Victor's lovely voice. Don't let "Frank" fool any of you girls.

Paul Kilbane and "Barb" Childs seem to have picked a new dance up someplace along the line. Where did you get it?

Jim Backus: Say, is Janie the next one? More power to these dream boys of A. C. S.

Tommy Lynch has that "star-eye" look on his face. —Love is a great thing.

One person walked up to us and wanted us to put an add in for a big mouth, like "Bob" Baker's. Reward given to anyone. (A good kick.)

Clara, you sure had a "large week-end didn't you? Say, how do you do it, and still look "good?"

Homemaking News

The Boy's Homemaking Class were darning socks, which they actually brought from home, sewing on buttons and mending three cornered tears last week. This week they are washing sweaters and pressing trousers. Boy! Come on girls, grab your man!

The Homemaking A girls are working on plans for their dinner.

The Homemaking 9 Class, 9th grade girls are finishing their study of nutrition and vitamines.

Homemaking 6 Class has been marking reports. Maxine Clark gave a report on things to look for, when buying furniture. Arretta Dunham, things to look for when buying sheets and pillow cases. Jeanne Hosley is going to give a report on things to look for when buying small electrical equipment for the home.

The Homemaking bulletin boards are very interesting. Their faces are outside of the room and their tails are inside. Their tails are made of cotton and they look very much alive. You'd better watch out that they don't eat your vegetables out of the refrigerator, Mrs. Ingerson. CJB
