Looking Winterward.

Our Underwear department is one that receives close and particular attention. The heavy grades are now in and placed in position. The stock includes cotton, half-wool, all wool—white, natural grey and scarlet, in both ribbed and flat goods. Fleece lined for children and others of tender skin. Combination suits for ladies and children.

Ladies' fast-black fleeced Hosiery 17 to 50c pair. Wool and cashmere Hosiery 25c to $1.00 pair.

Extra values in children's ribbed wool Hose at 25c pair and upwards.

Men's heavy shaw-knits, also wool and cashmere Socks from the cheapest to the best.

The run at present is on Iced Squares, and it looks as if it would continue. We're in excellent shape for it, however, showing as we do five different grades from 47c to $2.00 each.

Jackets are beginning to move. It doesn't take long to satisfy from a stock as large as ours. Children's and infants' garments a specialty.

Our milliner is back from a two weeks' visit in New York, and we are now ready to show new goods and do fall trimming.

Barnum's circus drew a large crowd from this place last Friday.

No school this week, on account of Teachers' Institute at Belmont.

Abram Slocum has broken ground for his new house on First street.

Hale Davis wants to rent a portion of his house. Enquire of him at his residence.

The long distance telephone line is being built through this town. The wire will be run into the office here.

Work on the water works reservoir has been progressing several days. A party of Italians arrived Tuesday and are now at work on the line. The hydrants and valves came the first of the week.

A lawsuit between Archie Macaulay and Thomas Swain, with Jesse S. Phillips and Charles J. Rogers as attorneys, has been in progress for a couple of days past before Justice Holmes. No decision has been reached.

C. M. Wood's home on the corner of First street and Maple avenue is nearing completion. Mr. Wood intends to occupy the house.

The Western Union telegraph office will soon be moved to Beebe, Williams & Co.'s store and J. M. Beebe will have charge of both that and the Postal line.

Races will be held on the Babcock kite track in Hornellsville, Oct. 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th. There will be three races each day, with a purse of $400 for each race. Some of the best horses in the country will be there.

News has just been received in Andover of the death of Joel Mourhess, an uncle of H. Mourhess of this place, and a former resident who was well known in this vicinity. His death occurred about the middle of July, at Bible Grove, Mo.

On Wednesday night of last week, some unknown persons attempted to enter by force the house of John Cronin, an aged farmer living alone on an unfrequented road in Alfred. The old man fired his revolver at them and the marauders fled.

Fowler & Remington have moved their stock of furniture into the building used by E. Smith & Co. as a bakery. Both branches of business will hereafter be conducted at this place, and Mr. Fowler will also continue his undertaking business at the same place. Remember the bakery is there yet.

A preliminary meeting of the C. L. S. C. was called by the President, Miss Spaulding, Sept. 18th. The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Benedict, President; Miss Spaulding, Vice President; Emma Conn, Secretary; Mrs. Herrick, Treasurer. The circle adjourned to meet with Mrs. H. A. Benedict, Oct. 2d, at 7.30 p. m.

Mrs. F. S. CLARK, Sec. pro tem.

Died, Sept. 22d, 1893, Mary, daughter of Patrick Mulcahy of Tip Top Summit, aged 4 months and 29 days. Among those from a distance who attended the funeral were Misses Nellie Cronin, Mary Mulcahy and Mary Trehey, of Hornellsville, Patrick Tobin of Addison, John Mulcahy of Machias, Thomas Mulcahy of Coudersport, Pa., T. O'Brien wife and son, and Mrs. John Dillon of Belmont, and P. Conners and wife of Wellsville.

A letter received by N. E. Hardy from A. J. Corwin of Decatur, Mich., says that the lamb owned by Mr. Corwin, which was mentioned in the News as weighing 14 pounds when one day old, was sheared when five months old, and produced seven pounds, nine ounces of wool. When 101 days old, the lamb weighed 115 pounds. The letter also contained a clipping from a Decatur paper which states that "Hungerford & Corwin threshed for C. A. Limbeck, in Wayne township, 64 bushels of wheat in 28 minutes. They started to beat the record, and we think they have done so."

Died.

Conrad Mingus died at his home in South Andover, Saturday, Sept. 23, 1893, aged 73 years. The deceased has been afflicted with cancer for some time and his death was not unexpected. He leaves three children—Mrs. A. A. McCann, Miss Mila Mingus and Mr. A. M. Mingus, all of this town. The wife of the deceased died last January.

Mr. Mingus had lived on the place where he died for 46 years. Previous to that time he resided with his parents about two miles further south. When he took up his residence on his own farm there was little but woods for miles around. He cleared and improved the place and has been a witness of and assistant in the progress of enterprise to the present time. He was much respected as a citizen and neighbor.

Funeral services were held at the house on Tuesday, Rev. G. W. Gibson officiating. The burial took place at Summer Valley.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned wish to return thanks to the friends who rendered assistance during the illness and after the death of their father, the late Conrad Mingus, and assure them that we are very grateful for all favors rendered.
