Rural Women Form New Organization

A new county organization was formed Wednesday afternoon October 10, when a group of women met at the court house in Belmont and organized an Allegany county unit of the Council of Rural Women. It is auxiliary to the New York State Council of Rural Women, and is comprised, as is the State Council, of 12 women, four each from the Grange, Home Bureau and Home Department of the Dairymen's League.

Mrs. Lewis Middaugh, Friendship, Dairymen's League representative of the State Council, was chairman of the meeting.

Officers elected were: Mrs. Middaugh, president; Mrs. Ruth Sears, Belmont, vice chairman; Mrs. Carl R. Burdick, Wellsville, secretary-treasurer. A program committee was appointed comprised of Mrs. E. A. Witter, Almond; Mrs. Harold Chaffee, Angelica and Mrs. Leon Collins, Scio.

The purposes of the organization are "To unify the thinking and action of organized rural women on activities and programs affecting rural life, and to give organized rural women a voice in plans for human progress and opportunities for public service."

The 1945 program for the State Council, which was tentatively adopted by the County Chapter, is Planning for Peace on the Farm and Home Fronts, Nutrition, Legislation, Good Citizenship in Community, County, State, National and International Affairs, Youth, and Safety.
