SEMI-ANNUAL Special Sale

For ten days beginning Wednesday morning Aug. 16 and ending Saturday evening Aug. 26, 1893, we shall offer our entire stock of Dry Goods, Carpets, Millinery, Cloaks, etc., at special prices to make room for new Fall Goods.

We are coming to the end of the largest spring and summer business we ever did in Wellsville, but find our stock unusually large for this season of the year. Therefore we are more than ever anxious to reduce it before opening new Fall Goods.

We've had rain!

Hurrah for completed water works by Nov. 1st!

L. C. Van Fleet is digging the cellar for his new house on the hill.

The new houses of John Prest and W. J. Deming, on G. M. Barney's new street, are enclosed.

A son of the Hon. A. B. Cottrell of Alfred Centre fell down the elevator shaft of the terra cotta works a few days ago and received quite severe injuries.

The assignee of Gen. N. M. Crane, the Hornellsville banker who recently suspended payment, has filed his report of the resources and liabilities of the bank. The creditors are not satisfied with the report, claiming there has been crooked work and they have held a meeting and have an attorney to investigate the matter.

ing court so as to have the case overruled by the Supreme Court.

We are requested to announce that there will be services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning. The pastor, Rev. G. M. Jones, having, it is thought, sufficiently recovered to enable him to officiate.

Lewis Haas, for the past seven years traveling Sunday School Missionary, who is well known throughout this section, has resigned that position, and will hereafter act as parole agent and religious instructor in the State Industrial School at Rochester.

Somebody who evidently has a regard for "law and order," hands us the following:—The attention of the game constable is respectfully called to a certain young man who has been found fishing for carp in several water-pails in different business places in this city.

A new timetable went into effect on the Erie last Sunday. No. 9 is now No. 15, and runs on the same time—leaving Andover at 7:48 p. m. No. 1 is about twenty minutes later than heretofore. A new train has been put on the Buffalo division, leaving Hornellsville at 1:30 p. m.

J. P. Herrick, editor of the Ceres Mail and Bolivar Breeze, was arrested a few days ago for libel. The alleged injured party is a blacksmith and the alleged libellous article was published in the Ceres Mail. Brother Herrick has never been in jail and we don't believe he ever will be.

In the Western New York department of the Buffalo Express last Friday, the following item appeared: "It is reported that Belmont will have a newspaper soon." The editors of the Post and the Dispatch ought to find the correspondent for the Express and knock him down with a stuffed club.

W. G. Tucker, the Elm Valley breeder, loaded his famous herd of Ayrshire cattle, and Shropshire sheep at this station today, for shipment to the Hornellsville Fair, to be held next week. Mr. Tucker will bring all his stock to the Wellsville Fair, the week following.—Saturday's Wellsville Reporter.

The special days at the Inter State Fair are as follows: August 29, Gen. Weaver and Mrs. Lease will speak; August 30 will be Prohibition day; August 31 Good Road day; Sept. 1, Red Men's day; Monday Sept. 4, Labor day, Tuesday Sept. 5, will occur the marriage and balloon ascension; Thursday the Knights of Pythias will hold forth on the grounds; on Friday the Patriotic Sons of America and on Saturday will occur the grand band carnival.

We were shown a few days ago, by Mrs. E. M. Stillman of this place, a copy of the Hoosac Valley News and Transcript, published at North Adams, Mass. The paper is dated January 16, 1862, and contains, among other matters of interest, a history of the Rebellion from its inception to January 1, 1862. This history is a brief resume of events occurring from day to day, and is decidedly interesting. The paper in its editorial department is radically opposed to secession, and has at mast-head the motto, "No Compromise—Down with Treason."

At the Republican caucus last Saturday evening, H. P. Benton was elected chairman and Jesse S. Phillips, secretary. T. N. Boyd and James McGinty were elected delegates to the Senatorial convention, and C. B. Lever, Clarence O'Donnell, H. P. Bundy and G. B. Proper were elected delegates to the County convention. Frank McGinty, J. C. Green and J. M. Beebe were elected town committee for the ensuing year. Robert O'Donnell attended the County convention yesterday as a substitute for his brother Clarence.

The immense popularity of the Erie's newly constructed W. & A. excursion is due to its splendid service. The magnificent new high-back seat solid comfort coaches, 30 to 40 people only allowed to each coach, schedule time always made, and the personal attention and constant attention given to the comfort of passengers, has won laurels for the management. The next half-fare trips are announced for Saturday, Sept. 2d and Wednesday, Sept. 6th. New York day at the fair occurs Sept. 4th.

Go to E. M. Stillman's for school supplies.
