Jap Internee to Speak Sunday

Rev. H. A. Jackson, who spent six months in the Japanese Concentration Camp at Mytho, French Indo China and who was repatriated on the last voyage from the Far East of the exchange ship, Gripsholm, will be the guest speaker Sunday at the Christian & Missionary Alliance Church of Andover.

Rev. Jackson has served as a pioneer missionary to French Indo Chino since 1920 and during that time has worked among the super-religious Anamese tribe and in the savage Moi Tribe. After the Jap invasion of French Indo China, he and his family were placed at first in forced residence and then interned in the Mytho Concentration Camp.

At the 10:30 a. m. worship service, Rev. Jackson will speak on "How God prepared the Church in French Indo China for Pearl Harbor." At 11:30 a. m. he will address the Sunday School and show curios from French Indo China; and at 8:00 p. m., Rev. Jackson will show colored steropticon pictures of French Indo China.

Rev. W. D. Carlsen, pastor of the church, extends an invitation to all to come and hear this outstanding missionary. An announcement of great interest to all, regarding the building program of the church will be made at the evening service.
