National Home Demonstration Week, May 5-12

Centering activities around the theme "Today's Homes Build Tomorrow's World," Home Bureau members in Allegany county will celebrate National Home Demonstration Week in each unit with plans best suited to unit programs.

Home Demonstration Week, which will be observed May 5 to 12 by three million women in the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, will call attention to the progress made in rural and community living since the home demonstration work program was initiated over 30 years ago.

In New York State, Home Bureau organizations in 47 counties and three cities have planned meetings, exhibits, tours and radio programs showing the values of home demonstration work to the family, the community and the state.

Extension Service and Home Bureau leaders from Allegany county will hold a regional meeting of the Western district May 6 and 7, announces Louise Mackay, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Held in connection with National Home Demonstration Week the conference will point up the accomplishments of Extension Service homemaking program in this district, and outline plans for the coming year. Delegates representing 14 counties in Western New York are expected.

Among the interesting guests expected to appear on the program are: Mrs. Paul Munson of Ithaca, a native of Holland, who will speak on international relationships; Mrs. Wentworth L. Fay, president of the State Federation; Miss Frances Scudder, State leader of Home Demonstration Work.

Arrangements are being made to hold the banquet at the General Brook Hotel on the Canadian side and to visit the gardens there and see the lighted falls Monday evening.

Representing Allegany County Home Bureau at the district convention will be: Mrs. Paul Regan, Mrs. Louise Mackay, Mrs. Clyde Depew, Mrs. Frances Karl, Mrs. Ezra Gilbert, Mrs. Lena Francisco, Mrs. Milton Sisson, Mrs. Lewis Middaugh and Mrs. John Curry.
