Rev. W. D. Shearer Named Delegate to Conference in Syracuse

Rev. W. D. Shearer of the First Methodist Church of Andover is to be one of 522 ministerial delegates representing the 918 Methodist churches of the Syracuse area at a conference on Evangelism to be held October 16, 17 and 18 in Syracuse. This conference has been called by Bishop W. Earl Ledden to consider the third step in the large united program advanced by the Methodist church. The first step was entitled "A Crusade for a New World Order" and was completed in 1944. The second step was a campaign to raise $25,000,000 to help relieve suffering thruout the war-torn world and was successful in that $27,000,000 was pledged, of which over $18,000,000 has already been paid in.

The third theme of this "Crusade for Christ" conducted by the united Methodist church is entitled, "The Year of Evangelism." The nation-wide goal is to win one million new members, of which it is hoped that 600,000 will be new converts.

The theme of this Crusade is "All for Christ and Christ for All."
