter-State fair at Elmira, Aug. 29, which will be the farmers' day.

The following day the Prohibition state convention will be held in Elmira. Secretary Robinson will extend to the delegates an invitation to attend the fair.

August 31 will be "good road" day, and those who are interested in road making will have an opportunity to witness all varieties of roads made on the fair grounds.

Friday, Sept. 1, will be Red Men's day, and great preparations are being made to entertain the pale face Indians in a manner worthy the noble order.

On the following Monday T. V. Powderly, head of the Knights of Labor, will deliver an address on the fair grounds.

Tuesday will occur the marriage on the grounds, and immediately thereafter the nuptial wedding trip in a balloon.

Wednesday, the Knights of Pythias will hold forth on the grounds; on Thursday the Patriotic Sons of America on Friday will occur the grand carnival.

From Scranton, Pa.

Saved A Traveling Man's Life.

Whitehall, N. Y., Sept. 20, 1892. A commercial traveler came into my store recently and said: "I am looking for something that saved my life. I was taken with terrible symptoms of cholera morbus about a year ago and stopped into some store along this street and got a cure for it." I showed him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He did not recognize it at first but on tearing off the wrapper says: "Yes, this is it. It saved my life. I don't need it now, but I am going to buy this so as not to be without it." This remedy meets the wants of the people and sells well here. C. H. Broughton, druggist. For sale by L. A. Burrows, druggist.

DESERVING PRAISE.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merit. L. A. Burrows, Druggist.
