Two County Herds Exceed 50-Lb. Average

Belmont.—Of the 71 herds under test during June by the Allegany County Dairy Herd Improvement Association, two of them averaged more than 50 pounds of butterfat per cow, 11 of them over 40 pounds, and 33 between 30 and 40 pounds each. Four testers or supervisors were at work during last month: Howard E. Guinnip, Almond; J. Wilber Histed, Belfast; Margaret Lynch, Andover, and Harold Hadsell, Angelica.

The Ceylon Snider herd, Fillmore, 26 cows, averaged 54.2 pounds of butterfat each, an exceptional record considering the size of his registered Holstein herd. Carl Clarke's Andover herd of 13 animals, also registered Holsteins, averaged 52.7 pounds of fat each. The Snider herd produced 39,370 pounds of milk, the Clarke herd 19,058 pounds.

Other local herds among the high producers during June are Lawrence Perkins, 44.5; William Joyce 44.5 and R. E. Spicer 42.7.
