Alfred E. Smith Memorial Fund Drive Extended

Fred S. Buck, Allegany County chairman for the Alfred E. Smith Memorial Fund Drive has announced that the efforts in the county will be continued. "Previous reports that the fund had been over-subscribed," he said, "were without foundation."

The reason for the extension of the drive locally was revealed in a telegram from James A. Farley, National chairman, in which was stated the fact that the fund is $400,000 short of its goal.

The local committee believes there are countless numbers of people who wish to join in the honoring of the memory of Alfred E. Smith; but have not contributed because of either neglect or because the matter has slipped their minds. All those are urged to contribute without further delay. Contributions may be made at the Andover National Bank.
