We see James Baker and John Connor were at Mary Ellen's birthday party Tuesday night. Was the ice cream and cake good, boys?

We hear that James Baker and John Connor sure like to make up stories about Betty O'Dell walking a certain boy home.

We all wonder how Teddy O'Dell can get both his girls on the bicycle.

We see Joan Joyce has a pretty permanent.

Who are the certain girls who always like to go to the dances Friday nights together?

We see Bruce Nye likes to go to the office early in the morning.

What's the matter, Carl Clark? She didn't step on you that hard did she?

We all wonder why Ella Mae Clair doesn't get her a man so we can have something to write about.

We hear Mary Margaret Dean attended Mary Ellen's birthday party.

We are all glad to see Rita back again in circulation, aren't we, Wayne?

It's fun to ride people (girls) on your bicycle isn't it Bob Burger?

We see Evelyn Glover missed her telephone call from Dewey Monday night. Better luck Evelyn.

We see Richard Lynch and John Conner are trying to start a new fad of wearing their pant legs inside of their socks! We don't like it, boys!

Which one of the Flynn boys is the major wolf? We would like to have a vote on it.

We see Bob Mingus gets along good with Madge Collins in third period study hall. Anything serious, Bob?

We see Wayne Sherwood likes to push Anna Marie Green's books around.

We wonder where John Baker has been lately. You don't have a touch of Spring fever do you?

We see "Bob" Gorsuch and "Barb" Wintemberg are getting along fine, aren't you Bob?

We see Margaret Jackson has been studying pretty hard lately. It isn't getting on your nerves, is it?

We liked those striped slacks you had on Tuesday, Joan. Why not wear them again!

ACS

Assembly Held

Friday, April 5th, was an exciting day for the students of ACS. An assembly was held at 9 o'clock at which time the new constitution of the ACS Student Council was presented to the Junior-Senior high school. It was debated and discussed for two hours. Two or three changes were made, but when the students returned to their home rooms at 11 o'clock they had all agreed to try the constitution for the rest of the school year and then, if need be, to amend it.

The committee, composed of William Dougherty, Senior; Dolores Bills, Junior; James Burgett, Sophomore and Ruth Shutt, Freshman, were responsible for drawing up this document. They should be congratulated for their efforts in doing such an excellent job.

Elections for the Student Council will be held in the near future and we hope that the rest of the students are as serious about student government as the committee was. May it be a success and really function. DV

Robins

Hopping on the window sill,
Daneing in the sun,
Stood a little Robin,
Singing just for fun.

Along came his sister,
Looking very shy,
She'll be glad to sing,
In the middle of July.

Across the road stood Jerry,
Feeling bold and gay,
Asked if he could sing,
The song "The Blue and the Gray."

Winter is coming,
So the birds must go.
When they'll be back?
Only God will know!

The average American isn't doing so badly these days. He has a nice price ceiling over his head, confusion to clothe him, labor-management differences to keep him warm, his own words to eat, and promises to protect his future.
