the enormous Buffalo Auditorium, which is where the circus was held, men with toy balloons, candy, and other things shouted to attract attention their way. At stands ladies sold pop corn, candy, and ice cream. We handed in our tickets and went to our reserved seats. This was a big three-ring circus with lots of animals. Then the circus started. Women did stunts on ropes. Then there was the man who had a car that blew up and blew his pants off. A man jumped off an 80-foot ladder into a burning tank of liquid. Then the tight-rope walker walked on a rope while men and women swung from a trapeze. Last of all a man was shot from a cannon into a net.

We were gone all day, arriving home at 9 o'clock. We were tired but we had a good time.

SHRINE CIRCUS

William McNeill, Grade 5

When we arrived at the Andover Central School, we were given tags. On them was printed, "The Allegany County Shrine Club and Whitesville bus." We had to fasten these on our coats so if any of us lost, they could find us more easily.

Miss Baker and Miss Church were our chaperons on this trip. We left Andover Central School at 6:45 a. m. We went on a Whitesville bus. There were also pupils from Whitesville and Scio on this bus. Near Belfast I saw Transit Bridge. The Erie railroad runs over it and the bridge is a mile long.

We went by Wellsville, Belfast, Arcade, Sandusky, and a few more towns before reaching Buffalo.

All the buses met at Yorkshire Corners. There were eight buses altogether, including the Whitesville bus that came from the schools of Allegany county. There was one from Cuba, one from Belmont, one from Bolivar, one from Wellsville, one from Scio, and two from Fillmore.

We arrived at the city limits, we found three policemen on motorcycles all ready to act as our escorts thru the city to Lorenzo's. Here we ate our lunch which consisted of spaghette and meat balls with Chocolate Eclairs for dessert.

After our lunch we were taken to the zoo, where we saw many different animals. Of all the animals I think the elephant was the most interesting. The monkeys were comical too. Two of them got in a quarrel. They were trying to knock each other offa stick.

After we were all rounded up, we were ready for the Circus. We were then taken to the Ismailia Temple. One of the things we saw was a man with a whip, making the tigers and lions mind. Another act was where a man was shot from a gun on a automobile. The most interesting act in my opinion was a man who jumped from an 80-foot pole into a tank of water and landed safely.

The most exciting moment was when I got lost from the good old Allegany group at the Ismailia Temple. I went out in the hall and found a man who was selling pop and popcorn. I told him I was lost. He told a policeman, the policeman looked at my "dog tag" as I called it. The policeman took me to another man and I finally ended up with the good old Allegany group.

From here we went to the Whitesville bus. We had our pictures taken twice. We were given a box lunch, in which we were to eat on our way home. We had the police escorts to the city limits where we started from.

We stopped at Yorkshire Corners and had a chance to get ice cream cones and relax. Our next stop was at Scio to let the Scio group off.

We got back to Andover at 9:15 p. m. I called up my dad, but he was already down to the Andover Central School after me.

The best part of the trip was that all this was free, given to us by the Shriners of Allegany County.

Because my name was drawn from among twenty names of the pupils from ten to fourteen years of age, I was chosen to go.

MY BUFFALO TRIP

Thelma Mickle, 5th Grade

We started out on the Whitesville Bus at 6:45 a. m. in the morning and reached Buffalo about 11:50 a. m. When we reached the city limits we were met by a police escort. At Lorenzo's Restaurant we had lunch which included Italian sphagetti, chocolate eclairs and milk.

The zoo was our next stop, where we say monkeys, elephants, elk, snakes, swans, camels and peacocks. Seeing things like these proved interesting because I have read about them but had never seen them.

After feeding the Chipmunks and leaving, we were driven to the "Circus," where we were kept on the edge of our seats by a daring act on a trapeze and a man diving into a pool of flames. Another daring act was performed when a man was shot from a cannon. A band was parading around the floor when to the surprise of the crowd the trousers of one of the musicians was blown off. The band then hurried off the floor. The legs of one man looked like rubber as he wound them around his neck.

After a very interesting afternoon at the "circus" we climbed into our bus to start home and we were handed a box lunch. Together with several other buses and our police escort, we left the city of Buffalo. We arrived in Andover at 9:05 in the evening and were met by our parents who took us home. We were all very tired but happy after our pleasant and exciting day.
