Tanker Truck Burns on Andover-Greenwood Road Friday

A large tanker truck loaded with 4,000 gallons of gasoline burst into flames about four miles west of Greenwood last Friday afternoon as it was descending the long hill. The truck cab was burned off and the tires destroyed, but the driver, Arthur Hoag of Salamanca, escaped without injury.

The Greenwood fire department was called also the Andover fire department by passing motorists, but the Greenwood department extinguished the fire with spray nozzles before the Andover department arrived.

It is believed that the heat that day caused the gas to expand so that it flowed thru vent valves on top of the tank running down on the hot exhause pipe where it ignited. The tanker was owned by the Rotary Gas Company of Elmira.
