LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. W. F. Snyder is reported seriously ill at her home on Dyke street.

Leslie Behn suffered a broken collarbone Tuesday while playing football at the Andover Athletic field.

Mrs. Lou Snyder of East Valley is in the St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell for observation and treatment.

Another big gas well was completed last week near Addison, making four good producers drilled in recently there.

Charles Slocum has purchased of Thatcher Bros, Hornell a three-year-old horse, which with the one he had, makes a nice team.

Miss Veronica McAndrew celebrated her sixth birthday at her home Monday and was the recipient of many gifts and cards honoring the occasion.

Announcement has been made that the state is making preparations for the rebuilding of the Jasper-Addison highway with the elimination of the bad corners in Woodhull village.

Floyd Clarke has been appointed sales agent in this area for the Federal Crop Insurance program. Protection for the winter wheat crop is now available and must be filed by September 15.

Principal and Mrs. Glenn E. Bretsch moved their household goods to Addison Saturday and Edward Kent is moving from Wellsville to the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Bretsch, which he has purchased.

The King's Daughters of the Presbyterian church will be entertained at a 7 o'clock supper at the home of Mrs. Anna Wood this Friday evening, August 31. Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Bertha Hardy and Mrs. Carl Fribolin, hostesses.

Clark Reunion

Seventy-seven friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Livermore, Sunday, August 26th, to hold the clark reunion.

After a bountiful dinner was enjoyed the business meeting was held and the following officers elected for the coming year: Clair Clark of Cleveland, Ohio, president; Kenneth Clark of Wellsville, vice president; Doris Baker, secretary and treasurer; Reba Dare of Wellsville, historian. Allen Corwin of Wellsville will have charge of the program, while Mrs. Robert Whitford of Almond and Mrs. Roy Lunn were appointed arrangement committee.

Allen Corwin brought his sound equipment and under his direction a fine program of songs, recitations, and instrumental selections were presented.

It was voted to hold the next reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Livermore.

League Sub-District Meets At Alfred Station

Alfred Station, Aug. 30.—The regular meeting of Sub-District 19-A of the Dairymen's League Cooperative Association was held Monday evening in the Alfred Station Community Hall, presided over by President Glenn Talbott, Fillmore.

Donald Pierce, Alfred, led the salute to the flag and one verse of the Star Spangled Banner was sung. The Rev. A. N. Rogers of Alfred Station welcomed the visitors in a happy manner. A reading, "Stories About Milk" was given by Mrs. Bertha Burdick, and a piano solo was rendered by Lola Sutton.

First prize essay contest winner, Ellis Stout, Hallsport, read his essay, "Dairymen's League Aims and Purposes." A stunt song, led by the Rev. Rogers, was enjoyed by all. A reading by Mrs. Northrup, Andover, "A Victory Message," a skit by Miss Jean Lewis, read by Mrs. Bertha Willard, and the singing of "America" concluded the opening part of the program.

Director Seeley of Tioga, Pa. and Steuben County was introduced and in his remarks warned against the dangers before milk producers when they lose a seller's market. He outlined some of the accomplishments of the leage which had benefitted all League members.

Director S. W. Clarke, Independence, reported that milk production was high—40 to 50 pounds per day per dairy more than it was one year ago at this time. He also outlined the need for repairs to some League-owned plants and said that work had been begun on the new plant in New York City.

Resolutions of sympathy to Director Clarke and family were ordered sent because of their recent bereavement in the death of his wife. Fred Pierce, Clifford Burdick and LaRue Seers were named a committee to draft the resolution.

Bath Fair To Be Victory Fair

Presenting an opportunity for both education and entertainment, the Steuben County Fair which opens at Bath Labor Day, September 3, and continues throughout the week, will provide for many a much needed change and relaxation from routine duties. Following close on the heels of final victory of World War II, the 126th Annual Fair will be designated as the Victory Fair, according to J. Victor Faucett, Secretary, and with the lifting of war-time restrictions, indications point to record-breaking crowds throughout the week.

The Fair will be featured by a fine racing program, mid-way, larger exhibits and a horse show.
