Guess Who?

This week we are presenting to you a Senior boy who was born February 1, 1927, in Andover, New York.

This young man has many favorites. Some of them are:

Car—Buick.
Food—Cherry pie.
Movie—Objective Berma.
Actress—Ingrid Bergman.
Actor—Pat O'Brien.
Book—"They Were Expendable."
Author—Walter Edmonds.
Subject—Latin II.

The subjects he is now taking are Problems of Democracy and English IV.

The most interesting experience in his life was switching on the Erie.

The brand of service which he intends to join soon is the Infantry (of course.)

His post-war plans are to find a beautiful girl, and you can guess the rest.

Have you guessed who this young fellow is? In case you haven't, I will tell you, it is Raymond Craig Snyder. PJ
